

fect of raising the state of siege of that city, demanded by the three cardinals, will be to deprive the French general of all authority in civil and political questions, and to invest the cardinals with unlimited power. The French prefect of police had, in consequence, apprised several ex-deputies of the Constituent Assembly that warrants had been issued against them by the pontifical police, but that the French authorities would suspend their execution until the 1st of October; and that in the meantime, they should have a free passage to France, with the liberty to reside there. Sixty deputies left immediately. Vast crowds attended them, cheering them, and hearing their marks of respect. The emotions of the people had a visible effect not only on the French troops, but the government.

It is reported that the Pope has taken alarm at the numerous assassinations of French soldiers, and believes there is an extensive plot for his assassination, if he should return. He expressed a wish, therefore, to remain at Naples during a portion of the winter.

The announcement at Rome, that the public and private pecuniary engagements of the republican government would be respected, has gained some popularity for the Pope.

Private letters from Geneva, of the 4th, mention that Garibaldi, on arriving at the island of Madalena, demanded passports for England, with the intention of proceeding thence to the United States, where he intended to settle. Since then, however, he has received proposals from the Montevideo Envoy, who offered him command of the forces of that republic, which office, it is believed, he will accept.

Sardinia.
The Ministry having demanded unsuccessfully, of the Chamber of Deputies, to sell 900,000 francs of rentes, in order to pay the first instalment of the indemnity due to Austria, it has been officially announced that the Chamber at Turin will be dissolved.

Report says that a formidable conspiracy had been discovered in Piedmont, which was to have broken out at Genoa on the occasion of the landing of the body of Charles Albert.

It appears from the French and Piedmontese correspondence seized by the Turin authorities, that the conspirators on both sides of the Alps reckon on the refusal of the French Army of the Alps to make against them; and there is good reason to believe that, if they had consented to march into Italy at all, it would be to give their support to the Piedmontese patriots, and not to oppose them.

Affairs in France.
The Moniteur announced the appointment of Lucien Murat as Minister to Turin, and M. Bois Le Compt, now Minister at Turin, as Minister Plenipotentiary to Washington. But the fact was stated, of which there was no doubt, that the government was totally ignorant of what had passed in America when M. Bois was named.

As was expected, the proposal of M. Napoleon Bonaparte, has met with the approval of the Committee to which it was referred. They declared that the uniting (!) of the Bourbons, and amnesty to the insurgents of June, being included in the same proposition, established an unbecoming assimilation of the two parties mentioned, and at once unanimously decided on recommending the Assembly to take it under consideration.

The proceedings in the Assembly, between the 5th and 11th inst., are quite unimportant.
Gen. de Hautpoul has been appointed to take the place of Gen. Rostolon, who definitely refused to stay at Rome, notwithstanding the overtures of M. Mercier.
M. Trapoli, the ex-Envoy, of the Roman republic, who is accused of having published false news from Rome, which occasioned the movement of the 13th of June, in Paris, has been sent, under an escort of gens d'armes to Bologna.

The loss experienced by the foreign commerce of Paris, in consequence of the revolution of February amounts to 559 million francs, as compared with the returns of 1847, when the total amount of the foreign trade was 2,019 million francs.
It is stated that the government is to recall a portion of the army in Italy, and to leave a division of 10,000 men at Civita Vecchia. A single regiment is to occupy the capital of St. Angelo, and the Spaniards are to enter Rome.

Prussia.
The Wurtemberg movement has formally intimidated the Prussian ministry that it will not join the federal league proposed by Prussia, Hanover, and Saxony, and that Hanover has already announced its intention to withdraw from the confederation.

Sicily.
The Affairs of Sicily have been nearly arranged. The island is to have a distinct administration from that of Naples, with a Consulta or Chamber chosen by the municipality.

Ireland.
A faint effort is being made to revive the political excitement of the country.—Conciliation Hall has been opened—letters of adhesion, as of old, have been read from the chair, and £25 5s of rent collected. John O'Connell is, of course, the principal.

Commercial Summary.
LIVERPOOL, Oct. 13, 1849.—It we expect the great excitement which has prevailed in the cotton market, business during the last week has not been active.
The money market has been liberally satisfied, and the rates of money easy.

The corn markets are firmer, and prices, if anything, have an advancing tendency; nevertheless, the transactions going forward are by no means extensive.
The produce market, both here and in London, continues to receive large supplies, and for most descriptions of goods there has been a moderate inquiry. In cured provisions a moderate amount of business has been transacted—prices of most articles being firm.

From Minnesota—Indian Battles, &c.
We copy from the St. Paul Chronicle and Register the following late intelligence of matter and things of Minnesota.
Battle between the Half Breeds and Chippewas.

A battle was fought, we learn, a few days since at Peagagom Lake, about 120 miles north-east of St. Paul, between a family of Half-Breeds named La Prairie, and the band of Chippewas who acknowledge shunia [silver] as chief. The number of Half-Breeds was five—three men and two boys—the strength of the Indians from ten to twelve. The parties were divided by a small stream, one side of which is covered with timber, and the other side is prairie; the Half-Breeds being on the timber side, had the advantage, but the Indians continued the fight for about two or three hours. The Indians lost one man killed, two mortally and three or four slightly wounded. Their chief was badly wounded while attempting to restore peace. Such an outbreak has long been expected, the Half-Breeds being concerned in selling ardent spirits to the Indians. The Half-Breeds suffered no loss, with the exception that one of the ears of Louis La Prairie was taken off by a rifle ball.
Treaties with the Indians.

Governors Ramsey and Chambers have been in conference with the Sioux at Mendota, near Fort Snelling, for several days. The number of Indians in attendance are about 3,000. We regret to learn that there is no hope of effecting any thing like a general treaty with them at present.—They allege the season is too far advanced for this, and some other reasons, they decline entertaining any proposition of the kind this season. The commissioners are to meet the Half-Breeds at the same place to treat with them, if practicable, for a tract of land they own on the west side of the Mississippi, opposite Lake Pepin, some 35 miles on the river, extending back 15 miles. They will also meet the Wapatee Wapokotie Sissetons, bands of the Sioux, to negotiate with them for lands they own. It will be recollected, by those not much acquainted with Indian affairs, that every nation, united by a common language, are divided into bands, each claiming separate interest in lands. It often happens, however, that they unite in a general treaty.

Improvements at St. Anthony.
Between twenty and thirty buildings are now going up at St. Anthony, and the condition of the town is represented to be most flourishing. Carpenters are receiving $45 per month. Quite a number of mounted men from Chicago and other places are purchasing town lots with a view of speculating. The appearance of St. Paul is reported no less thrifty. The hotels cannot accommodate the strangers who now throng the town.

The Sioux visit.
On the 22d the town of St. Paul was visited by almost the entire population, composing the two lower bands of Sioux Indians,—Wabashaws and Red Wings,—on their way to the payment at Fort Snelling. They came in their canoes, a fleet of some eighty or ninety vessels, laden, besides men, women, and children, with dogs cooking utensils Buffalo skins, forming the covering of their 'tepees,' &c.—They stopped one day at St. Paul's and on the next proceeded to the fort.

John Mitchell.
The paragraph from the Limerick Chronicle, to the effect that John Mitchell the Irish Patriot, had been pardoned by the English Government, turns out to be incorrect. The Irishman says, it is sorry to state that such is not the fact. The English government have not yet had the grace nor justice to act in the manner attributed to them. John Mitchell is now on his way to the Cape of Good Hope, and it was understood that, on arriving there, a ticket of leave would be granted to him, the effect of which would be, to leave him at perfect liberty to follow any pursuit he pleased, but not to depart from the colony. However, from the deep hostility evinced by the Cape Colonies to receive the convicts, is not probable that John Mitchell will take up his abode there. In the dilemma in which they are involved, the Government may grant John Mitchell a free pardon, on condition of his not returning to the United Kingdom.—The remaining portions of the paragraph are true. His wife and family still remain in Ireland. His sons are with Rev. John Kenyon, P. P., Templeberry, under whose fostering care and pure teaching they will be made inheritors of their father's sterling virtues.—Pittsburg Chronicle.

THE GLOBE.
A CONGRESSIONAL, AGRICULTURAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER.

The approach of Congress calls out the Annual Prospectus from the Globe Establishment. The time is full of interest. The coming in of a new Administration—the consequent broaching of a new policy touching internal concerns of the country—the new and most important issues arising from the late vast accession to the public domain and the great national objects associated with it—the impending difficulty in our relations with France and the troubles of Europe—our affairs with the ambition of our statesmen to create great Congress. The approaching session will probably continue till late in the summer of 1850. The debates from the agitation of so many questions of vital interest to the Republic, will draw forth all the talent of the National Legislature. To bring its deliberations home to the people on each succeeding day, while measures are maturing, is in effect, to bring the whole nation in council. The discussion spreading from the Capital to the remotest parts of the Union, forms a public opinion which reacts upon Congress, and controls its decisions. To become a useful instrument, however humble, to assist the workings of the admirable machinery of our popular institutions, is the ambition of the conductor of the GLOBE. Extraordinary preparations have therefore been made to meet the increasing demands of our rapidly improving and growing country for Congressional intelligence. The Globe Press has already enlisted the ablest Reporters yet known to Congress; its materials and machinery are of the best sort; and the exclusive devotion of the individual who for so many years has made it his study to embody and publish the laws of Congress, gives reason to hope that an advance will be made in the accomplishment of the undertaking commensurate with its increased importance. But the accumulation of expense consequent on the additional number of Reporters required—the extra charges incurred in printing at night the debates of the preceding day—the vast addition made to the mass published by the protected sessions and the fuller reports given—will render our enterprise as it were, a purchase of such a portion of the daily sheets issued, as shall contribute to make the reports that fill them. The undersigned has ventured on the preparation he has made for the next Session in the expectation that Congress will subscribe for as many daily sheets as each member, at the subscription price, as will, in part, defray the expense of reporting, and give them circulation as Congressional documents in their several districts. This will enable the Publisher to bear the charge of reporting and it will give an impulse to the circulation of the Congressional Print, which, although the cheapest in the Union (the expense of preparation considered) will yet yield sufficient profit to make the system permanent. John C. Rives having purchased the interest of F. P. BLAIR in Jackson Hall, the printing office machinery and material—becomes the sole proprietor thereof, and will give his exclusive attention to the Congressional Department. J. C. PICKETT will conduct the miscellaneous Department of the Newspaper. F. P. BLAIR retires from both concerns, with prayers for their permanent usefulness and prosperity. The Globe will be published daily during the session of Congress, and weekly the remainder of the year, and will undergo distribution in the form of a Weekly Globe, a Congressional Globe, and an Appendix. The Weekly Globe will contain Agricultural and miscellaneous articles; and will occasionally give debate of such importance as command universal interest. The price of the Weekly Globe is reduced to $1, with a view to obtain a more general circulation. Subscribers who have hitherto paid $2 per annum, will be charged only $1 after the expiration of the first year. The Congressional Globe will embody, as it has for the last 16 years, Congressional proceedings and debates exclusively. The Appendix will embrace the revised speeches separately, and the messages of the President of the United States and the reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments. The CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE and APPENDIX will be published as fast as the proceedings of Congress will make a number. Subscribers may expect one number of each week during the first four weeks of a session and two or three numbers of each week afterwards, until the end of the session. Each volume will probably comprise two thousand royal quarto pages, of small type. Complete indexes to the Congressional Globe and Appendix will be sent to subscribers soon after Congress adjourns. Nothing of a political party aspect will appear in the Globe save that which will be found in the Congressional reports. A paper assuming to be an impartial vehicle for all sides, cannot maintain its character if the editorial columns reflect a party hue.

TERMS.
For one copy of the DAILY GLOBE (daily during the session of Congress, and weekly during the recess) a year, $5 00
For the DAILY GLOBE for less than a year at the rate of 84 cents a month.
For one copy of the WEEKLY GLOBE for one year, 1 00
For one copy of the CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE during the session, 3 00
For one copy of the APPENDIX during the session, 3 00
For four copies of either, or part of both during the session, 10 00
For ten copies of either, or part of both during the session, 20 00
The prices for these papers are so low that advance payments are indispensable to carry them on.
Postmasters who may obtain subscribers will be allowed twenty per cent. on the subscription prices for single papers, which they may retain when they send us the names of subscribers and the subscription money. The price for the CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE and APPENDIX to Clubs who take ten copies, is so low that no deduction can be afforded. Subscriptions may be remitted by mail, at our risk, in money at par in the section of the country where subscribers reside.
The CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE and APPENDIX to Clubs who take ten copies, is so low that no deduction can be afforded. Subscriptions may be remitted by mail, at our risk, in money at par in the section of the country where subscribers reside.
The CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE and APPENDIX of the DAILY GLOBE, as they may select, will be sent to all editors who may publish this Prospectus as often as three times before the first Monday in December, and send us one copy of their paper containing it distinctly marked around with a pen to direct our attention to it.
