and hopes by series a continuation of their ness, to receive a continuation of their favors; he goes upon the principle "a nimble siz-pence is better than a slow shilling," and to carry out the principle, makes quick sales at small ad-vances. His place of business is not a brick front, or of great splendor, but he flatters himself that he can suit customers better, and sell cheaper, than persons who do business in big brick houses, and make a great fuss about selling goods at cost, he does not sell goods at cost, but sells at a small ad-vance, and by so doing expects to please all that may favor him with their patronage. He requests all persons, after visiting some of the showy es-tablishments along Front street. to drop in at No. 40, (sign of the Big Hat and Cap) and compare the goods and prices of the different establish-ment, and he is satisfied he can sell them a better article, and at a lower price than any other store in the borough. in the borough
