

EUROPEAN NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP ASIA.

One Week Later.

New York, March 14.

The Asia, with dates from Liverpool on the 1st, arrived at 8 o'clock.

The steamer Canada had arrived at the time the Asia departed.

ENGLAND.

We glean the following from the London Standard of February 20th in regard to the Ministerial crisis.

In the House of Commons last night Lord Russell moved a further adjournment of the House, as the Queen had sent for the Duke of Wellington, to take his opinion on the present position of political parties.

The Papal policy of the government has prevented the confusion which might otherwise have taken place between the Peelites and Whigs.

At present all parties are amazed and irritated—the Whigs at their defeats, the Protectionists at their administrative weakness, and the Peelites at the paucity of their numbers.

The Duke in fact, old man as he is, could bring the present discordant elements into play more successfully than any other man in the kingdom.

New regulations respecting passports have been issued.

The committee for the regulation of the Spanish debt are still actively engaged in the examination of the question.

IRELAND.

The news generally is unimportant.—Mr. John O'Connell calls upon the electors of Drogheda to turn Sir Wm. Somerville out of the representation of that town, and demands his resignation.

ROME.

The Turin papers give a rumor that the Northern powers have addressed a note to the Piedmontese government demanding an explanation of all the Italian emigrants, the entire prohibition of the liberty of the press, and an immediate reconciliation with the Court of Rome.

There is very little news from Rome. The Pope has arrested three members of the ex-Roman constituent Assembly and others have been obtained to fill their places, for the intermediate period of provisional liberty.

FRANCE.

The intelligence from Paris is without national interest. The Montieur denies that the President intends to hold a review of 60,000 men in the Boulevards.

Gen. Aupeck is gazetted for the London Embassy.—M. Manchu for Sweden, and M. Larigues for the United States.

On Sunday a demonstration was made by the students of Paris. They deposited crowns at the foot of the column of July.

Monday was the anniversary of the revolution, and the day and night passed off with the utmost tranquility.

By accounts received from the departments it appears that the anniversary of the revolution of February has passed off without the slightest disturbance.

At Orleans, Tunis, and other places, the authorities refused to allow the banquets got up by the republicans, to take place.

AUSTRIA.

At Vienna rumors are still prevalent of an Austrian expedition against Switzerland.

PRUSSIA.

The ministerial papers contradict the late rumor of warlike measures. They state that an understanding has been effected at Dresden, between the agents of Prussia and Austria.

The rotation in the Presidency has been conceded by the late power.

All the Austrian provinces have been received into the Germanic confederation, and conceded to by Prussia and Bavaria. Austria engages to defend the measure against the suspicions and jealousies of foreign powers.

The smaller states continue their opposition to Austrian proposals. The above news is confirmed by the official Dresden Gazette.

The Berlin correspondent of the 22nd ult., confirms the late news of the termination of the Dresden crisis.

The Gazette publishes an order from the War Office, relating to the command and the extraordinary contributions and supplies of the army.

The German paper states that at the sitting of Congress at Dresden, on the 23d ult., the kingdom of Germany supported the Austrian proposition. The smaller states opposed it, and the kingdoms of Bavaria, Wertenberg and Saxony have protested against the competency of the conference to pass resolutions tending to restore the old federal diet. No resolutions of any kind have been adopted.

A fortnight's term has been fixed for further declarations. In the Herbergerina, the officers of Omer Pasha crossed the Naventa, near Corrigio, on the 5th. All the insurgents retreated to Mostin, where a battle was fought on the 9th.

The insurgents were defeated, and the Sultan's troops have entered Mostin. The insurgent's leader, Zarah Pasha, with 200 of his men, surrendered near Gasken.

The chief of the insurgents have fled. The pacification of Bosnia is all but accomplished.

A telegraphic despatch from Zara to the 18th inst. states that the insurgent's chief, Karash Pasha, has taken refuge in the Austrian Territory.

The First Drop.—The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, speaking of the chest of tea which recently arrived from Shanghai, in China, to New York, says:—“This single chest of tea is like the first drop that precedes the storm. Speed is now the paramount consideration, as we see in the freight prices paid in the swift-going clipper ships. If there were a ship canal across the isthmus that separates the Atlantic from the Pacific, the average passage between New York and Shadghai, would not exceed seventy days, and steamers could make it in forty days. Such a canal could be made in two years, at an expense not exceeding ten millions dollars, but not through Nicaragua.”

In the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg on Friday last, the following resolution, submitted by Mr. Hart, was adopted:—

Resolved, That the Canal Commissioners be requested to furnish this House with a map and profile of the different proposed lines on the route for avoiding the inclined planes on the Allegheny Railroad, together with a profile of the present Portage Railroad, showing the length and grade of each of the different inclined planes, with the length and grades of each of the levels between such planes.

Three cent pieces are now made at the Philadelphia U. S. Mint. They are three-quarters silver and one-quarter copper, and about the size of a Spanish sixteenth, though considerably thicker.

DIED

On Saturday, March 1st, at Birmingham, near Pittsburg, Mr. ANTHONY URBAN, formerly of this county, aged sixty years.

On Sunday evening, LAROOKA JANE, daughter of Lewis and Eliza Rodgers, in the 3d year of her age.

Thou art gone to the grave, but 'twere wrong to deplore thee, When God was thy ransom, thy guardian and guide,

He gave thee, and took thee, and soon will restore thee, Where death has no sting since the Saviour has died.”

WHIG MEETING.

The Democratic Whigs of Cambria county, are requested to meet at the Court House on Monday evening, April 7th, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of appointing 3 Senatorial Conferees to meet the Conferees of Blair and Huntingdon, to appoint a Delegate to the Lancaster Convention; and to appoint 3 Conferees to meet the Conferees of Fulton and Bedford counties to appoint two Representative Conferees to said Convention. A general attendance is requested.

By order of the Whig Co. Com. E. HUTCHINSON, Jr., Chairman. March 20, 1851.

THE NEAREST ROUTE TO THE GOLD DIGGINGS, SPECULATORS WAKE UP!!

The following described valuable Timber Lands are offered for sale: Three tracts of unimproved land situate on the waters of the South Fork of the Conemaugh, part in Richland township, Cambria county, and part in Somerset county; the lower tract not more than two miles from the saw mill of John Trotter, from which place is a good wagon road to the Portage Rail Road. Said land is well covered with wild cherry, poplar, birdseye maple, ash and other valuable timber, with the advantage of abundant water power on each tract. The road from Johnstown to Bedford passes through two of these tracts, and on said lands are promising indications of the existence of bituminous coal and iron ore.

Also, one tract of land on the waters of Black-Lick Creek, Jackson township, Cambria county, covered with valuable timber, with the advantage of excellent water power, which also contains a vein of coal four feet thick that has been opened and can be worked with profit. Distant from Ebensburg about five miles.—Terms easy, and title unquestionable. For further particulars enquire of E. A. VICKROY, Johnstown, or JOHN WILLIAMS, Ebensburg, Pa.
