

POETRY.

From the Cincinnati Commercial. Lines on the Death of General Worth.

Oh! let the solemn minute gun Arouse the morning ray, And only with the setting sun, In echoes die away.

The muffled drum, the wailing fife, Ah! let them murmur low, O'er him who was their breath of life, The solemn notes of woe;

Upon the heights of Monterey, Again his flag unrolled, And when the grape shot rent away Its latest starry fold,

But ah! the dreadful seal is broke, In darkness walks abroad, The pestilence whose silent stroke, Is like the doomed of God!

His monument shall be the roar By old Niagara made, The waves on lovely Tampa's shore, The silent overglade,

Fair eyes shall weep his early doom, Fair hands shall often bring And offer at his sacred tomb The dewy flowers of spring;

Appearances.

Think not because the eyes are bright, And smiles are laughing there, The heart that beats within is light, And free from pain and care.

Mirth's sudden gleam may light the cheek, Though joy be far away, As blossoms oft adorn the tree, That's hastening to decay;

For there are pangs the sorrowing heart Will oft in darkness shroud, That lurk within the lonely depths Like lightning in the cloud,

Though brightly o'er the hollow cheek The smile, the laugh may break, Like bubbles bursting on the breast Of Acheron's dark lake;

A Generous Fellow.

The following is a literal copy of an advertisement, which appeared in a Connecticut paper, the Farmer's Journal, some time ago:

Messrs Printers—Please to put into the public prints, that I have by mutual consent, parted with my wife, on generous conditions; and that no person shall trust her on my account henceforth.

BROKER.—This term was originally applied to those whose business it was to break packages and sell by the piece of less quantity; it afterwards came to designate an agent employed by both buyer and seller, and is thus defined by the learned Trollope:—“He is one who steps in between two men making a bargain, and plundereth both.” Lift for the Lazy.

AGRICULTURAL.

From the American Agriculturist. Remarks on Top-Dressing.

The waste caused by the washing by rains and melting snows, in my opinion, is the only objection to putting manure on the surface of the soil. In all other respects I think it decidedly preferable to top-dress, particularly grass lands.

Upon the heights of Monterey, Again his flag unrolled, And when the grape shot rent away Its latest starry fold,

But ah! the dreadful seal is broke, In darkness walks abroad, The pestilence whose silent stroke, Is like the doomed of God!

His monument shall be the roar By old Niagara made, The waves on lovely Tampa's shore, The silent overglade,

Fair eyes shall weep his early doom, Fair hands shall often bring And offer at his sacred tomb The dewy flowers of spring;

Drilling in Wheat. We are convinced that putting in wheat with a drill is not only the preferable plan, but that a great saving of seed may be effected by it, and an increased product obtained.

Thrashing Out Grain. We have ever been the advocate of early thrashing out grain, and equally so that the grower should avail himself of the first opportunity which may present itself of selling it advantageously.

Autumnal Sowing. It has long been the practice with our most intelligent gardeners, to sow the seeds of certain vegetables in the fall.

A Linguist.—I say, Bro, you have been to Canton, haven't you? 'Yes.' 'Well, can you speak China?' 'Ye-es, a little; that is, I speak broken china!'

Relationship. A Persian merchant complaining heavily of some unjust sentence of the lower court, was told by the Judge to go to the caid.

A Yankee Answer. A wager was laid that there was a Yankee peculiarity to answer one question by asking another. To sustain the assertion, a down-easter was interrogated.

Who is His? What can the Portland Transcript mean by instituting such inquiries as the following? Isn't this "a free country?"
