COOKING STOVES.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT.

P. STEWART'S Patent Air-Tight and Phot. Air Summer and Winter COOKING
STOVE, for Wood or Coal. Sold only at No. 86, Baltimore Street, Baltimore, by the subscriber, having the exclusive right to sell them in the States of Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia and all Pennsylvania west of the Susquehanna river.
This celebrated Stove has now a character which no other has ever attained, and has been ofton enough and long enough tried to warrant the declaration that it is the best Cooking Stove in America, and should any doubt it I am ready to test it with any other stove, gither as a fuel saver, or complete operator. It has never been surpassed, if ever equalled, and I have any amount of testimony subqualled, and I have any amount of testimony substantiating the assertion.

The first premium was awarded to this stove at

The first premium was awarded to this stove at the fair of the American Institute, New York; the first premium by the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia; first premium by the Mechanies Institute, Boston; first premium by the Delaware State Agricultural Society, September 1846.

Its performance is warranted in every case. It is equally well adapted to wood or coal, and will do more work with less fuel than any other Stove ever offered to to public. In winter it will warm the largest kitchen, and when fixed for summer, with the summer dress attached, it warms the room no more than a charcoal furnace, and for boiling, broiling, roasting, baking, &c., was never surpassed by ng, roasting, baking, &c., was never surpassed by any Stove, open fire or brick oven.

This Stove was Patented in 1838,—is made of the best material and workmanship, by the Patenteo in Troy, New York, thousands being sold annually in the eastern States, one house in Boston last year sold 1807 of them. Since their introduction n Bultimore, hundreds have been sold, and are in nuccessful operation, giving complete satisfaction in almost every instance.

I have a number of certificates from gentlemen of high character and undoubted integrity, which I will take pleasure in showing to any who may call on me, and would refer to the following named call on me, and would refer to the following named persons amongst the many who have them in use in Baltimore; R. A. Dobbin, editor of the "American," Mr. Abell, editor of the "Sun," Mr. Barnes, editor of the "Patriot," Rev. Dr. Green, Rev. R. Piggot, Rev. Mr. Harrison, Rev. Mr. Munroe, Dr. Bear, Dr. McMannus, Dr. Diffendaffer, Dr. Momonier, with near five hundred others in Baltimore, Mechanics, and Laboring men. We wish, however, this Stove to stand upon its own merits and not on what myself or the multitude say about it and invite a trial of it, and should it fail to give satisfaction it may be returned any time in give satisfaction it may be returned any time in twenty days at the expense of the subscriber.
