

POETRY.

TO THE UNION. FROM A UNIT.

Giant aggregate of nations. Glorious whole of glorious parts. Unto endless generations. Live united, hands and hearts!

Every petty class-dissension— Heal it up as quick as thought! Every paltry place-pretension— Crush it, as a thing of naught!

Were I but some scornful stranger, Still my counsel would be just— Break the band, and all is danger.

No, a peerless constellation, May these forever blaze! Three-and-ten times threefold nation, Go ahead in power and praise!

Dear as the dove, whose wafting wing The green leaf rescued from the main, Thy gentler glow, returning spring,

Thou bring'st the blossoms to the bee, To earth a robe of emerald dye, The leaflet to the naked tree,

I will not people thy green bowers, With sorrow's pile and spectre band, Or blend with thine the faded flowers

Then, while the groves thy garlands twine, Thy spirit breathes in flower and tree, My heart shall kindly at thy shrine,

The Supreme Court.—Grace Greenwood gives this description of their honors:— "There is an awful dignity about that Supreme Court-room which oppresses one."

"The Judges are an imposing and dignified set of men. Judge McLean of Ohio most impressed me by his manly and noble appearance. Judge Woodbury has a fine face, as also has Judge Nelson of New York."

Truth is not only a man's ornament but his instrument; it is the great man's glory, and the poor man's stock. A man's truth is his livelihood, his recommendation, his letters of credit.

"Snowdrop.—Nature's delicate announcement that she is coming out in full dress."

AGRICULTURAL.

From the Germantown Telegraph.

Preparation of Clover Seed.

For several years past severe losses have been experienced by our farmers, annually, in consequence, as many have supposed, of sowing bad seed. Others again have attributed it to drought, which prevented the germination of the seed, or effected its destruction after it had germinated and began to grow.

The latter evil is more extensive and fatal in its effects, unquestionably, than many are prepared to suppose. I observed a field the last season, through which a narrow strip had been left unsown in consequence of want of seed; but which had been sown with herds grass and clover, the same as the residue of the field, which had been laid to grass with oats.

In the preparation of clover seed, I have ever found that soaking for a day or two in warm water, in which a small quantity of common salt has been dissolved, has usually produced the best results.

THE RETURN OF SPRING. Dear as the dove, whose wafting wing The green leaf rescued from the main, Thy gentler glow, returning spring,

Thou bring'st the blossoms to the bee, To earth a robe of emerald dye, The leaflet to the naked tree, And rainbow in the sky;

I feel thy blest benign control The pulses of my youth restore; Opening the spring of sense and soul, To love and joy once more.

Then, while the groves thy garlands twine, Thy spirit breathes in flower and tree, My heart shall kindly at thy shrine, And worship God in thee;
