

good gamblers. May they play and beat for us at all times.

By Peter Fox—To those deserting our ranks and wearing their uniforms on all occasions: May they always want for something to protect them in the way of clothes.

By Samuel S. Beck—Captain Wm. M. Ott: May he never do "aught" to impair the laurels already on his brow.

By John Trotter, Esq.—The Quitman Guards: When they are called forth to the battle field may they never be wounded in the back, and when they return may each marry a Jefferson Gal.

By Jacob Fell—George Washington: May the people of the United States never forget his glorious deeds.

By William O. Skelly—The Quitman Guards: May the sumptuous feast they this day sat down to never be forgotten.

By John M'Kinzie, Jr.—The Jefferson Ladies: May they live long and always be well "Guarded."

By Francis A. Keech: Long may the Eagle with her white wing, Hover o'er America without a King.

By John O'Donnell—May prosperity crown our efforts.

By Lieut. Barbour—Our Company: Like the Father of our Country may we ever be able "to defend the mothers and protect the daughters" of Jefferson.

By a guest—Our Host and Hostess: Thankful for the kindness with which our reception has been marked we can only pray for their health, happiness and prosperity.

By "One of 'em"—Our Gunner, Joseph Fresh, Esq.—As the mighty thundering of your roaring cannon reverberated from hill to hill this day—so may your fame as a genius in the arts and sciences be wafted on the wings of the wind and learned in every clime.

After the toasts were read the company again formed, and, having rendered the town vocal with enthusiastic cheering were dismissed.

The utmost good humor and harmony prevailed throughout the entire proceedings, no one transgressing the proper bounds of decorum. The crowd dispersed quietly, and each returned to his home fully satisfied that he had done his share in commemoration of American Independence.

FURTHER NEWS BY THE HIBERNIA.

ENGLAND.
The "Atlantic" will contest the race with the "Asia," which leaves for Boston on the 13th.

The Ministry have been sustained in the Commons in the Greek Affair, by a majority of 46.

A man named Plato, formerly of the 10th Dragoons, made a brutal assault upon the Queen, as she was coming out of Cambridge House in company with Prince Albert. No harm was done further than demolishing her bonnet. Plato was arrested. He appeared sane.

The Queen appeared at the Italian Opera on the same evening, and was most cordially greeted.

FRANCE.
The question of an increase of the President's salary has received the sanction of the Assembly.

SPAIN.
It is said that General Navarez has had a warm discussion with the Minister from the United States, in which he expressed the astonishment and regret of the Spanish Government that the Government of the United States had not prevented the expedition of Lopez from being prepared in the United States, but had allowed it to depart with the object of attacking Cuba, and it is also reported that the Spanish Minister had addressed a warm remonstrance to Washington, embodying the views of the Spanish Government. This note is not written in a very amiable spirit.

DREADFUL EXPLOSION.
Through the kindness of Capt. Lang, from the Hibernia, we have a telegraphic despatch from London, announcing the arrival of the overland mail from Bombay with dates of 25th May.

At Benares upwards of ONE THOUSAND persons lost their lives by the explosion of a Magazine boat, in which there were three thousand barrels gunpowder. A whole fleet of 30 vessels were destroyed. Great damage was done to the town near which the explosion took place.

GERMANY.
The Parliament of Erfurt will meet in August.

The idea of a third German Union has been avowed, and proposed to be carried into effect by the Government of Hanover. It is the plan of the North German Union to be formed of Hanover and Oldenburg, and those smaller States that are naturally allied to Hanover. The principle of alliance is that of Free Trade.

The movement of the South German manufacturers in favor of higher protective duties, sanctioned by the Prussian Minister of Commerce, has induced Hanover to announce distinctly the plan of the League.

Mr. Hastendy, Chief Minister of Hesse Cassel, has been found guilty of embezzlement of the public funds. Another account says he has been convicted of forgery.

PRUSSIA.
There has been a change in the Austrian representation at Berlin, and rumors have arisen of new despatches between Prussia and Austria.

The Cholera has reappeared at Berlin.

AUSTRIA AND HUNGARY.
It is expected that the Emperor will be crowned in July, when it is said a general amnesty will be given to all state prisoners and political offenders.

On the authority of the Pesth Zeitung, it is stated that all the officers who before the revolution have quitted the Imperial service and enlisted under the banner of Hungary, and who were afterwards condemned for so doing, are to be set at liberty forthwith. The full pardon of several has already been announced.

VIENNA.
Dates of the 19th state that Russia has refused to recognize the Frankfort Congress at the Plenary Assembly of the German Confederation, considering it simply as a voluntary meeting of the Representatives of the German States. The Vienna Journal concludes the above announcement with these remarks: "Thus has Russia separated herself from Germany."

RUSSIA AND TURKEY.
Letters from Belgrade state that a revolution against the Turks has broke out in Balzarine.

The three districts within Georrey, Lobe and Belgrade are stated to be in open insurrection. The insurgents were marching against the post of Belgrade, which contains but a small garrison, but immense quantities of munitions of war.

Another statement is that the fort is already in their hands.

The Russian Army is being greatly augmented, but for what purpose has not been stated.

ITALY.
The position of Rome is most unsatisfactory.

A commission of Cardinals has been named to discuss the affairs of the country; and we are told that the police has been placed under Austrian authorities.

NAPLES.
A frightful accident had occurred on the 18th of June. A part of the Grenagles, an immense edifice used as a barracks, gave way and fell down, involving 400 or 500 persons in the ruins.

UNION CAUCUS, &c.
WASHINGTON, July 12.

The Union caucus of members of Congress of all parties favorable to the Union, was held to-day.

The South agree to the line of 34 deg. North latitude, as the boundary of New Mexico, all below that line to Texas.

Texas also agrees to this.

Mr. Clay is in favor of it, and President Fillmore is content.

So the question bids fair to be settled to the satisfaction of all parties.

A proposition is entertained in the caucus to divide California by the same line, and at the present moment, (12 M.) the proposition is still under consideration, with a prospect of being carried.

There is a rumor current now that Mr. Webster will give place to Mr. Winthrop in the Cabinet.

Gen. Scott arrived this morning. He comes to attend the funeral and to superintend the military arrangements.

The Intelligencer of this morning publishes the official order of procession.

Adjutant General Jones has issued an order that at all the military stations, on the day after the order has been received, the troops be paraded at 10 A. M.

The order is then to be read to them, after which all labor for the day will cease.

Minute guns will be fired from sunrise to sunset.

The officers of the Army will wear the badge of mourning, and the colors of the several regiments will be put in mourning.

Similar orders have been issued to the Navy.

Horace Greely is talked of for the Department of the Interior in the New Cabinet.

A Scene Altogether American.
The National Intelligencer, commenting upon the sad event of the death of the President alludes to an incident of the day, which probably made less impression than some others on American spectators, but was precisely that which is most calculated to attract the notice of foreigners.

"The death of the President being announced, a citizen, plainly attired, enters among the assembled Representatives of the nation, walks up to the Clerk's desk, takes an oath on the Bible to support the Constitution of the United States, and, by this brief ceremony, he becomes, in an instant of time, invested with the command of the whole military force of a mighty nation, with the execution of its laws and the administration of its power. No one objects or dreams of objection; the act is acquiesced in as a thing of course, and with the submission that would be rendered to a law of nature.—The sceptre of the people into passes his hands as quietly and as quickly as a power of attorney could be acknowledged before a justice of the peace. And though the individual attracted attention, the thing itself was hardly thought of in connection with the consequences. In some countries such a transfer of power would have cost streams of blood, and shaken the government to its very foundations.—And why is it not so here? Because ours is a government of equal rights, and a government of laws, and because our people are a law abiding and a law keeping people; because they know and feel that their own laws are the restraints which they themselves have placed on their own passions, and that it is only by obeying these laws that their equal rights can be maintained. May such ever be their spirit!"
