

incident. We do not recollect of any parallel to it. The distance the creatures must have traversed cannot be far short of 2,000 miles, and as they travel by sight, and not by scent, the fact is more extraordinary. Sir John Ross, we believe took five pigeons with him, which, it may be remembered, were stated in the last accounts received from him to have been at that time all alive, so that there are still three to be accounted for.—North British Mail.

Arrival of the STEAMER CAMBRIA AT HALIFAX.

Three days later from Europe. HALIFAX, Nov. 15. The Cunard steamship Cambria, Capt. Leitch, arrived at this port this morning, from Liverpool, and sailed again for Boston, where she will arrive to-morrow night. Her mails will reach Philadelphia on Sunday night. The Cambria sailed from Liverpool on the 2d of Nov. Her news is therefore 3 days later than was received by the American Mail Steamer Atlantic. Her passage has been a fair one for the season, and the weather she has encountered.

Hesse Cassel. The German papers received on Wednesday, confirm the account respecting the movements of the Austrian troops in support of the Bavarian force, which is about to enter the Electorate of Hesse.

A telegraphic despatch of the 28th ult., states that in the course of Sunday night, all the troops of Cassel received orders to leave that city, and that they are marching to Haynau. They will thus be in a position to join the Bavarians and Austrians as soon as they enter the Electorate.

A telegraphic despatch of the 25th, from Cassel, states that an army of Bavarian troops was hourly expected to enter the Electorate.

The Cologne Gazette contains Frankfurt letters of the 29th ult., which state that the Hessian troops in Haynau, and the environs of Frankfort have been disbanded and were compelled to give up their arms and accoutrements. The same paper states that the Elector and his ministers after protesting against the Bavarian invasion of the Electorate, have suddenly altered their views and given their consent to the entry into Hesse, of the Bavarian army. That army was expected to arrive on the 30th inst.

Authentic information has been received of the result of the conference at Warsaw, between the Emperors of Russia and Austria and King of Prussia, but the Cologne Gazette contains a telegraphic despatch from Berlin of the 30th ult., which states information has been received from Warsaw, according to which the Prussian proposals have been promptly declined.

Denmark. Demark, too, is not likely to accede to the proposal of a Danish and German commissioner to settle the difficulties of Danish Question.

The Berlin reformer denies that Prussian officers (in full uniform) are allowed to join the Schleswig Holsteiners. The London Times' Berlin correspondent, writes that nothing had occurred during the visible and external proceedings of the Congress at Warsaw, to lessen the hope that its issue would be favorable to the continuance of peace.

Austria. The correspondent of the London Times under the date of Vienna, October 27th, states that public feeling was aroused, and that even the most apathetic go so far as to declare that they should have no objection to shoulder their musket again. The Morning chronicle is informed that Austria will never yield on the Feudal question. The German papers are occupied with detailing the movement of troops at Cassel.

What the Florida Election Decides.—In the election in Florida, Mr. E. C. Cabell was elected Member of Congress over Major Beard. The following declarations from the two candidates show the platform on which each stood:

"In the Florida Republican of the 15 inst. (Aug.) I am charged with a declaration that I would prefer a dissolution of the Union to the passage of the late bill, now no more, which was misnamed the Compromise bill.

"I acknowledge the declaration; and shall plead justification. JOHN BEARD."

"Major Beard is for dissolution of the Union, because of the passage of the Texas Boundary, California, and Territorial Bills, which together make up the 'Omni-bus' or 'Compromise' Bill. I am not. The issues are Union or Disunion—I am for Union; Peace or War—I am for Peace. E. C. CABELL."

Mr. Webster, in allusion to the fugitive slave law, says:

"It received the proper sanction of the two houses of Congress, and the President of the United States. It is the law of the land, and as such is to be respected and obeyed, by all good citizens. I have heard no man, whose opinion is worth regarding deny its constitutionality; and those who counsel violent resistance to it counsel that which, if it takes place, is sure to lead to bloodshed, and to the commission of capital offences. It remains to be seen how far the deluded and deluders will go in this career of faction, folly and crime."

DIED
At the Summit, Cambria county, on the 8th instant, Mrs. MARY HENRY, consort of Mr. William Henry, aged about 53 years.

For a number of years past, the dec'd suffered greatly, having been afflicted with Chronic Rheumatism to such an extent as rendered her unable to walk across her room during the last thirteen years. She bore her severe affliction with Christian fortitude, and her death is mourned by all with whom she was acquainted.
