FOREIGN NEWS. THREE DAYS LATER From Europe. Arrival of the Steamship Europa.

NEW YORK, October 11. The Cunard Steamship Europa, from Liverpool direct, anchored at West Spit Buoy, at thirty minutes past nine o'clock on Thursday, and came up this morning through a dense fog. She has experienced stormy westerly gales during the passage, and has brought her Liverpool Pilot with her, being unable to get rid of him on account of the gale. The Europa brings 110 passengers. She sailed from Liverpool on the 28th of September, three days after the Atlantic.

On the 29th, passed the packet ship Queen of the West, from New York, bound into Liverpool, and the steamer Hibernia, which sailed from Boston September 18th.

The advance in cotton of 1-8d., reported by the last steamer, has not been maintained, and prices have receded to the rates at which they stood when the Cambria sailed. The market, however, continues active. There has been a rise in grain, followed however, by a tendency to decline.

AUSTRIA. New Government for Hungary.—The Wiener Zeitung contains the official decrees concerning the definite political organization of Hungary. At the head of the Hungarian Government is the Stadtholder, who is to reside in Pesth, with a Vice President, Councilors, Secretaries, &c. In respect to its administration, Hungary will be divided into five districts. Each district will be governed by an Obergespann Lord Lieutenant, with the necessary employees. The Obergespans are subjected to the Stadtholder.

HONORS TO HAYNAU. Gen. Haynau dined with Baron Rothschild on the day after his arrival in Vienna. He dined with the Prime Minister Schwarzenberg on the day following, and the day after the Emperor gave him a grand dinner. The Emperor of Russia has sent to Gen. Haynau, the grand cordon of the order of St. Anne, of the first class.

A letter from Vienna, of the 7th inst., says, that several banking houses of four principal places of Europe, have proposed to the government to take, on conditions very advantageous to it, the Hundred Million Livres of the Lombard Venetian loan; but subject to the condition that the coupons shall be paid in the place in which they are issued. The government is disposed to make the concession. An agent of the Messrs. Rothschild is about to proceed to Verona to enter into negotiations for the loan.

NAPLES AND SICILY. The Paris Evénement publishes a letter from its Neapolitan correspondent, which announces the outbreak of a formidable insurrection in the two Calabrias. The Neapolitan government was greatly alarmed and had ordered a frigate to proceed to Cotrone, a port of Ultra Calabria and bombard the city. Three provinces of Calabria appear to be acting in concert in this insurrection. At Nicastro, the insurgents had skirmish with the garrison of the town, in which the latter was defeated and twenty three gens d'arms of the Municipal Guard, the Judge and some other government employees were shot. In this city alone the military authorities had issued orders for the seizure of upwards of 300 persons, dead or alive. According to the latest accounts, the insurrection was spreading.

RUSSIA. The Augsburg Gazette says that there is at present a species of political Congress at Warsaw, at which the Austrian and Russian diplomatists are engaged. The Emperor himself is expected to attend it. The Congress is occupied in the consideration of the affairs of Germany and Poland. On the 1st of January, 1851—that is, on the 25th anniversary of the accession of the Emperor Nicholas, Poland will be transformed into a certain number of Russian Governments.

GERMANY. Matters in Germany remain where they were. The battle of Schleswig has not been fought, and the Hessians are disposed to do without their fugitive sovereign. All was quiet in Hesse Cassel.

The governments of Hanover and Wirtemberg were raising 10,000 men to be used by the elector in case of emergency. Austria and Prussia are polite but suspicious, and one may safely predict anything of their dark diplomacy; for the result may discover itself in a century—apparently not sooner. The Austrian Council, sitting at Frankfurt, have declared that the refusal of the Hessian Diet to grant supplies is illegal. In the meantime, the armies of Bavaria, Hanover and Prussia, approach the Hessian frontier. Hesse Cassel, however, remains perfectly quiet.

Letters from Hanover of the 10th inst., announce the death of the Councillor of State, Count Falcke. Advices from Cuxhaven, state that the Danes were blockading the river Eyder, and had expelled forty vessels of various nations.

PORTUGAL. Accounts from Lisbon have been received to the 13th of Sept. The outbreak of a military revolution against the domination of Costa was mentioned. Cabral was apprehended. The Queen had ordered him to return immediately to Lisbon. It was rumored that Silva, Cabral and the Duke of Terceira would enter the Ministry. It has been arranged to refer to the arbitration of the President of the French Republic the differences between Portugal and the United States, on the subject of the brig Gen. Armstrong.

News from the Plains. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 8. A letter from Fort Laramie dated Aug. 26th, says:—"The tide of emigration has almost ceased. Mormon emigration this year estimated at five thousand. The Register this season estimates the number of emigrants at thirty-nine thousand—five thousand men, twenty-five thousand women, and six thousand children. About thirty-three thousand horses, eight thousand mules, thirty-six thousand oxen, seven thousand cows, nine thousand wagons were taken. Deaths en route estimated at one-fifth. Did not register their names. Emigrants suffered much for food and loss of animals. The small pox is prevailing among the Sioux."

Ebensburg Market. Flour—$3.00 a 5.50 per barrel. Wheat—$1.75 a $1.00 per bushel. Oats—31 a 35 cts. Corn Meal—62 1/2 cts per bushel. Rye—50 a 62 1/2 cts. per bushel. Corn—50 a 62 per bushel. Buckwheat—40 a 50 cts. per bushel. Potatoes—45 a 50 cts. Hides—Roll 14 cts. Keg 12 1/2 Salt—2.50 per barrel. Eggs—8 a 10 cts. per dozen. Hags—$10 a 12 per ton. Seed—Timothy, $2.00 per bushel. Clover—$4.50 do. Wool—23 a 25 cts. per lb. Fresh Beef—4 a 6 cts. Fresh Pork—5 a 7 cts.

Stray Horses. CAME to the residence of the subscriber, on the 9th instant, two dark bay HORSES, with black legs and mane. They are perfect matchers, and each is supposed to be eight years old. One of them has both hind legs scratched above the pastern joint, and the mark of the collar on his shoulder. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges, and take them away, otherwise they will be disposed of according to law. Persons in search of said horses may be directed to the residence of the subscriber, by inquiring at Bowser's Hotel, seven miles west of Ebensburg. JOSEPH FUNK. Oct. 16, 1850.—2-3f.
