

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, in and by an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An act to regulate the General Elections within the Commonwealth," it is enjoined upon me to give Public Notice of such election to be held, and to enumerate in such notice what officers are to be elected in pursuance of which.

J. JOHN BRAWLEY, High Sheriff of the county of Cambria, do hereby make known and give this public notice to the Electors of the said county of Cambria, that a General Election will be held in the said county of Cambria on the SECOND TUESDAY of October next, (being the 8th day of the month) at the several election districts established by law in said county, viz:

- The Electors of the district composed of the borough of Ebensburg, to meet at the Court House in said borough.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of Cambria, to meet at the Court House in the borough of Ebensburg.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of Allegheny, to meet at the School House in the town of Loretto in said township.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of Johnstown, to meet at the house of James Shannon, in said borough.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of Conemaugh, to meet at School House number thirteen in said township.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of Carroll, to meet at School House number three in said township.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of Clearfield, to meet at the house of John Douglas, in said township.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of Jackson, to meet at the house of Charles Dillon in said township.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of Richland, to meet at the house of Jacob King, in said township.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of Summerhill, to meet at School House number one in the town of Jefferson, in said township.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of Susquehanna, to meet at the house of Matthew Conrad, in said township.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of Washington, to meet at the School House situated at the foot of Inclined Plane No. 4, in said township.
- The Electors of the district composed of the township of White, to meet at School House number one in said township.

At which time and place the qualified Electors, as aforesaid, will elect by Ballot ONE PERSON for Canal Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

ONE PERSON for Auditor General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

ONE PERSON for Surveyor General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

ONE PERSON, in conjunction with the counties of Westmoreland and Bedford to fill the office of member of Congress of the United States, to represent the 19th Congressional district in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

ONE PERSON, in conjunction with the counties of Huntingdon and Blair, to fill the office of Senator, to represent the counties of Huntingdon, Blair and Cambria, in the Senate of Pennsylvania.

TWO PERSONS, in conjunction with the county of Bedford to fill the office of members of the House of Representatives, to represent the counties of Bedford and Cambria in the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania.

ONE PERSON to fill the office District Attorney for the county of Cambria.

ONE PERSON to fill the office of County Surveyor for the county of Cambria.

ONE PERSON to fill the office of County Commissioner for the county of Cambria, and

ONE PERSON to fill the office of County Auditor for the county of Cambria.

I also make known and give notice, as in and by the 13th section of the aforesaid act I am directed, "that every person, excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the Government of the United States or of this State, or any city or incorporate district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be, employed under the legislative, judiciary, or executive department of this State or United States, or of any city or incorporate district; and also, that every member of Congress, and the State Legislature and of the select or common council of any city commissioners of any incorporate districts, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector or judge or other officer of any such election, shall be eligible to any office then to be voted for."

Also, that in the fourth section of the act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act relating to elections, and for other purposes," approved April 16, 1840, it is enacted that the aforesaid 13th section "shall not be construed as to prevent any militia officer or borough officer from serving as judge, inspector or clerk in this Commonwealth, or any election in this Commonwealth."

Also, that in the 61st section of said act it is enacted that "every general and special election, shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed."

The general, special, city or incorporate district and township elections, and all elections for electors of president and vice president of the United States, shall be held and conducted by the inspectors and judges elected as aforesaid, and by clerks appointed as in hereinafter provided.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, but a white freeman of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in this state at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a state or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this state, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this state six months. Provided, That the white freeman, citizens of the United States between the ages of 21 and 22 years, and of those residing in the election district ten days aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes."

"No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the commissioners unless he produce a receipt for the payment, with in two years, of a state or county tax assessed agreeably to the constitution, and give satisfactory evidence either on his own oath or affirmation of another, that he has paid such tax, or on a false receipt, shall make oath of the payment thereof, or that if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the ages of 21 and 22 years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation, that he has resided in the state at least one year before his application and make such proof of his residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe, from the accounts given him that he is of age aforesaid, and give such other evidence as he may think proper, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote, shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspectors and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, or the word "age," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of such age shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like notes in the list of voters.

In cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is found on the list furnished by the commissioners and assessor, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the state for one year or more, his oath shall not be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof there by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days next preceding said election and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence in pursuance of his lawful calling is within the district, and that he did not remove into said district for the purpose of voting therein.

Every person qualified as aforesaid and who shall make the proof, if required, of his residence and payment of taxes, as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district, in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of any election under this act, from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use or practice any intimidating threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector or to prevent him from voting or restrain the freedom of choice, such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $500 for any time not less than 1 month nor more than 12 months, and he shall be shown to the court, where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, or district, or township where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, and be imprisoned not less than 6 months nor more than 2 years."

I also make known, that by an Act, passed the 9th day of April, 1850, for the purpose of ascertaining, by a vote of the people, a proposed amendment to the Constitution, a copy of which amendment added hereto, and by the following Proclamation of the Governor, it is provided,

PENNSYLVANIA, SS.
In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
WILLIAM F. JOHNSTON,
Governor of the said Commonwealth.

JOHN BRAWLEY, Esquire, Sheriff of Cambria county, SENDS GREETING:

WHEREAS, a joint resolution to amend the Constitution of this Commonwealth in the second section of the fifth article thereof by providing for the election of the Judges of this Commonwealth by the people, has been agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each house of the Legislature, at two successive sessions of the same.

AND WHEREAS, the Constitution of the said Commonwealth requires that any amendment so agreed upon shall be submitted to the people, in such manner, and at such time, at least three months after being so agreed to by the houses, as the Legislature shall prescribe.

AND WHEREAS, by an Act of the General Assembly of the State, passed the ninth day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty; it is provided "that for the purpose of ascertaining the sense of the citizens of this Commonwealth, in regard to the adoption or rejection of the said amendment, the Governor of this Commonwealth shall issue a writ of election directed to the sheriff of each and every county of this Commonwealth, commanding them to give notice in the usual manner, that an election will be held in each of the townships, wards and districts therein, on the second Tuesday in October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty for the purpose of deciding upon the adoption or rejection of the said amendment; which said election shall be held at the places, and closed and opened at the times and within which the general elections of this Commonwealth are held, opened and closed."

Now THEREFORE, in obedience to the requirements of the tenth article of the Constitution, and in accordance with the true intent and meaning of the said Act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, I—WILLIAM F. JOHNSTON, Governor of the said Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do issue this writ commanding and requiring you the said JOHN BRAWLEY, Sheriff of Cambria county, to give notice in the usual manner that an election will be held according to the terms of the Constitution, and provisions of the act of the General Assembly aforesaid, in each of the townships, wards and districts therein, on the second Tuesday in October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, for the purpose of deciding upon the adoption or rejection of said amendment.

Given under my Hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twelfth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and of the Commonwealth the seventy-fifth.

By the Governor,
A. L. RUSSELL,
Sec. retary of the Commonwealth.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same.

That for the purpose of ascertaining the sense of the citizens of this Commonwealth in regard to the adoption or rejection of the said amendment, the Governor of this Commonwealth shall issue a writ of election, directed to the sheriff of each and every county of this Commonwealth, commanding them to give notice in the usual manner, that an election will be held in each of the townships, wards and districts therein, on the second Tuesday in October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, for the purpose of deciding upon the adoption or rejection of the said amendment, which said election shall be held at the places, and be opened and closed at the time and within which the general elections of this Commonwealth are held, opened and closed, and it shall be the duty of Judges, inspectors and clerks of each of said townships, wards and districts, to receive on the said election tickets, either written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, or partly written and partly printed from citizens duly qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, and deposit them in a box or boxes to be for that purpose provided by the proper officers, which tickets shall be labelled on the outside "amendment;" and those who are favorable to the amendment may express their desire by voting each a written or printed, or partly written and partly printed ballot, containing on the inside thereof the words, "for the amendment;" and those who are opposed to such amendment, may express their opposition by voting each a similar ballot, containing on the inside thereof the words, "against the amendment."

I make known that by an Act, passed the 9th day of April, 1850, "Relative to the Election of Auditor General, Surveyor General and County Surveyor by the people," it is provided,

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same.

That the qualified voters of this Commonwealth shall choose by ballot, one person to fill the office of Auditor General, and one person to fill the office of Surveyor General, on the 2d Tuesday of October, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and at their general election in every third year thereafter.

SEC. 3. That the general election laws now in force for the choice of a governor of this Commonwealth, shall regulate the elections of Auditor General and Surveyor General; and in case any vacancy should occur in either of said offices, by death resignation or otherwise, the same shall be filled by appointment of the Governor; and the person so appointed shall continue in office until the end of the term for which his predecessor was elected.

SEC. 5. That the qualified voters of each county of this Commonwealth shall on the second Tuesday of October next, and on the same day every third year thereafter, elect one competent person, being a practical surveyor, to act as county surveyor for the proper county for the term of three years, who shall do and perform all the duties, and have and receive all the emoluments now pertaining to the respective deputies of the surveyor general.

I also make known that by an Act passed the third day of May, 1850, "Providing for the election of District Attorneys," it is provided,

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same.

That the qualified voters of each county and of Philadelphia, and of each of every county in the state, shall at the general election on the second Tuesday of October next, and every three years thereafter, elect one person, learned in the law, who has been two years admitted to the bar, and who shall have resided in the county for which he is elected for one year next preceding his election, who shall be called the district attorney of said county.

RESOLUTION
Relative to an Amendment of the Constitution.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the Constitution of this Commonwealth be amended in the fifth article, so that it shall read as follows: "The Judges of the Supreme Court, of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth, in the manner following, to-wit:—The Judges of the Supreme Court, by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth at large; the President Judge of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, by the qualified electors of the respective districts, over which they are to preside or act as Judges; and the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas by the qualified electors of the counties respectively. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices for the term of fifteen years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, (subject to the allotment hereinafter provided for, subsequent to the first election.) The President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record, as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, shall hold their offices for the term of ten years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas shall hold their offices for the term of five years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; all of whom shall be commissioned by the Governor, but for any reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient grounds of impeachment, the Governor shall remove any of them on the address of two thirds of each branch of the Legislature. The first election shall take place at the general election of this Commonwealth next after the adoption of this amendment, and the commissions of all the Judges who may be then in office shall expire on the first Monday of December following, when the terms of the new Judges shall commence. The person who shall then be elected Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices as follows: One of them for three years, one for six years, and one for nine years, the term of each to be decided by lot by the said Judges, as soon after the election as convenient, and the result certified by them to the Governor, that the commissions may be issued in accordance thereto. The Judge whose commission will first expire, shall be Chief Justice during his term, and thereafter each Judge whose commission shall expire shall in turn be the Chief Justice, and if two or more commissions shall expire on the same, the Judges holding them shall decide by lot which shall be the Chief Justice. Any vacancies, happening by death, resignation or otherwise, in any of the said courts, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, to continue till the first Monday of December succeeding the next general election. The Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, shall, at stated times, receive for their services an adequate compensation, to be fixed by law, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office; but they shall receive no fees or perquisites of office, nor hold any other office of profit under this Commonwealth, or under the government of the United States, or any other State of this Union. The Judges of the Supreme Court, during their continuance in office shall reside within this Commonwealth; and the other Judges during their continuance in office, shall reside within the district or county for which they were respectively elected."

J. S. MCALMONT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
V. WEST,
Speaker of the Senate.

Pursuant to the provisions contained in the 76th section of the act aforesaid, the judges of the aforesaid districts shall respectively take charge of the certificate or return of the election of their respective districts, and produce them at a meeting of one judge from each district, at the Court House in the borough of Ebensburg, on the third day after the day of election, being for the present year on FRIDAY the 11th of OCTOBER next, then and there to do, and perform the duties required by law of said judges. Also, that where a judge by sickness or unavoidable accident, is unable to attend said meeting of judges, then the certificate or return aforesaid shall be taken charge of by one of the inspectors or the clerks of the election of said district, who shall do and perform the duties required of said judge unable to attend.

I make known under my hand at my office, in Ebensburg, the 2d day of September, A. D. 1850 and of the Independence of the United States of America, the seventy-fifth.

JOHN BRAWLEY,
Sheriff of Cambria co. Pa.
