

The Merchant left at Havana the Sarac, Albany, and Germantown. Boston, June 7.—The brig Portland, Captain Safford, has arrived here from Cardenas, whence she sailed on the afternoon of the 21st ult., one day after the flight of Lopez and his party. Capt. Safford informs us that about 300 troops had arrived Cardenas from Havana and all was quiet in the place. Five men of the invading force under Lopez, were left behind and were in prison. It was not known what disposition would be made of them. The amount taken by Lopez from the Custom House, is acknowledged by the collector to have been only $1,000.

From Cuba.
New York, June 10.
The steamer "Georgia" arrived from Havana, with advices to the 4th inclusive—five days later. The United States steamer "Saracene," bearing pennant of Com. Tatnell, entered the harbor previous to Georgia's sailing, and was to leave in the afternoon for Norfolk.

The sloops of War "Albany" and "Germantown" were cruising off the harbor. On the 5th, at 12 o'clock, an American brig, from which was taken some California emigrants, supposed to be invaders, was towed past the "Georgia" and "Saracene," in the upper harbor. The brig's name is unknown. The "Georgia" was captured at the same time and anchored at the mouth of the harbor. The persons in these vessels are confined in the Morea castle, and all access to them has been denied.

It is generally believed in Havana, that there is no evidence against these vessels or the prisoners, the vessels having regularly cleared for Chagres, and captured on the coast of Yucatan. Havana is comparatively quiet, though the militia are being drilled regularly every day.

The Havaneros speak quite contemptuously of the American heroes, who were so easily driven from Cardenas. It was reported that they were the picked men of Jefferson Davis's regulars, engaged in the Mexican war. The soldiers and officers were quite indignant towards all Americans—no person being allowed to land. The Captain of the steamer got ashore with much difficulty.

The Captain of the "Ohio" was arrested by a party of soldiers, although he had a passport, and was paraded about the streets some time. Of the persons captured belonging to Lopez' party in the expedition, four were shot, and the fifth reprieved, for some reason unknown. These men, it was said, were not soldiers but sailors, who had wandered from the boat, and had been left behind. They were returning leisurely to the shore, when they were arrested and shot. All the officers and men engaged in the fight against Lopez, were liberally rewarded; the officers receiving crosses of honor, the men money.

The "Falcon" sailed on the 4th, with 450 passengers for Chagres. The Cholera had subsided in Havana. There was very few cases among negroes on plantations.

ARRIVAL OF THE CHEROKEE.

Two Weeks Later from California.
New York, June 5.

The steamship Cherokee from Chagres arrived here this afternoon, with one million five hundred and fifty-two thousand three hundred and sixty-one dollars in gold dust. The Cherokee brings the California mails to the 1st of May inclusive. The news is of a very interesting character.

Mr. Thomas, late mate of the steamer Crescent city, was recently shot by the keeper of a hotel. At San Francisco, trade has assumed a more lively turn, and as the large amount of gold which has been wintered at the mines comes down, it gives an impetus to all kind of business.

The Legislature of California adjourned, after passing 143 acts and 17 joint resolutions.

The Alta Californian of the 1st of May says: The steamer Panama sails about 4 o'clock with 150 passengers and $140,000 in gold dust. This shipment makes up an amount not less than $335,000 forwarded to the Atlantic States since the 1st day of March; in other words, over three and a half millions of dollars have been shipped in three steamers from this port.

A great disposition towards the middle fork of the American is manifested. Some six thousand persons are said to be high up there among the snows, waiting for the waters to subside, so that they can commence operations.

At Placerville, the whole town is almost dug over. They think that they have found an old creek which used to run at the depth of from six to twelve feet. Excellent diggings are had.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1st.
Her Majesty's steamship Driver will sail at an early hour this morning for Valparaiso with $200,000 in gold dust.

Considerable of a contest is going on for securing the seat of government. San Jose was strongly urged by its citizens.

Stevenson & Parker, proprietors of the New York of the Pacific, submitted a proposition on the 17th of Dec. to locate the capital at that point; in consideration thereof, furnishing the public buildings at a cost not exceeding a hundred thousand dollars; to be in readiness by the first of January 1851. An additional offer to prepare, before the 1st of May next, offices for the heads of departments of State to be used temporarily, until the erection of commodious public edifices.

We understand from a gentleman who served in this city yesterday in the steamer Senator, from Sacramento city, that the citizens would assemble, it was thought to give an expression to the popular feeling on the subject of the admission of California into the Union. The spirit of the prevailing sentiment in that section may be learned by consulting the resolutions adopted at the recent meeting in this city. The whole country is clamorous for immediate admission.

THE SAN FRANCISCO CHARTER ELECTION.
(From the Alta Californian May 1.)
The polls opened yesterday morning for the election of charter officers, with much animation, which continued during the day. The election was hotly contested, the result of which places John W. Geary in the chair, Chief City Magistrate and Mr. Tilford as Recorder—both the regular nominees of the Democratic party. Col. Geary's majority over Brenham, (Whig) is 246. Mr. Tilford's majority over Marshall, is 300. Owing to the number of crossed and split tickets, the votes of the Mayor and Recorder were only taken. The inspectors will commence their labors again this morning. The presumption is that the Democratic ticket will have a majority in council.

How to Catch a Thief.
Lately in St. Louis, a thief was detected in the following manner: A tobaccoist had repeatedly missed money out of his drawer, but was unable to catch the thief, and had no very well-grounded reasons for suspecting anybody. To solve the mystery, therefore, he loaded a pistol, and so placed it that the person opening the drawer would be certain to fire it off, and to receive the contents into his body. The stratagem succeeded fully. The pistol went off, and the contents were lodged in the thigh or leg of the thief, who was the tobaccoist's own apprentice boy, 14 years old. A good many persons condemned this proceeding, and it was probably censurable; but nobody likes to be robbed, and those who commit robberies have scarcely a right to complain, if, instead of finding booty, they find bullets. Yet other means might have been found to detect the delinquent than that of crippling him and endangering his life. —Wash. Globe.

Unrolling a Mummy.
The unrolling of a mummy brought to this country from Egypt, was commenced on Monday last at Boston, in the presence of numerous scientific and intelligent spectators. All that was done on that day was to extricate the mummy from the coffin, which was done with perfect success after about one hour's labor. The coffin was composed of thin alternate layers of sycamore wood and cloth, glued together by an adhesive bituminous substance resembling pitch. To pry (the 5th) the mummy is to be unrolled, which will be the most interesting of all the operations connected with this singular development. The mummy is said to be, or to have been—the pretense being the proper tense, we suppose—a lady of high rank, of the blood of Sesostris for anything we know to the contrary, and to have been in the state she now is, cased in cloth and bitumen, for the last three thousand years! Is this creditable? The savans say it is so, which they would not say, we suppose, unless upon sufficient grounds.

This is the first mummy ever unrolled in this country, we believe, and but few have been anywhere. To us it seems a little like sacrilege, (but this is ideal) thus to invade the sanctity of the coffin that has so long and so faithfully retained its tenant. Three thousand years! What changes have taken place in that time! Empires have been founded, and have fallen and been forgotten, and a fragile human form is revealed to us as perfect as it was probably but an hour after its death! This is truly wonderful. —Wash. Globe.

A Seamless Coat.—The ingenious Manchester operative, Michael Lyons, who a short time since produced a pair of trousers without a seam, has just completed a still more difficult task, having made on a machine of his own invention, a coat of blue worsted, throughout the whole of which, even to the furnishing of pockets and the fastening on the buttons no needle has been employed.

Mr. Mrs. Partington is of the opinion that Mount Vesuvius should take Townsend's Sarsaparilla, to cure itself of eruptions! The old lady thinks it has been vomiting so long that nothing else would stay on its stomach.

What a pity, that common sense, for want of use, should have become uncommon.

DIED
On the 6th inst., at the residence of her son, Dennis Noon in Washington township, Mrs. JANE NOON, in the 96th year of her age.

She remained and continued through life a steadfast, uniform christian believer, kind, courteous and charitable, steadily and steadfastly practicing the rules of christian virtue—never permitting herself to be elated with prosperity nor depressed with adversity—she has left a numerous family to commemorate her memory. May she rest in peace. [Com.]
