

dous humbug, as is not unlikely, the original stockholders, about thirty in number, will take the proceeds of eleven thousand shares while those who make up the aggregate of $100,000 in cash, against the fictitious capitals of the others, will receive a dividend upon 1,000 shares. The proportion is about as that of sand for the latter, to a ship load of the former."

The New York evening Post knocks much of the gloss off this "bluff" story, by the following remarks about the characters of the two principal stockholders in the "Bluff" Bank, it says:

"It will be observed that the prominent authorities for all this rignarole are Mr. Collins, Secretary of a Mining Company, and an ex-officio speculator in corner lots and wooden gingerbread. The other man, Gen. Wilson, is as notorious throughout the United States as the Railway King, in England, is now. He has been for years a most notorious and unscrupulous speculator, with no capital but bad titles to western swamps and a cloven tongue. He opened an office, or rather a trap for innocents, while in this city, some years ago and though he remained but a short time, he left with a string of judgments against him longer than the conquest roll of Don Giovanni. He disappeared from Wall street between two days, and cultivated obscurity for some years, when, to our utter amazement, we find him turning up at Washington as officer of the general government, commissioned to a branch of the revenue department in California.

This is the man who winds up a wild account of what he saw at the Bluffs, with the rogues familiar ad propria causa. "If you doubt, you may go and see for yourself."

It is very apparent that this is a mere trick of these speculators, who are all deeply interested in California real estate in common with most of the people of San Francisco, to give a new impulse to immigration into that territory, so as to maintain or to enhance the prices of property, in which they have been speculating.

MAJOR AUGUSTE DAVEZAC, who died at New York last Saturday, aged about 74, was a native of France, but in early life emigrated to New Orleans, where he was engaged in the practice of the law. At the battle of New Orleans he was an aid to Gen. Jackson, and during his after life he was an active, ardent and honest admirer of that person. In 1831, Gen. J. appointed him Charge d'Affaires to the Netherlands, which office he filled until 1839, when he returned to the United States and took up his residence in New York. In 1841 he was elected to represent New York in the Assembly of the State, and in 1845 he was appointed Charge d'Affaires to the Hague by President Polk. The latter office he continued to fill until last year, when he again returned.

BREAK IN THE CANAL.—A new viaduct across the small stream, about four miles above Freeport, gave way on Friday last. It occurred before the canal was half filled. It was caused, partly, by imperfect construction; but most likely by "Jack Frost" who privately conceals himself among crevices and places, sheltered from the sun and rain. It would be far better to wait a few days until the banks become settled, than to have the navigation interrupted when once fairly commenced.—Pittsburgh Post.

Member of Congress Arrested. WASHINGTON February 21. Mr. Stanley, of North Carolina, was arrested to-day on a warrant issued on the oath of Walter Lennox, Mayor. He was taken before Justice Morsell, charged with challenging Mr. Inge, of Alabama, for the alleged offensive words spoken a few days ago in debate. After a hearing Mr. Stanley was dismissed at 6 o'clock for want of evidence. Mr. Inge and his friend, Gov. Brown, have not yet been arrested. The Police have been searching for them all day. The general impression now is that a challenge has passed and a duel agreed upon.—Post.

Opening of the Pennsylvania Railroad. We see by the advertisement of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in this morning's paper, that the opening of this great public work will take place on Monday next, the 24th inst. Our merchants and shippers will rejoice to learn that it is to be done at this early period. We perceive that great reductions have been made in freight in comparison with former seasons, ranging as follows:—Dry Goods, &c., $1 per 100 lbs; bales Brown Muslin; Hardware, Groceries, &c., 80 cents per 100 lbs; Queensware, Coffee, &c., 60 and down as low as 50 cents.—They make the time in five days to Pittsburgh, which is some five days less than usually occupied. These advantages cannot but be appreciated by all persons concerned in the welfare of our commonwealth and city.—Pennsylvanian.

We find the following paragraph in a late letter from Switzerland; it is another proof of the world-wide influence exerted by the character and genius of our illustrious Washington:

"A block of marble will soon be on its way to the United States, obtained by the Swiss government from the Alps, to take its place in the Washington Monument. It is of the description so much admired by the old Romans. Beautiful thought! to behold the mountains of Switzerland contributing to perpetuate the honest fame of the immortal father and founder of our country, as the Swiss statesman are contributing to give durability to the institutions which resulted from his noble efforts to benefit mankind."

The Canal and Portage Railroad. The water was let into the canal at this place this morning, and the Portage Road is now in readiness for transportation of Merchandise and Passengers. Goods will arrive here from Philadelphia in a day or two, and in time to reach Pittsburg during the present week.—Johnstown Echo, Feb. 25th.

There are now in arms in Europe 600,000 men.
