

for forty years, informs us that there never was so much rain fall there before in the same length of time.

The citizens of Portstown at the west end of this borough, deserted their homes about 2 o'clock this morning. The town was completely covered with water. The gardens are destroyed, and many moveable articles around the houses were washed away. Many of the citizens of Smithfield, opposite this place, also deserted their houses for safer quarters.

In this borough the water came to the second street in the upper end, completely surrounded the dwelling of Gen. Wilson, and carried away both the turnpike and mill bridges. Between the railroad and river, and all the gardens and first stories of many of the houses were under water, and many of the families left for higher ground. The tan yards of the Messrs. Millers were completely overflowed. Their hides were floating about their yards. Their loss must be, each, 1 or $200.

The families on Fisher & McMurtrie's farms escaped to the ridges. Gen. Wilson's cottage farm, Fisher & McMurtrie's, and Mr. McCahan's farms, were all under water—their loss is heavy as most of their grain was carried away—and nearly all their fencing has shared the same fate. Mr. Wm. Morgan living on the cottage, has also suffered severely—he has lost a heavy crop of wheat on Crooked Creek, and much of his spring crop on the cottage farm, and a number of hogs and sheep.

Along all the Streams emptying into the Juniata, for miles above and below this place, the fencing has been carried off.

The Railroad has been considerably damaged—several bridges have been swept away above Petersburg—and below this place some injury has been done. The cars could come up no farther than Mill Creek to-day.

The Canal is very much injured. Between this place and the Huntingdon Dam the embankment has been torn away badly. It will cost at least $5000 to repair the Canal between this and the dam. Above the dam, at Bell's lock there has also been considerable damage done. And most likely higher up the damage is greater. Below, we hear that the embankment is washed away in several places. The aqueduct at Mill Creek is gone.

At about 6 o'clock this morning the river began to fall very rapidly, and at this time it has fallen about 10 feet. Our citizens in the lower street and in Portstown, are now busily engaged in shoveling out and fixing up again.

A more sudden, unexpected and destructive flood never was experienced in this section of the country, and we hope it may be a long time before we have another.

ANOTHER STORM.—After four this afternoon, a part of a very heavy storm of wind and rain passed over our borough, destroying several beautiful shade and ornamental trees in front of dwellings.

Father Mathew's Arrival in Pittsburg.

The Apostle of Temperance arrived in our city on Sunday afternoon, 13th inst., and proceeded to the residence of Bishop O'Connor, whose guest he will remain during his brief sojourn in Pittsburg. The Reverend Father, though laboring under partial paralysis, feels, we rejoice to learn, much improved in general health, and at the period of our visit, was surrounded by a large group of his countrymen, and a number of our most respectable citizens, offering him their warm congratulations on his safe arrival. The labors of the Reverend gentleman for the past two years have been eminently successful. North and South, East and West, thousands and tens of thousands have enrolled themselves under his pure and spotless banner. No fewer than twelve thousand have received the pledge at his hands in Cincinnati; and the total number of his disciples in the States falls little short of half a million. The Rev. gentleman speaks with delight of his progress through our country, its vast territorial area, its diversity of climate, its exhaustless mineral and agricultural resources, its growing commerce, and the kindness, courtesy and hospitality which he has invariably experienced, through his extended tour, from all classes of its brave and generous people. The Good Father will attend daily at the residence of Bishop O'Connor, where he will feel most happy to administer the temperance pledge, and receive the visits of his friends and disciples. May God prosper his benevolent mission among us. We wish the noble-hearted Philanthropist every success.—Pittsburgh Post.

Attempted Escape of Irish Exiles.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14, 1851.
Terrence Bellew McManus, one of the Irish exiles, arrived in San Francisco on the 6th of June, having made his escape from Launceston, Australia, and been carried away on board a British barque. His arrival at San Francisco was celebrated by a public dinner, at which the Mayor presided, and which was attended by the Senators and Representatives, and many of the most distinguished men of the State. McManus looks in high health and spirits. About the time of his escape, a like attempt was made by Smith O'Brien, O'Donohue and O'Doherty. The sum of £600 had been put in the hands of an Englishman named Ellis, to purchase a brig, which was done, and after loading and clearing at the Custom House, a concerted signal was to be given by the exiles on the beach, when a boat was to be sent on shore from the brig. The villain, however, had informed the government officers of the project during the day, and as soon as the signal was given for the boat, the exiles were secured by the officers, and carried back. The brig immediately sailed for this port, and arrived on the same day that McManus entered the Golden Gate, a free man.

Fatal Duel.

A duel was fought in New Orleans on the 9th instant, between Dr. Thomas Hunt and J. W. Frost, of the Crescent. Frost fell after the first fire, the ball having pierced his heart.

An Idle Rumor.

An idle rumor has been put in circulation, in certain quarters, that Governor Johnston has challenged Col. Bigler to meet him on the stump, and that the Colonel has declined. We are authorized to say that there is not one word of truth in this rumor, and we believe the Governor never entertained such an idea.

Gov. Johnston and the State Debt.

Gov. Johnston's special organ, the American, says the Governor has been an advocate of a reduction of the State debt ever since he has been in office. Will the American explain why it was that the Governor was so anxious to increase the debt one million of dollars last winter, by an issue of that amount of relief notes?—That would have been some little increase in the State debt, if the Governor had effected his object.

SCRIP FOR LIBEL.—Edwin Forrest against Nath'l P. Willis.—Mr. F., as a citizen of Pennsylvania, has entered in the U. S. Circuit Court a suit for libel against Mr. W., the damages laid at $20,000. Mr. W. was served with notice of the suit which he endorsed for his appearance.

PETROLEUM.
I had a severe cold, and was cured by the Petroleum, and gave it to several others with like success; and an old lady who had bruised her shoulder by a fall, and strained the muscles of her arm and shoulder, was cured by rubbing the parts affected. I also had an attack of the Blind Piles and by the application of Petroleum was cured in a short time.
Cincinnati, June 5, '50. J. F. MITCHELL.

SCROFULA.
It has been remarked by eminent men, that in the varied catalogue of diseases to which man is liable, there is scarcely one of such importance and of such interest as Scrofula, whether we look to the obscurity of its origin, its insidious progress, the number and variety of organs that it attacks, or its remarkable incurability and extensive fatality.

Scrofula has baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in this country and in Europe. But there is an antidote for this disease in "Dr. Guyssott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla," which is proving itself a Specific in the most severe cases of Scrofula.

DR. GUYSSOTT'S IMPROVED EXTRACT OF YELLOW DOCK AND SARSAPARILLA, put up in the largest sized bottles, contains more of the pure Honduras Sarsaparilla than any other preparation extant, which is chemically combined with the Extract of Yellow Dock, the Extract of Wild Cherry, and the Balsam of Fir, thus making the remedy more thoroughly efficient than any other Sarsaparilla before the public. At the same time it is perfectly free from all mineral poisons, which cannot be said of any other of the Sarsaparilla compounds. The invalid should beware of poisons! Mercury, Iron, Quinine, Potash, Iodine, Sulphur, Arsenic, and many other mineral and metallic poisons enter into and form the active basis of most of the Sarsaparillas and Panaceas of the day. Guyssott's Compound Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla does not contain a particle of these substances; as any one can ascertain by applying the necessary tests.

These poisons may occasionally remove diseases, but they so vitiate the blood and completely impregnate the whole system with their baneful effects, that the first cold, or the first attack of disease, prostrates the patient's strength, and subjects him or her to the most excruciating torture, and renders another cure almost impossible and hopeless. Let all poisonous Sarsaparilla preparations alone, and use Guyssott's Improved Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla which is thoroughly efficacious, perfectly harmless and purely vegetable. All kind of diseases yield to its genial influences.
Price $1, per bottle or six bottles for $5. To persons purchasing by the dozen, a liberal reduction will be made.
