Hon. Richard Rush.

We frequently hear the name of this gentleman mentioned in connection with the office of United States Senator. And without disparaging the claims of the many able and accomplished gentlemen who have been mentioned as candidates for that office, or committing ourselves in favor of either of them, we beg leave to say that we believe, there is no man in the State who would more ably represent the interests of Pennsylvania in the Senate of the United States than the Hon. Richard Rush. He has filled many offices of great importance and trust, and his past conduct is sufficient guaranty for the future.
