"WINTER'S COMING."
A REVEAL.
The cold winds of autumn sigh and o'er the sea,
And the storm-spirits frolic in horrid glee;
On the hair of the fond mother, in the "Sp,"
And nature's voice whispers "Wear, my dear a Coat!"
What, Snow! by my faith I seem turning to stone;
No longer in Summer's light livery dressed,
I must have Winter Drawers, Pants, Shirts and a Vest!
And now, where to buy cheapest, and where to buy best
And where can I be most becomingly dressed?
The answer is a good thing, but it is the "Sp."
PATRICKAM looms up the tallest, I'll go there and try!
The wind thunders "Go!" and the storm-spirit prances
And the eddying food with the forest-leaves dances,
And Nature applauds—while in elegant dress,
The bewitched ones PRETSMAN and COTTRELL,

COOKING STOVES.
GREAT IMPROVEMENT.
P. STEWART'S Patent Air-Tight and Hot-Air Summer and Winter COOKING STOVE, for Wood or Coal. Sold only at No. 86, Baltimore Street, Baltimore, by the subscriber, having the exclusive right to sell them in the States of Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia and all Pennsylvania west of the Susquehanna river. This celebrated Stove has now a character which no other has ever attained, and has been often enough and long enough tried to warrant the declaration that it is the best Cooking Stove in America, and should any doubt it is ready to test it with any other stove, either as a fuel stover, or complete operator. It has never been surpassed, if ever equalled, and I have any amount of testimony substantiating the assertion.
The first premium was awarded to this stove at the fair of the American Institute, New York; the first premium by the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia; first premium by the Mechanics' Institute, Boston; first premium by the Delaware State Agricultural Society, September 1846.
Its performance is warranted in every case. It is a really well adapted to wood or coal, and will do more work with less fuel than any other Stove ever offered to the public. In winter it will warm the largest kitchen, and when fixed for summer, with the summer dress attached, it warms the room no more than a charcoal furnace, and for boiling, broiling, roasting, baking, &c., was never surpassed by any Stove, open fire or brick oven.
This Stove was patented in 1838—is made of the best material and workmanship, by the Patentees in Troy, New York, thousands being sold annually in the eastern States, one house in Boston last year sold 1807 of them. Since their introduction in Baltimore, hundreds have been sold, and are in successful operation, giving complete satisfaction in almost every instance.
I have a number of certificates from gentlemen of high character and undoubted integrity, which I will take pleasure in showing to any who may call on me, and would refer to the following named persons amongst the many who have them in use in Baltimore; R. A. Dobbin, editor of the "American," Mr. Abell, editor of the "Sun," Mr. Barnes, editor of the "Patriot," Rev. Dr. Green, Rev. R. Piggot, Rev. Mr. Harrison, Rev. Mr. Munroe, Dr. Bear, Dr. McManus, Dr. DiHennaffor, Dr. Monmonier, with near five hundred others in Baltimore, Merchants, Mechanics, and Laboring men. We wish, however, this Stove to stand upon its own merits and not on what myself or the multitude say about it and invite a trial of it, and should it fail to give satisfaction it may be returned any time in twenty days at the expense of the subscriber.
For sale by Messrs. JAMES & SAMUEL SMITH, WRIGHTSVILLE, my only Agents north of Baltimore.
THOMAS G. HAPPERSETT.
Oct. 16-3m. No. 86, Baltimore St., near Guy.

COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA AND CONSUMPTION.

It does all it promises, and all that is asked is just to give it a fair trial, and it will at once prove its superiority over every thing of the kind.
The Indian Vegetable Balsam is prepared only by H. M. Crawford, Philadelphia, for sale by C. Westbrook, Agent for Columbia;—Anderson, Marietta; C. S. Kaufman, Washington; Jno. Heir & Son, Safe Harbor.
