

MOUNTAIN SENTINEL.

EBENSBURG, PA.

Thursday, June 14, 1849.

THE SENTINEL, has much the largest circulation of any paper published in this county—and as an advertising sheet, offers superior inducements to merchants and business generally. Those desirous of making use of this medium for extending their business can do so by either sending their notices direct, or through the following agents:

John Crouse, Esq., Johnstown.
E. W. Carr, Esq., Buildings, Third St. Philadelphia.
Wm. A. Knabe, Pittsburgh.
George Pratt, 131, Nassau St., New York.

Fancy Ball.

To those who are fond of "tripping on the light fantastic toe," we would say, go to the Ball at Major Marlett's at No. 2, A. P. R. R. on next Thursday evening. The Major is a clever fellow, and will, we feel confident, do the thing up in such a way as will enable all who may feel disposed to join in this polite amusement, to pass an agreeable evening. See his advertisement in another column.

Our Borough.

We are gratified to perceive the improvements that are being made in our streets, walks, &c., by our borough authorities. This was much wanted, and the wretched condition of our streets has long been a subject of complaint. Within the last five years our borough has nearly, if not altogether, doubled itself in size and population, and our streets should certainly be improved in proportion to the increase of the wealth and business of the town.

As our neighbors of Hollidaysburg, Huntingdon and Johnstown, are constantly extolling the beauties and advantages of their respective boroughs, we beg leave to state for the information of the public, that, as a summer resort, Ebensburg can compare favorably with any of them. We have a purer atmosphere, as wild and beautiful scenery as any town in the State, and then, if one wishes to amuse himself in hunting or fishing, plenty of trout are to be found in our streams, and in our forests plenty of game. We have as pretty girls, our population are as social, our landlords as accommodating as those of any other place in the State, and take it all in all, we think those in pursuit of health or amusement cannot do better than come to Ebensburg.

Death of Gen. Gaines.

Major General Gaines, commander of the Southwestern Division of the United States Army, died at New Orleans, on the 6th inst., of the cholera. He was sick ten days. The announcement of his death has created a profound sensation of regret among his numerous friends at Washington, and his loss will be deeply felt in the army of which he was an ornament.

Capt. Samuel D. Karns has been elected

Brigadier General of the Dauphin County Brigade.

Dentistry.

R. A. MILLER, Surgeon Dentist, of Huntingdon, Pa., will remain for a few days at the House of Mr. Carmon in this place, where he is prepared to wait on those requiring his services. As he comes well recommended, we have no doubt he is complete master of his profession, and will give satisfaction to those who will employ him. We would suggest to such of our friends as stand in need of a Dentist, to operate on their teeth, the propriety of giving the Doctor a call. We are requested to state that it is the intention of Dr. Miller to visit our borough about four times a year, and this circumstance should dissipate the prejudice existing in the minds of many of our citizens against travelling dentists, at least so far as he is concerned.

Horn's Railroad Gazette.

We have received several numbers of this valuable New York publication. It contains much valuable statistical information, interesting to travelers, and is designed to be the Railroad organ in the United States. We notice that it is the intention of the publisher to enlarge his sheet to the size of the New York Courier & Enquirer, and then commence the publication of a list of all the newspapers in the United States and Canada.

The Foreign News.

The foreign news in to-day's paper is of the most interesting character. The Russian Army has been defeated by the Hungarians, who compelled them to fall back upon Cracow, thus transferring the revolution to Poland. About 36,000 Russian troops were compelled to surrender, and this circumstance has given a new impetus to those battling in the cause of liberty throughout Europe. All the armies, say the Pennsylvanian, are put in defiance by the present course of things in Europe.

First, we see Italy emerging from the lethargy of ages, into the muscular manhood of a brave and vigilant nation. Next Hungary assaults the world by her display of confidence and courage, equal to a nation of century-trained warriors; and now, at last, we are startled by the announcement that Russia herself has been defeated with great and overwhelming loss. See the latest telegraphic news by the Europa. Three times have our worst fears been disappointed, and three times our highest hopes realized. Who will now say what a great People, struggling to be free, cannot do? Who now will over-estimate the might of Tyranny, with millions in its coffers, and armies from centre to circumference? The discomfiture of Nicholas by the soldiers of Hungary, will startle monarchial Europe like the voice of God; and the nations of the old world will rouse from their despondency as at the peal of the trumpet of the Archangel.

The crisis deepens! And in this crisis where shall we find France? Her impulses are all noble, and often successful. Her recent revolution was a revolution of bloodless impulse. May she elect to assume that proud and prominent position which would so well become her pledges and her character!

Candidates for Office.

The time for holding the democratic meetings in the several townships in this county to send delegates to a County Convention to place in nomination a ticket to be supported by the democracy at the ensuing election is rapidly approaching. For the information of the public, it may be proper to give the names of those we hear mentioned in connection with the several offices. From all we can learn, we believe the following gentlemen will be urged for nomination by their respective friends:

For the Legislature.

- Patrick Shiels, Loretto.
- Dr. Wm. A. Smith, Ebensburg.
- Jesse Patterson, Johnstown.
- Thomas McKiernan, do.
- R. P. Linton, do.
- G. W. Osborn, do.
- Patrick McCoy, Ebensburg.

For Sheriff.

- Augustine Durbin, Washington tp.
- John Brawley, Summerhill tp.
- S. J. Renshaw, Ebensburg.
- John McMullen, Clearfield tp.

For Treasurer.

- John S. Buchanan, Ebensburg.
- James M'Dermitt, do.
- Harrison Kinkade, do.
- Rees J. Lloyd, do.
- John G. Given, do.

For Commissioner.

- James Skelly, Summerhill tp.
- Thomas James, Jackson tp.
- W. W. Harris, do.
- Anthony Lambaugh, do.
- Peter Singer, do.
- Cornelius Donoughe, Allegheny tp.
- Nicholas Nagle, Cambria.
- Neil Diver, do.
- Wm. J. Williams, Carroll tp.
- Michael Kennedy, do.

Auditor.

- Washington Douglas, Allegheny tp.

Here is enough mentioned, in all conscience, to enable the Convention to form a ticket that will be satisfactory to the party. We have no doubt, however, that there are gentlemen whose names are in the above list, who are not candidates, and who will not go before the Convention; and we merely give their names because we hear them mentioned. There may be others, too, who are anxious to serve the "dear people," whose names we have not heard.

Ex-President Polk is lying dangerously ill of cholera at Nashville, Tennessee. So say the papers received this morning.

A telegraphic despatch from Washington to the Pittsburg Post of the 13th, says that it is stated on good authority that Gen. Jessup will be appointed to the command of the military division made vacant by the death of Gen. Gaines. Another report says that Gen. Twigg has received the appointment.

We learn from our exchanges that they are talking in Philadelphia and New York about getting up meetings for the purpose of giving expression to the universal feeling of sympathy which pervades the entire population of the United States relative to the struggle for liberty and republicanism which is now going on in Hungary, France, Italy, Germany, and Poland. The eyes of all are turned to Europe, and the deepest anxiety is felt by our people in the success of the great effort now being made by the down-trodden millions of Europe to shake off the chains of tyranny. The news of the momentous occurrences in Europe are read with the greatest avidity by the American people, and it is a subject of commentary in all circles. The following spirited declaration is taken from the New York Herald:

In the meantime, it appears now to be an appropriate crisis for the people of the United States, full of wealth and enterprise, and enjoying peace and all the comforts of liberty and prosperity, to consider the situation which the free institutions of European nations are placed in, and the danger which threatens them. When Ireland suffered under famine, a few years back, the benevolence of the United States expressed itself in a substantial manner. Ought not the sympathy of the American people equally to show, at this time, what the feeling of this country is towards the great liberal party of Europe in the approaching contest? Ought not subscriptions to be opened, and an American legion now to be organized, of five or ten thousand men, to cross the Atlantic, and aid in the approaching struggle of free republicanism against unmitigated despotism?

The issue of this great struggle will depend entirely upon the energy of the French republic, and of those States in Germany and Italy which think with them. Thousands and millions might be, and ought to be, collected, to aid and assist in the great liberal cause of Europe. A legion of several thousand men ought to be sent to mingle in the midst of freemen. For such a purpose, we would not hesitate putting down, at the head of one of the lists, a thousand dollars, at least, to aid our republican brethren of the old world in defending and maintaining the common cause of republican liberty.

All Sorts of Paragraphs.

Rhubarb, or pie plant, which is at this season of the year generally used for pies, should be for the present excluded from the table. It is considered by physicians to be a source of diarrhoea, and at the present time, when symptoms of cholera are prevalent, should be strictly avoided.

Every treasurer of Kentucky, except the present one, who has not been in office long enough to have a fair trial, has been a defaulter. This looks rather bad for the model Whig State.

A jury at Patterson, N. J., was out lately for fifty-two hours without food, yet could not be started into a verdict. It was an embezzlement case, and the evidence was very perplexing.

An old lady named Mary McColly, was run over by a locomotive; on the Willow street Railroad, Philadelphia, on Sunday, and instantly killed. She was deaf, and did not hear the train approaching.

Robert Dale Owen is talked of as a candidate for Congress again in the district of Indiana he formerly represented.

The public debt of France is rapidly increasing. It is already fifteen hundred millions of dollars. That of England four thousand millions of dollars.

The ravages of the Cholera at San Antonio are most awful. The whole number of deaths is not short of 500. The disease has broken out in the camp of the 3d infantry, and in the quartermaster's encampment on the Salado, where many were dying.

A Galveston paper, deprecating the number of divorces granted at the recent session of the Legislature of Texas, says in that State the marriage contract is not as binding as a horse trade.

THE PROGRESS OF SCIENCE.—A NEW YANKEE INVENTION.—A patent is about to be secured for a new style of "spring-cushions, mattresses," etc., to be stuffed with living grass-hoppers!

A Washington letter writer says that the Senate will refuse to confirm the nominations of Gen. Taylor—or rather the nomination of his Cabinet. So it ought.

LANCASTER COTTON MILLS.—The Lancaster papers state that at a recent meeting of the stockholders it was resolved to unite the interests of the old and new Cotton Mills, under the provisions of the general manufacturing law.

An eye, malignantly diseased, was successfully cut out in Cincinnati last week, while the patient was under the influence of chloroform.

A woman in Shelby, and another in Shreveport, Texas, have killed their husbands—the former stabbing him in the chest a number of times, and the latter cutting his throat from a larder. Look out all you gentlemen who get wives.

It is said that the price of Land Warrants has risen in New York.

Isaac Schearer, on his way overland to California, with his wife and children discovered that Isaac B. Gore, a young man of the party, improperly intimate with Mrs. Schearer, and shot him dead.

A splendid Camp Carriage, built by order of the late Gen. Worth, was about to be forwarded to him from New York city, to Texas, when news of his death was received. Such is human life! He who escaped unscathed, the dangers of a dozen battles, fell a victim to a disease that no bravery could conquer.

LOUIS P. LIPPARD'S PROPERTY.—President Napoleon has been for some time sending to the Ex-King of France the moveables of his private property. It has occupied an immense number of cases lately sent to England.

The Hungarians residing in New York, have resolved to petition the United States Government to consider the propriety of sending an Ambassador to the new Hungarian Government, and concluding a commercial treaty with the same.

A YANKEE COUNT.—The Portsmouth, (N. H.) Messenger states that the Russian General, Count Rizerhoff, is a native of Meredith, N. H., and his real name is Thomas F. Williams.

A man has been fined 5,000 dollars in Tallapoosa county, Ala., for slandering the chastity of a lady.

At a Printer's festival in Washington the following was a regular toast:

Woman.—The fairest work of creation—the edition being extensive, let no man be without a copy.

The following is an old lady's receipt for testing indigo: "Sprinkle it in fine powder, on a pan of water, and if it is good it will either sink or swim—I forget which."

A BIG LICK!—George Lippard, the accomplished editor of the "Quaker City," who was one of the warmest supporters of Old Zack, had during the campaign, in his paper of the 19th inst., affirmed that Gen. Taylor is "feeding those who would neither feed him nor his SOLDIERS" whilst prosecuting his country's war in Mexico! Volume of censure could not say any more.

The crime of Arson is severely punishable under a law passed by the last Session of our State Legislature. When the attempt is successful, the punishment is fifteen years of imprisonment—when unsuccessful, ten years.

Mrs. Partington says, that since General Taylor has been elected the gals are enamoured of his beauty, and that kissing a President is like smelling the perperation flowers. She still thinks it better to be a galvanized President than a decomposed monarch of royal distraction.

There was a singular problem among the Stoics, which ran to this purpose: "When a man says, 'I lie,' does he lie, or does he not? If he lies he speaks the truth; if he speaks the truth, he lies." Many were the books written upon this wonderful problem. Chrysippus favored the world with no less than six; Philenus studied himself to death in his vain endeavors to solve it.

A gentleman in Louisville recently purchased a fine looking roll of butter, weighing ten pounds; but on cutting it in two after reaching home, all but an inch in thickness of the outside proved to be mashed potatoes!
