

POETRY.

"He giveth His Beloved Sleep."
BY BISHOP SPENSER.
I tread the churchyard's path alone,
Unseen to shed the gushing tear,
I read on many a mouldering stone
Fond records of the good and dear,
My soul is well nigh faint with fear,
Where doubting many went to sleep;
And yet what a sweet repose is here—
"He giveth His beloved sleep."

The world has but a feverish rest,
To weary pilgrims sometimes given,
When pleasure's cup has lost its zest,
And glory's hard earned crown is riven,
Here, softer than the dews of even,
Fall peaceful on the slumbering deep,
Asleep to earth, awake to Heaven—
"He giveth His beloved sleep."

Yes, on the grave's hard pillows rest
No creaking cares, no dreams of woe;
On earth we close our aching eyes,
And heavenward all our visions grow,
The air of Eden round us flows;
And in their balm our slumbers sleep,
God calls His chosen home, and so
"He giveth His beloved sleep."

Ah! vainly could the human voice,
In this dull world of sin and folly,
Tell how the sainted dead rejoice
In those high realms where joy is holy—
Where no dim shade of melancholy
Beclouds the rest which angels keep,
Where peace and bliss united wholly,
"He giveth His beloved sleep."

If on the brow so fair, so young,
Affliction trace, and early furrow,
If Hope's too dear, delusive tongue
Has broke its promise of to-morrow,
Seek not the old again, to borrow
The deathful print its votaries reap,
Man gives his lov'd ones pain and sorrow,
God "giveth His beloved sleep."

UNROLLING A MUMMY.—A prodigiously corpulent fellow was produced for examination; a more unwieldy looking mortal we scarcely ever saw; he was as thick and round in the body as a fish barrel, and his legs and arms were proportionally stout. His clothes were all what the tailor would call "a very tight fit,"—so much so that they had split or burst out in sundry places. His coat gaped open behind from the collar to the waist. In short, he he was not only "too big for his breeches,"—but obviously too large for every visible garment on his body. But the most remarkable thing about this human phenomenon was the thin and sallow appearance of his face;—his jaws were of the lantern formation, and his whole physiognomy was both ludicrous and ghastly, when contrasted with the extraordinary obesity of his figure. John Connelly, a boarding house keeper in Cypress Alley, charged this "mister wight," (who was registered by the name of David Mooney), with stealing a variety of clothing;—"every coat, shirt and waistcoat, and every blessed pair of breeches in my house," said Connelly,—"all my boarders' clothes,—all my own clothes and all my wife's to boot; and the whole lot he's got on his back, (bad luck to him!) at this very minute." This seemed incredible, but Connelly, proceeding to mathematical demonstration, desired a watchman to assist him, and slipping off Mooney's coat, (or one of his coats,) in the presence of the Mayor they proved that there was another coat underneath, and this being removed, showed still another, of a different cut and color,—and so on, until five or six coats,—grey, mixed, blue, claret color, brown and drab, were peeled off in succession, like the skins of an onion, and piled up on the floor of the police office. By this time the peeler had arrived at a coat of a different species,—namely, a petticoat, of yellow flannel,—(belonging to Mrs. Connelly,)—the sight of which produced some commotion and a little merriment among the spectators. Mooney was next despoiled of a very pretty assortment of pantaloons;—corduroys, cassimeres, drillings, velveteens; some sound and whole, some patched and some as full of apertures as a honey comb. In the hurry and excitement of the question, Connelly and his assistant had nearly stripped off one pair too many;—but, fortunately, they discovered their mistake soon enough to prevent a visible breach of decorum. Six or eight waistcoats were next removed, and the process of unrolling the mummy was complete. The change in Mooney's figure was wonderful indeed, as much so as the development of Egyptian antiquities could be.—When he left the police office on his way to the "black Maria," his bulk, compared with what it was when he first appeared at the bar, bore about the same proportion as an ordinary stove-pipe does to the flue of a steamboat. Mooney was committed; and the stolen apparel, amounting to nearly half a cart load, was restored to Mr. Connelly.—Pennsylvanian.

It has been eloquently and faithfully said that if Christianity were compelled to flee from the mansions of the great, the academies of philosophers, the halls of legislators, or the throngs of busy men, we should find her last retreat with women at the fireside. Her last audience would be the children gathering around the knee of a mother,—the last sacrifice, the secret prayer, escaping in silence from her lips, and heard, perhaps, only at the throne of God.

GREAT VOLUME OF "GRAHAM."
THE MAGAZINE OF THE UNION:
PREPARATIONS FOR 1851.
80,000 Copies!

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE, unrivaled in splendor and excellence, commenced a new volume with a MAGNIFICENT JANUARY NUMBER.
The original publisher of the work returns his grateful thanks for the hearty welcome with which his return to this favorite periodical has been hailed by the press and the public, and promises his readers that the past six numbers have afforded but a slight foretaste of the excellence and beauty of what is in store for the new volume. Of the early numbers we shall print EIGHTY THOUSAND copies, and stereotype the work for further increase.
STERLING ORIGINAL LITERATURE.
G. P. R. James, the celebrated novelist, has been regularly engaged, and will furnish several brilliant romances during the year.
Geo. D. Prentice will write his exquisite poems exclusively for this Magazine.
Henry W. Longfellow, J. R. Lowell, S. A. Godman, E. P. Whipple, Grace Greenwood, J. M. Legare, W. Cullen Bryant, Mrs. A. M. F. Anax, will be regular contributors.

A GALAXY OF LITERARY NAMES OF AMERICA.
GRAHAM'S UNRIVALLED WRITERS are re-engaged, and arrangements are perfected for a series of most splendid articles, from such writers as the following:

Henry W. Longfellow, W. Gilmore Simms, James Russell Lowell, E. P. Whipple, J. M. Legare, George D. Prentice, Alfred B. Street, N. P. Willis, Wm. Cullen Bryant, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Henry William Herbert, James Fenimore Cooper, Richard Penn Smith, H. Hastings Weld, H. C. Moorhead, Henry B. Hirst, J. Bayard Taylor, Geo. H. Baker, R. H. Dana, Robt. T. Conrad, Robt. Morris, Epes Sargent, H. T. Tuckerman, C. J. Peterson, R. H. Stoddard, T. S. Arthur, Theodore S. Fay, T. Buchanan Read, Mrs. Lydia Sigourney, Mrs. E. C. Kinney, Mrs. E. J. Eames, Mrs. Elizabeth Oakes Smith, Mrs. Joseph C. Neal, Amelia B. Welby, Mrs. Juliet H. Campbell, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Mr. Emma C. Embury, Miss L. Virginia Smith, Miss Emma Duval, Miss Grace Greenwood, Mrs. Sarah H. Whitman, Miss Mary L. Lawson, with many more, well known to the readers of the work, making this Magazine

Splendid Department of Art.
Our readers know well that Graham is never beaten in spirited designs and elegant engravings.
We have no long list of plates purchased, to set down—no enormous resources—but a brave determination not to be beaten;—this, combined with some knowledge of our business, and a glorious list of subscribers to sustain us, warrants us in boldly challenging our contemporaries for the year 1851.
The January number will contain some of the most exquisite productions of artistic skill, and the series then begun will be continued through the year.
Our artists in London, Paris, Italy and the United States, to whom we pay cash for the best and freshest, promise us that GRAHAM SHALL NOT BE BEATEN! however others may boast.

In the department of Fashion we shall excel all that has ever been attempted either in the United States or Paris. The ARTISTS OF MONTEUR DE LA MODE engage to furnish us with the most splendid drawings—December and January numbers will contain specimens. In a word, wait for the January number—then compare and decide—it will eclipse all others, or we shall submit that we have not learned how a magazine of the most brilliant description can be produced. It will be worth $3 of itself.

TERMS—Single Copies $3.
PRICE OF CLUBS FOR 1851.
All orders for Graham's Magazine, commencing with 1851, will be supplied at the following rates: Single subscribers, $3; Two copies $5; Five copies, $10; and Ten copies for $20, and extra copy to the person sending the club of ten subscribers. McALISTER'S ALL-HEALING OINTMENT
Containing no Mercury or other Mineral, FOR TUMORS, ULCERS, and all kinds of SORES, it has NO EQUAL.

It is impossible to give the public an adequate idea of the great success which has attended the administration of the All-Healing Ointment for the past three years. It is perfectly astonishing to witness the effects and hear the praises bestowed on this medicine. No one could conceive that a single medicine possessed so much virtue, and had power to heal so many diseases. But since it has been known that tens of thousands have been cured, our friends will begin to realize the truth of our remarks in a former advertisement, to that there would not be a single family in America, who would live a day without possessing a box of

if they but knew its virtues.
BURNS.—It is one of the best things in the world for burns.
If MOTHERS and NURSES knew its value in cases of swollen or Sore Breasts and Sore Nipples, they would always apply it. In such cases, if used, according to the directions, it gives relief in a very few hours.
PILES.—Thousands are yearly cured by this Ointment. It never fails in giving relief for the Piles.

RHEUMATISM.
It removes, almost immediately, the inflammation and swelling, and the pain comes.—Read the directions around the box.
HEADACHE.
The salve has cured persons of the headache who had it regularly every week for 12 years, so severe as to cause vomiting.
The following testimonial was given by the celebrated Dr. Wooster Beach, the author of the great Medical work entitled "The American Practice of Medicine and Family Physician."
"Having been made acquainted with the ingredients which compose McALISTER'S ALL-HEALING OINTMENT, and having prescribed and tested it in several cases in my private practice, I have no hesitation in saying or certifying that it is a vegetable remedy, containing no mineral substance whatever, that its ingredients, combined as are, and used as directed by the Proprietor, are not only harmless but of great value, being truly a scientific remedy of great power; and cheerfully recommend it as a compound which has done much good, and which is adapted to the cure of a great variety of cases. Though I have never either recommended or engaged in the sale of secret medicines, regard for the truly honest, conscientious, and humane character of the Proprietor of the Ointment, and the value of his discovery obliges me to say thus much regarding it."
W. BEACH, M.D.

New York April 23d 1846.
AROUND THE BOX ARE DIRECTIONS FOR USING McALISTER'S OINTMENT FOR SCROFULA, LIVER COMPLAINT, ERISIPLELA, TETTER, CHILBLAIN, SCALD HEAD, SORE EYES, SORE THROAT, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, PAINS, HEAD-ACHE, DEAFNESS, EARACHE, BURNS, SORE LIPS, PIMPLES, &c., RHEUMATISM, PILES, SWELLED OR BROKEN BREAD, TOOTH-ACHE, AGUE IN THE FACE, &c., &c.
This Ointment is good for any part of the body or limbs when inflamed. In some cases it should be applied often.
JAMES McALISTER,
Sole Proprietor of the above Medicine.
