

POETRY.

BY CAPT. G. W. CUTLER.

Thou many and bright are the stars that appear,
In that flag by our country unfurled,
And the stripes that are swelling in majesty there,
Like a rainbow adorning the world;
Their light are unshuffled as those in the sky,
By a deed that our fathers have done;
And the're rescued in as true and as holy a tie,
In their motto of "Many in one."

From the hour when these patriots fearlessly sung
That banner of starlight abroad,
Ever true to themselves, to their motto they clung
As they clung to the promise of God;
By the bayonet traced at the midnight of war,
On the field where our glory was won;
Oh! perish the heart and the hand that would mar;
Our motto of "Many in one."

Mid the smoke of the contest—the cannon's deep roar;
How oft it hath gathered renown!
While those stars were reflected in rivers of fire,
When the cross of the lion went down;
And the few were the lights in the gloom of that hour,
Yet the hearts that were striving below
Had God for their bulwark and truth for their power,
And they stopped not to number their foe.

From where our green mountain tops blend with the sky,
And the giant St. Lawrence is rolled,
To the waves where the balmy Hesperides lie,
Like the dream of some prophet of old;
The conqueror and—dying bequeathed to our
Not this boundless dominion alone—
But the banner, whose loveliness hollows the air,
And their motto of "Many in one."

We are many in one, while there glitters a star
In the blue of the Heavens above;
And tyrants shall quail mid their dungeons afar
When they gaze on that motto of love.
It shall glim o'er the sea, and the bulw of the storm,
Over tempest, and battle, and wreck;
And fame where our game with their thunder
Neath the blood of the slippery deck.

The oppressed of the earth to that standard shall Wherever it folds shall be spread,
And the exile shall feel 'tis his own native sky,
Where its stars shall float over his head,
And those stars shall increase, till the fulness of time
Its millions of cycles has run—
Till the world shall have welcomed its mission sublime,
And the nations of earth shall be one.

Though the old Allegheny may to heaven
And the Father of Waters divide,
The links of our destiny cannot be riven
While the truth of those words shall abide.
Then oh! let them glow on each helmet and brand,
Though our blood, like our rivers shall run;
Divide as we may in our own native land,
To the rest of the world we are one.

Then, up with our flag—let it stream on the air,
Though our fathers are cold in their graves;
They had hands that could strike, they had souls that could dare,
And their sons were not born to be slaves.
Up, up with that banner, wherever it may call,
Our millions shall rally around;
A nation of freemen that moment shall fall
When its stars shall be trailed to the ground.

Measure for Measure.—A traveller once related with all seriousness, in a company of persons, that he had passed through the five divisions of the earth; and that among other curiosities, he had met one which no writer had as yet mentioned. This wonder was, according to his account, a cabbage which had grown so high that fifty armed soldiers might have stationed themselves under a single leaf, and performed their manoeuvre. Some one who heard him, deeming this exaggeration not worth any continuation, said, with much self-command and coolness, that he had been abroad as far as Japan, where, to his astonishment, he saw more than three hundred cabbages at work upon a single kettle, and within the same were five hundred men polishing it. "What could they do with such a monstrous kettle?" asked the traveller. "Cook the cabbage therein, of which you have just now told us."

Strong Preaching.—The 'book learn' negro is one of the most original specimens to be met with. But when he aspires to ecclesiastical honors, it requires a Dickens to do him full justice. Some one who had the pleasure of listening to a discourse from one of these full-blooded divines relates that in speaking of a reformed infidel, he wound up his description thus: "De last word dat dis dyving man was heard to say;—de last word he was noticed to speak;—de last word he was known to utter;—de last syllable he ever breathed;—de last idea he ever ejaculated;—de last breath he ever exhaled;—de last sound he ever uttered;—de last word he ever said, or articulated—was go-b-er-y."

self, without hindrance to business, or the knowledge of the most intimate friend, and with one tenth the usual expense. In addition to the general routine of private disease, it fully explains the cause of manhood's early decline, with observations on marriage—besides many other derangements which it would not be proper to enumerate in the public prints.
Any person sending TWENTY FIVE cents enclosed in a letter, will receive one copy of this book, by mail, or five copies will be sent for one dollar. Address, "DR. W. H. YOUNG,
No. 152 SPRUCE STREET PHILADELPHIA."

THE valuable property in Jackson Township, Cambria County, six miles west of Ebersburg, on the site of Turnpike, containing 286 ACRES,
about 65 of which are cleared, in good order and under good fence. There is a good two story
FRAME HOUSE
thereon erected, now occupied as a Temperance Hotel, together with a log Stable and a log Barn. There is also on the premises a FINE ORCHARD,
containing 150 trees, principally all grafted and bearing fruit. Running through the farm is a fine stream of water, on which is erected a good new SAW MILL,
having the advantage of a township road from the Turnpike leading past it. A good vein of coal is also found on the land.
The subscriber is willing to sell said Saw Mill and 100 acres of well timbered land, separately from the other property if more convenient to purchasers. Adjoining this mill is 800 acres of well timbered land, affording a fine opportunity to any person wishing to engage in the lumbering business.
For further particulars apply to the unde-signed residing on the premises.

CONSUMPTION AND SCROFULA.

PURIFY! PURIFY!
Life and Health are in the Blood.
Not one of all the numerous medicines that have been prepared, being to be of any great medical value, powerful, or unfailing certainty in cleaning and purifying the system, and strengthening and invigorating the whole system, as
BRANT'S INDIAN PURIFYING EXTRACT.
This Purifier is the most wonderful and astonishing remedy in the world. It cleanses and purifies the blood, and gives it a healthy color, and strength, and invigorates the whole system, as
BRANT'S INDIAN PURIFYING EXTRACT.
This Purifier is the most wonderful and astonishing remedy in the world. It cleanses and purifies the blood, and gives it a healthy color, and strength, and invigorates the whole system, as

Less Quantity, at Less Cost of four-fold than ever such diseases were before or since cured by Sarsaparilla or any other remedy. What, then, is the question for those interested to decide, as to economy and health? FIT-Y-WILL it cure my complaint? SEE IT—IT IS CHEAPER!

ONE DOLLAR'S WORTH
of BRANT'S PURIFIER effectively cures FOUR TIMES as much disease as any other remedy. What, then, is the question for those interested to decide, as to economy and health? FIT-Y-WILL it cure my complaint? SEE IT—IT IS CHEAPER!

MOST HORRID SCROFULA.
To realize the great power of this medicine as a purifier, read in our Pamphlets, the perfect cure effected on Mr. J. Haskin, of Rome, Oneida county, N. Y. He was confined to his bed One Year—was not expected to live another hour longer—his neck was swollen nearly off from ear to ear—could not eat or sleep through the Wind-pipe—his ear nearly stopped out—the face of one arm destroyed. One ulcer, as large as a man's hand, had nearly eaten through his side—sixty-three were on him, in all.

Twenty Large, Deep, Discharging Ulcers which were ALL CURED, and he restored to health and strength to labor again, by the use of ONLY TWELVE BOTTLES. This wonderful cure is certified to by Fourteen Respectable Witnesses.
And it is the greatest cure, the most undoubtedly substantiated of one of the most horrid and most hopeless cases of Scrofula, that has ever been cured since the world was created—completely establishing the great power and certain efficacy of the medicine.

BRANT'S INDIAN PULMONARY BALSAM
Possesses all the cleansing and purifying virtues nearly as powerful and active as the preparation called "BRANT'S INDIAN PULMONARY BALSAM." It is a medicine, which is prepared from several other medicines, which are peculiarly adapted to, and are essentially necessary, to cure
COUGHS AND CONSUMPTIONS.
THIS BALSAM heals and cures Ulcers in the Lungs and elsewhere internally, as certainly and as early as the Purifying Extract cures and heals Ulcers externally. This Bal-sam cures the cause of Consumption, and of all other older diseases long said to be incurable.

THOUSANDS OF CONSUMPTIONS, and Chronic Coughs, abundantly prove its usefulness, and efficacy in the cure of the BREAST, THROAT, AND LUNGS.
A DYING WOMAN SAVED!
CONSUMPTION CURED!
We state this cure to prove the power to save life, when this Balsam is used, even after the system is considered by medical men and friends to be in the last stages of dis-solution. In this case, so far gone, that the almost dead woman, who bought it, for the particulars of the cure, and the respectable and authentic testimony of all the un-derstandable facts, we refer to our PAMPHLETS.
This cure was effected on MISS ZIBBA JYERMAN, of Indian Sp. Spruce county, N. Y. We can give beyond doubt many other almost equally as hopeless and less accessible cases of Coughs and Consumptions, CURED, which were pronounced incurable by all the Physicians of the County, and State.
BRANT'S PULMONARY BALSAM cures Consumption, Coughs, Croup, Spitting of Blood, Heming at the Lungs, Pains in the Breast and Side, Pleurisy, Dropsy of the Heart, Cholera Infantum, Dysentery, and Summer Complaints, in Children and adults—and ALL

Female Weaknesses and Complaints.
No remedy offered to the public has ever been so well adapted and effective in restoring ALL the individual weakness and irregularities, which so often attend the female system, as the use of BRANT'S PULMONARY BALSAM. It makes no difference whether the derangement be suppression, excess, or other weakness; it REGULATES the system, and restores the system to its original purity, and gives it a healthy color, and strength, and invigorates the circulation, and soothes and ALLAYS NERVOUS IRRITABILITY. See Pamphlet.

CHANGE OF LIFE.
From the Girl to the Woman, and the Woman at middle age—the one case is accelerated, and the other so gradually expressed, as to prevent any of the fatal diseases that frequently arise in consequence of such changes.

LIVER COMPLAINT.
See the cure of Dr. Hubbard, of Stanford, Conn., and others.
DYSPEPSIA—See T. S. Wilcox, of Anson, Wyoming county, N. Y., and many more.

Nervous Diseases and Derangements
cured without fail.
DYSENTERY and SUMMER COMPLAINT, in children and adults—and

CHOLERA INFANTUM.
No mother need ever mourn the death of her child, if BRANT'S PULMONARY BALSAM be administered. It should be, for such cases, administered in larger than the ordinary doses.
