The subscriber begs leave to return his thanks to his friends and the public generally, for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, and hopes by strict attention to business, to receive a continuation of their Imitation Quartier Watches, givelled, finest quality, and hopes upon the principle "a nimble size pence is better than a slow shilling," and to carry out the principle, makes quick sales at small adjoined to reat splendar, but he flatters himself that vances. His place of business is not a brick front, or of great splendor, but he flatters himself that he can suit customers better, and sell cheaper, than persons who do business in big brick houses, and make a great fuss about selling goods at cost, he does not sell goods at cost, but sells at a small ad-vance, and by so doing expects to please all that may favor him with their patronage. He requests all persons, after visiting some of the showy es-tablishments along Front street, to drop in at No. 40, (sign of the Big Hat and Cap) and compare the goods and prices of the different establish-ment, and he is satisfied he can sell them a better article, and at a lower price than any other store article, and at a lower price than any other store Borough.
