

COOKING STOVES.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT.
STEWART'S Patent Air-Tight and Hot-Air Summer and Winter COOKING STOVE, for Wood or Coal. Sold only at No. 86, Baltimore Street, Baltimore, by the subscriber, having the exclusive right to sell them in the States of Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia and all Pennsylvania west of the Susquehanna river.
This celebrated Stove has now a character which no other has ever attained, and has been often enough and long enough tried to warrant the declaration that it is the best Cooking Stove in America, and should any doubt if I am ready to test it with any other stove, either as a fuel saver, or complete equalizer. It has never been surpassed, if ever equalled, and I have any amount of testimony substantiating the assertion.

The first premium was awarded to this stove at the fair of the American Institute, New York; the first premium by the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia; first premium by the Mechanics' Institute, Boston; first premium by the Delaware State Agricultural Society, September 1846.

Its performance is warranted in every case. It is equally well adapted to wood or coal, and will do more work with less fuel than any other Stove ever offered to the public. In winter it will warm the largest kitchen, and when fixed for summer, with the summer dress attached, it warms it no more than a charcoal furnace, and for boiling, broil-ing, roasting, baking, &c., was never surpassed by any Stove, open fire or brick oven.

This Stove was patented in 1838, is made of the best material and workmanship, by the Patentee in Troy, New York, thousands being sold annually in the eastern States, one house in Boston last year sold 1507 of them. Since their introduction in Baltimore, hundreds have been sold, and are in successful operation, giving complete satisfaction in almost every instance.

I have a number of certificates from gentlemen of high character and undoubted integrity, which I will take pleasure in showing to any who may call on me, and would refer to the following named persons amongst the many who have them in use in Baltimore: R. Dobbin, editor of the "American"; Mr. Abel, editor of the "Sun"; Mr. Barnes, editor of the "Patriot"; Rev. Dr. Green, Rev. R.
Piggot, Rev. Mr. Harrison, Rev. Mr. Munroe, Dr.
Bear, Dr. McManus, Dr. Diffendaffer, Dr. Monahan, with near five hundred others in Baltimore, Merchants, Mechanics, and Laboring men. We wish, however, this Stove to stand upon its own merits and not on what myself or the multitude say about it, and invite a trial of it, and should it fail to give satisfaction it may be returned any time in twenty days at the expense of the subscriber.

MACKENZIE'S
TONIC FEBRIFUGE

A CERTAIN and effectual cure for Ague and Fever, Dumb Ague, Chills or Intermittent Fever.
Unrivalled and Unequaled.

The general causes that produce ague and fever, are the miasma of exhalation arising from swamps, marshes, rivers, canals, &c., acted upon by heat, warm days succeeded by cold nights. The tendency is also enhanced by sudden changes in the temperature, poor diet, great fatigue, intemperance, grief, anxiety, debility, exposure to cold, lying in damp rooms, &c., &c., &c. All this may be remedied by purchasing one or two bottles of Mackenzie's Feverifuge.

"WINTER'S COMING."
A REVERBY.
The cold winds of autumn sigh and o'er the leas,
And the soft mists of winter's breath
On the breast of the fond the serene forest-leaves float, And Nature's voice whispers "Man, buy thee a Coat!"

What, Snow? by my faith I seem turning to stone;
The Coat's a good thing, but it useless alone,
No longer in Summer's light livery dressed, I must have Winter Dragoons, Pants, Shirts and a Vest!

And now, where to buy cheapest, and where to buy best And where can I be most becomingly dressed?
"Ay there is the rub"—let me see: in the "Zep," Pemberton's looks upon the tallest, I'll go there and try!

The wind thunders "Go!" and the storm-spirit prances
And the eddying darts with the forest-leaves dance, And Nature applauds—while in elegant dress

CIRCISSIAN OIL,
For the Preservation, Beauty, Growth and Restoration of the Hair.

THIS valuable preparation excites the scalp to a new and healthy action, cleanses it from scurf and dandruff, prevents the hair from falling off or becoming prematurely gray, cures those eruptive diseases which often appear upon the head, and in a majority of cases produces a fine growth of new hair. It also gives the hair a rich and beautiful appearance, unequalled by any thing of the kind.

In addition to all its usefulness as a preserver and beautifier of the hair it removes all unnatural hardness and dryness of the hair, which often precedes its loss, and should never be permitted to continue without using remedies. For the toilet, Ladies and Gentlemen will find this an admirable article. It gives a luxuriant, silky, soft and fine brilliance to the hair and curls, filling the minds of the beholders with admiration and almost with envy. All this for only 25 cts. a bottle. For sale by
