

CHOICE POETRY.

My Boyhood's Home.

BY ERNEST H. WALTON.

Bring back my boyhood's golden hours,
From the treasury of the past—
Oh, linger night! life's first Spring flowers,
That faded 'fore the blast;
The rocky cliff, the hill and glen,
The joy and laughter free;
I would I were a boy again—
Oh, bring them back to me.

Bring back my early childhood's home—
The altar and the hearth,
The song of praise—devotion's tone—
The lov'd that fled from earth;
The days that flitted by so fast,
—Life's streamlet to its sea—
Which lie deep buried in the Past;
Oh, bring them back to me.

In Fancy's realms, I wander still
By my boyhood's cherish'd home,
And gather flowers by brook or rill,
And over wood-lands roam;
Oh, linger night! though visions dim
And shadows faint ye be;
Tho' filled life's chalice to the brim,
Yet bring them back to me.

My Girlhood's Home.

BY EMILY GERTRUDE MACAULIFF.

Bring back the days, the sunny hours,
Of girlhood's thoughtless glee;
The placid stream, the opening flowers—
Oh, bring them back to me.
The noon-tide walks, the hallowed eve,
The loved, the lost,—that brow
On which love sat like sunset leave—
Oh, bring them back to me now.

Where is my home—my girlhood's home
Of sweetness? Has it fled?
Alas! 'tis gone; the joyous tone
Of its lived cadence dead.
Bring me the happy scenes, which there
Passed like a summer's dream,
The soft'ning tints of memory,
Ere sorrow o'er me came.

Oh! let me dream I see it still,
With bird, and sun and flower,
'Twill serve to soothe a treasured will
In this sad, trying hour.
Home of my youth—farewell, farewell!
Once I did hail your glee:
Painful as is the bosom's swell—
Oh, bring it still to me.

The Place where Man should die.

How little recks it where men lie
When once the moment's past,
In which the dim and glazing eye,
Has looked on earth its last.
Whether beneath the sculptured urn
The coffin form shall rest,
Or, in its nakedness, return
Back to its mother's breast.

Death is a common friend or foe,
As different men may hold,
And at his summons, each must go—
The timid and the bold.
But when the spirit free and warm
Deserts it, as it must—
What matters where the lifeless form
Dissolves again to dust?

Fresh Air.

Man acts strangely. Although a current of fresh air is the life of his lungs, he seems indefatigable in the exercise of his inventive powers to deprive himself of this heavenly blessing.—Thus he carefully closes every cranny of his bed-chamber against its entrance, and he prefers that his lungs should receive the mixed effluvia from his cellar and larder, and form a patent little acquirous, in lieu of it. Why should man be so terrified at the admission of night air into any of his apartments? It is nature's overflowing current, and never carries the destroying angel with it. See how soundly the delicate little wren and tender little robin sleep under its full and immediate influence, and how fresh and vigorous and joyous they rise amid the surrounding dewdrops of the morning. Although exposed all night long to the air of heaven, their lungs are never out of order, and this we know by the daily repetition of their song. Look at the newly-born hare, without any nest to go to. It lives and thrives, and becomes strong and playful under the unmitigated inclemency of the falling dews of the night. I have here a fine male turkey, full eight years old, and he has not passed a single night in shelter. He roosts in a cherry tree, and is always in the prime health year throughout. Three danglehills fowls, preferring this cherry tree to the warm perches in the hen house, took up their airy quarters with him early in October, and have never since gone to any other roosting place. The cow and the horse sleep safely on the cold damp ground, and the roebuck lies down to rest in the heater on the dewy mountain top. I myself can sleep all night long, bareheaded under the full moon's watery beams, without any fear of danger, and pass the day in wet shoes without catching cold. Coughs and colds are generally caught in the transition from an overheated room to a cold apartment; but there would be no danger in this movement if ventilation were attended to.—precaution little thought of now-a-days.—Watson's Essay on Natural History.

WONDER OF WONDERS!
PETROLEUM, OR ROCK OIL.
"There are more things in heaven and earth, Than are dreamt of in philosophy."
The virtues of this remarkable remedy, and the constant application for it, to the proprietor, has induced him to have it put up in bottles, with labels and directions, for the benefit of the public.
The Petroleum or Rock Oil is procured from a well in Allegheny county, at a depth of four hundred feet, is a pure unadulterated article, without any chemical change, but just as it flows from Nature's Great Laboratory! That it contains properties capable of reaching a number of diseases, is no longer a matter of uncertainty. There are many things in the arena of nature, which, if known, might be of vast usefulness in alleviating suffering and restoring the bloom of health and vigor to many a sufferer. Long before the proprietor thought of putting it up in bottles, it had a reputation for the cure of disease. The constantly and daily increasing calls for it, and several remarkable cures it has performed, is a sure indication of its future popularity and wide spread application in the cure of disease.
We do not wish to make a long parade of certificates, as we are conscious that the medicine can soon work its way into the favor of those who suffer and wish to be healed. Whilst we do not claim for it a universal application in every disease, we unhesitatingly say, that in a number of Chronic Diseases it is unrivalled. Among these may be enumerated—all diseases of the mucous tissues, such as Chronic Bronchitis, Consumption (in its early stage), Asthma, and all diseases of the air passages, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Diarrhoea, Diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Pains in the Back or Side, Nervous Diseases, Neuralgia, Palsy, Rheumatic Pains, Gout, Erysipelas, Tetter, Ringworms, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Old Sores, &c., &c. It can be given to any person who desires it.—None genuine without the signature of the proprietor, S. M. KIER, Canal Basin, near 7th st, Pittsburg.

McALISTER'S
ALL-HEALING OINTMENT
Containing no Mercury or other Mineral, For Tumors, Ulcers, and all kinds of Sores, It has no equal. It is impossible to give the public an adequate idea of the great success which has attended the administration of this All-Healing Ointment for the past three years. It is perfectly astonishing to witness the effects and hear the praises bestowed on this medicine. No one could conceive that a single medicine possessed so much virtue, and had power to heal so many diseases. But since it has been known that tens of thousands have been cured, our friends will begin to realize the truth of our remarks in a former advertisement, viz: that there would not be a single family in America, who would live a day without possessing a box of McAlister's All-Healing Ointment, if they but knew its virtues.

DURNS.—It is one of the best things in the world for burns. If Mothers and Nurses knew its value in cases of Swollen or Sore Breasts and Sore Nipples, they would always apply it. In such cases, if used, according to the directions, it gives relief in a very few hours.
PILES.—Thousands are yearly cured by this Ointment. It never fails in giving relief for the Piles. Rheumatism it removes almost immediately, the inflammation and swelling, and the pain ceases.—Read the directions around the box.
Headache.—The salve has cured persons of the headache who had it regularly every week for 12 years, so severe as to cause vomiting.
The following testimonial was given by the celebrated Dr. Wooster Beach, the author of the great Medical work entitled "The American Practice of Medicine and Family Physician."
"Having been made acquainted with the ingredients which compose McAlister's All-Healing Ointment, and having prescribed and tested it in several cases in my private practice, I have no hesitation in saying or certifying that it is a vegetable remedy, containing no mineral substance whatever, that its ingredients, combined as they are, and used as directed by the Proprietor, are not only harmless but of great value, being truly a scientific remedy of great power; and cheerfully recommend it as a compound which has done much good, and which is adapted to the cure of a great variety of cases. Though I have never either recommended or engaged in the sale of secret medicines, regard for the truly honest, conscientious, and humane character of the Proprietor of the Ointment, and the value of his discovery obliges me to say thus much regarding it."
W. BEACH, M. D.
New York April 22d 1846.

Around the box are directions for using McAlister's Ointment for Scorfula, Liver Complaint, Erysipelas, Tetter, Chubbin, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Sore Throat, Nervous Affections, Pains, Headache, Deafness, Ear-ache, Burns, Sore Lips, Pimples, &c. Rheumatism, Piles, Swelled or Broken Breast, Tooth-ache, Ague in the Face, &c. &c.
This Ointment is good for any part of the body or limbs when inflamed. In some cases it should be applied often.

JAMES McALISTER.
Sole proprietor of the above Medicine.
PRICE 25 cents per box. For sale by Lewis & Roberts, Ebensburg; Kern & Gargas, Johnstown; Wm. Houston, Indiana; S. Conifer, Hollidaysburg.
Principal Office No. 28, North Third street, Philadelphia.
WM. TERRY, General Agent.

$50 forfeit—Dr. Hunter will forfeit $50, if failing to cure any case of secret disease that may come under his care, no matter how long standing or affliction. Either Sex are invited to his Private Room, 38 North Seventh street, Philadelphia, without fear of interruption by other patients. Strangers and others who have been unfortunate in the selection of a physician are invited to call. Those who have injured themselves by solitary vice are also invited.
Read and Reflect.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness, and in many cases their lives, in the hands of physicians, ignorant of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family are subject to. Every respectable physician has his peculiar branch, in which he is more successful than his brother professors, and to that he devotes most of his time and study.
Years of Practice, exclusively devoted to the study and treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, together with ulcers upon the body, throat, nose or legs, pains in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, gravel, irregularities, disease arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer Speedy Relief to all who may place themselves under his care.
