October 17th 1850. lie that crosses either of these thoroughfares to Philadelphia or Pittsburg. Four trains of passenger cars stop at the door daily in the business sesson, and from five to ten coaches

The pure atmosphere, pure water, and dehightful scenery of the Allegheny Mountains, make this a most descrable summer resort for citizens of Philadelphia and Pittsburg, and as many permanent visitors can be had as the House will accomodate.

The building is spacious and admirably arranged for a Hotel and has been recently refitted, painted and enlarged. An excellent Stable, carriage house, wash house and convenient out-door buildings are on the premises and also a next tenant house for servants.

If the premises are sold, a clear and indisputable title will be made, and possession given on the first day of April next. The undersigned begs leave through this advertisement to return his hearty acknowledgments to his numerous friends for the many favors bestowed on him and assures them that nothing but sickness in his family has induced him to relinquish a claim to their patronage. WM. S. CAMPBELL. Summit, Nov. 25, 1850.-9.
