THE RICHEST MAN IN VIRGINIA .- The editor of the Lynchburg Virginian, commenting upon a paragraph which has been travelling the rounds of the papers in regard to the wealth of General Tarver, said to be the richest slaveholder in Georgia, furnishes the following information which is probably new to most of our readers. We had no idea that any Virginia planter night of the first of February, and was under Moloy, deceased; Ellen Dodson and Elizabeth owned so many slaves, and acknowledge arrest on a Warrant for Larceny. He is about Plummer, heirs of Sugan Dodson, deceased; some little curiosity to know who he is. 22 years of age, five feet six inches in height Robert Watson, John Litzinger and Catharine With all his wealth, his lot is scarce to he Furnace, &c. with all his wealth, his lot is scarce to be
