Freedom of the Mind. Free is the eagle's wing, Cleaving the sun's warm ray—

The Times.

BY TOBY SIKES'S MACHINE.

How oft I've thought, and mourned to think Times aint as they was uester,

Those days of old were glorious days, For fashions didn't rule us;

And in those plain old fashioned times, The boys worked for their daddies—

The boys tried then by work to learn, And gain some useful knowledge,

And then, when you would see the gals, At work you'd see to find 'em—

But now the gals have sadly changed From what they were of yore;

Brick houses then were seldom built, And log ones seldom painted;

And when the girls got married then, They married not for riches;

The parents then no matches made, The girls did their own chosin';

A cdrle then was never used— The women never asked it;

An American vender of universal medicine declares that if his prescription be followed literally, a cure is certain.

'A western editor, in reply to a contemporary who called him 'green,'

BOUND TO COME OFF.—Somewhere in the west, a sable knight of the lather

'Stop,' said the Hoosier, 'that wont do.'

'What's the matta boss?' 'That razor pulls.'

'Well, no matta for dat, sah. If de hande on de razor dont break, de baird's bound to come off.'

AGRICULTURAL.

Work for September.

SELECTION OF SEED CORN.—This month seed corn should be selected. It can only be well done in the field, by gathering those ears with small butt-ends,

THRASHING OUT GRAIN.—Continue to thresh your grain as fast as your business or circumstances will allow; for the sooner this is done, the greater the chances of destroying the eggs of the 'weevil fly,'

FULMIGATING GRANERIES.—If your granary is invested with the 'black weevil,' clear it entirely of grain, place a pan of powdered sulphur in a bed of sand,

SEEDING TIMOTHY.—If you have not already sown your Timothy, let it be done as early as possible this month, at the rate of twelve quarts of seed to the acre.

KITCHEN GARDEN.—Hoe and thin out the turnip crops. About the 15th, sow cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, and carrots,

FRUIT GARDEN AND ORCHARD.—Budding of peach trees may be performed in the early part of the month; also that of other trees, so long as the bark will peel.

FLOWER GARDENS AND PLEASURE GROUNDS.—Toward the close of this month, beds may be prepared for planting tulips, hyacinths, anemones, and other flower roots and shrubs that are to be removed the next.

Education. An education is a young man's capital; for a well informed, intelligent mind has the best assurance of future competency and happiness.

If you leave them with a cultivated heart, affections trained to objects of love and excellence, a mind vigorous and enlarged, finding happiness pure and elevated in the pursuits of knowledge, you effect an insurance on their after happiness and usefulness.

A woman's Advantage. A woman can say what she likes to you without the risk of being knocked down for it.

She can take a snooze after dinner while her husband has gone to work.

She can dress herself in neat and tidy calicoes for a dollar, which her husband has to earn and fork over.

She can go into the street without being obliged to "treat" at every coffee house.

She can paint her face if she is too pale or flour it if too red.

She can stay at home in time of war, and wed again if her husband is killed.

She can wear corsets if too thick, and other "fixins" if too thin.

'What have you got there, Joe,'—'Why a ham.' 'That ain't a ham, its nothing but a shoulder.'

'Well, Alick, how's your brother Ike getting along these hard times?'

If you don't want to fall in love with a girl don't commence flirting with her.—This courting for fun is a good deal like boxing for fun.

'Hallo, steward,' exclaimed a fellow in one of the steamboats after having retired to his bed.

'Hallo, steward!' 'What, massa?' 'Bring me the way-bill.'

'I want to see if these bed-bugs put down their names for this birth before I did. If not, I want 'em turned out.'

A little boy hearing his father say that 'there is a time for all things,' climbed up behind his mother's chair, and whispering in her ear, asked when was the proper time for hooking sugar out of the sugar bowl.

A Roman woman's first virtue was chastity, and decency was a point of honor. A man was considered worthy of repulsion, who kissed his wife in presence of his daughter.

There is a lady in Cincinnati named Sally Porter, who amuses herself, when so inclined, by throwing tumblers, tea-cups, shovel and tongs, and the boot-jack, at her husband's head.
