That the Whig papers abuse Hon. Ellis Lewis because he was once an apprentice. He is now a nominee of the Democratic party for the Supreme Bench.

That they oppose the election of Hon. James Campbell, of Phila., another candidate of our party for the Supreme Bench...

That they oppose Col. Bigler because his mother once baked ginger-cakes and sold them to make an honest living.

The specimens were presented to the committee, numbered, with the names of the writers thereon, so that there could be no favoritism shown. Mr. Kerr announced Mr. Timothy Brophy, as the lucky gentleman.

The Democracy of Huntingdon county held their Convention on Wednesday, 13th inst., and nominated the following ticket:

The Democracy of Lawrence county held their County Convention on Monday, 4th inst., nominated a County ticket, and expressed their preference for Hon. James Buchanan for the Presidency.

The Bloomer Dress Abroad.

Several ladies at Harrowgate, England, have adopted the Bloomer Costume, and there is so much truth in the following article, taken from the Liverpool Times while alluding to the subject, that its perusal may benefit many of the subscribers of the "Sentinel."

In dress and in manners, mankind are so much the slaves of habit, that we are too often induced to vote as absurd and ridiculous what might appear, on a closer investigation, to be both rational and necessary.

The modesty, so much and so deservedly prized in the female character, causes many absurd anomalies in the habits of the sexes which press heavily on the disposition and even on the health of women.

A rumpling lad, who plays at cricket, and other out-door exercises, inures the system to hardihood, and in developing the physical power which make him a healthy and useful member of society.

Two persons were lodged in Jail on Monday evening, charged with stabbing three men near Johnstown. They were all at work on the Central Railroad at the time.

Mr. Russell, the Daguerrotypist, has done more than the Mexicans could do. He has taken the "Cambria Guards," not by surprise, but with their eyes open, in broad daylight—a daguerrotype of the whole company.

On Tuesday, Sept. 2nd, Messrs. G. C. Quick & Co.'s Menagerie is to exhibit at Ebensburg. Of course there will be a large crowd in town to see the grand entries, the Elephant, Lions, Polar Bear, &c.

Weather.—Thermometer 60°—fires comfortable—Overcoats and heavy clothes in demand—Wet, drizzly, foggy, and unhealthy.

Gov. Johnston Still Neglecting His Duties.

The "travelling Governor," says the Carlisle Volunteer, is still neglecting the duties of his office, which he was sworn to perform, and for which he is paid $8 a day out of the people's Treasury.

It is strange that Gov. Johnston should even for a moment suppose that he can be re-elected. He is, in our opinion, spending a great deal of time, a great deal of the people's money, and subjecting himself to considerable inconvenience.

That Col. Bigler will be elected Governor, and that too by a sweeping majority, we regard as entirely certain. No stratagems, no efforts to blind the people, can prevent it.

Our New York Correspondence. Europe is dull—so say the papers brought by the last steamer from England.

Col. Bigler before the People. Our esteemed candidate for Governor, says the Pennsylvaniaian, has begun a new career in Democratic politics in this State.

Fillis du Regiment, and Robert Le Diable, but also to see the heroines of those pieces portrayed by the Nightingale. However, as Mr. Dick Swiveller remarked to "the Marchioness" when she first tasted London porter: "moderate your transports."

The harmony of the Whig party of this State, and especially of this City, is sadly out of joint. As the time draws near for hunting up some available candidate for the next Presidency, both factions of the Whigs see the necessity of harmony.

Mr. Webster is trusted by neither section of the Whig party. His intellect is admired by both sections—indeed, by the country—but, his moral organization is concealed, by his friends, and even by his nearest relatives, to be far inferior to that of many a person whose head has been shaved at the expense of the State.

But the great difficulty with Mr. Webster is that he has no stability of character. He fails to stick to the atrocities of "the Party," with the usual tenacity of "a good Whig"; not that he has any scruples, but that a better offer from his opponents never fails to secure his services against those whom he has but recently defended.

Joining Jiblets!

The Silver Greys and Woolley Heads of New York—alias Fillmore and Seward Whigs—were kissed and made friends, and are now working together most lovingly in order to retain the spoils. Sewardism is triumphant in the Empire State, and poor Mr. Fillmore will, from henceforth, have to play second fiddle to that prince of demagogues. How are the mighty fallen! But, after all, there is nothing wonderful in all this.

The Tariff. We hope our Whig cotemporaries, who are so rapid on the subject of the High Tariff for Protection, will refer to their own President, pretty good authority we take it, for their inconclusive course. Mr. Fillmore said in his annual message:

A high tariff can never be permanent. It will cause dissatisfaction, and will be changed. It includes competition, and thereby invites the investment of capital in manufactures to such excess that when changed it brings distress, bankruptcy, and ruin upon all who have been misled by its faithless protection.

Be Careful of Diet.

This is the season of the year when disorders of the bowels are particularly prevalent; and the tables of mortality show that these diseases are even more common, this year, than usual. We would caution all persons, therefore, to be cautious in their diet. The eating of unripe fruit is a fertile source of diarrhoea and disease of a similar type.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP BALTIC.

In Nine Days, Thirteen Hours, Forty-five Minutes—The Shortest Passage ever made Across the Atlantic!

The American steamer "BALTIC," Captain Comstock, which arrived at New York on Saturday, made a truly extraordinary trip across the ocean. The time was exactly NINE DAYS, THIRTEEN HOURS AND FORTY-FIVE MINUTES!

The last trip of the Baltic, from New York to Liverpool, was made in 10 days and 45 minutes, being the shortest passage on record, in that direction, except one, which was made by the Pacific.

Liverpool Cotton market first to sixth inclusive—sales 43,000 bales at 3d advance in quotations of first instant; moderate supply offering; market firm; business of the week in grain limited, buyers and sellers awaiting result of the harvest.

Parliament was to be prorogued by the Queen on the 8th.

IRELAND.

The railway from Dublin to Galway is opened. The potato disease is thought to have run out, and an abundant harvest is anticipated. The grain crop is backward and harvest scarcely begun.

Lord John Russell was burnt in effigy at Limerick. Lord Arundel had been elected to Parliament from Limerick.

FRANCE.

Fetes in honor of the Exhibition are going off with great eclat. The recent elections are in favor of the Bonapartists. At the Royal banquet given by the municipality of Paris, 50,000 persons were present.

There was a report that M. Carnot, Representative of Paris would probably be the republican candidate for President. The Orleansians still think of running the Prince de Joinville. The combined Royalist and Bonapartist Committee of Permanence was elected in the Assembly on the 31st.

TURKEY.

The Sultan has promised England and Prussia to release Kossuth on the 1st of September. Austria threatens war.

ROME.

A despatch from Rome, dated 23d ult., stated that Gen. Ganeau, commander-in-chief of the French troops, has, without permission of the Roman Government, seized all the powder in the magazines and had it conveyed to the castle of St. Angelo, where he has Roman cannon pointed on the city. This act has increased the ill feeling which already existed against the French. Several political arrests have taken place at Verona and Venice.
