

MOUNTAIN SENTINEL

EBENSBURG, PA.

Thursday, May 31, 1849.

The Sentinel has the largest circulation of any paper published in this county...

The Sentinel is referred to in another part of to-day's paper from the New York Home Journal...

Our friends of the Johnstown News appear to be in a prodigious bad humor in consequence of our occasional notice of their efforts...

Mr. William Bradley who had both his feet taken off by a train of railroad cars on the 22d inst. died on Friday last.

Military Election.

Our military friends throughout the county must not forget that an election for Brigade officers takes place on Monday next.

Military Meeting.

A meeting was held at the Summit school house, May 26th, 1849, for the purpose of re-organizing the company of AMERICAN HIGHLANDERS.

The meeting was called to order by calling Mr. Andrew Donoughue to the chair, and P. S. McCloskey, Esq., and Mr. James M. Riffe as Secretaries.

On motion, A. Todd, H. E. Meloy, J. B. Onslow, D. Humphreys and C. Collins were appointed a committee for the purpose of revising the Constitution &c., who, in pursuance of that object, are to meet at the Mansion House on Wednesday next.

The cholera is reported to be decreasing in the western rivers and cities; in St. Louis and Cincinnati especially.

Death of Gen. Worth. The intelligence published in our last of the death of this distinguished military chief is confirmed by an official despatch received at War Office.

The city of Mexico and five battles in Florida while in command of the eighth regiment of Infantry.

The painful duty devolves upon the department of announcing to the army the death of Brevet Major General W. J. WORTH, colonel of the 8th regiment of infantry, who died on the 7th of May, 1849, at his post, San Antonio, Texas.

General Worth entered the army a lieutenant in 1813, and served with distinguished credit during the war with Great Britain.

As appropriate military honors to the memory of the deceased, each post within his late geographical department will fire minute guns, (thirteen) commencing at 12 o'clock m., and display the national flag at half-staff, from the same hour, till sundown, on the next day after the receipt of this order.

The usual badge of mourning, if not already directed, will be worn for thirty days by the officers of the army serving in the department late under his command.

By order: R. JONES, Adjutant General.
