R. SANDS & CO'S

WALL PRESCRIE AT EBENSBURG. On Tuesday, October 21st, 18

PRICE OF ADMISSION, 25 CENTS. Diars Open at 11 o'clock P. M. Performance commences at 2 and 7 P. M.

This magnificent establishment, whose former ame and reputation throughout the length and breadth of both continents have rendered it the GRAND ATTRACTION where ever it has been cated; consists of the most superb stud of rained horses and ponies ever exhibited, fperformed by artists whose praises are the theme of the whole press and public of Europe and (arica,) and also of a trio of the most necomlished and docile ELEDHANTS that the world has yet seen. The horses and ponies were selected from the ! largest and best collections in Europe expressly for this concern, by Mr. Sands himself, and, although the encomiums which have been bestowed upon them may be considered by some as extraragant, there is no one who has seen them but is willing to acknowledge that their anticipations were more than realized. The character of Mr. Sands & Co's establishment in the western country renders it unnecessary to enlarge upon its merits.

The company will enter town on the forenoon of the day of exhibition in grand procession, preceded by the magnificent East India Car, drawn by the elephants, and containing Captain Adams' BRASS BAND, a musical comyany embracing some of the first talent in America. Following this will be the entire company in calracade, and a train of beautifully decorated rehicles, the rear being brought up by the exquisitely beautiful minature chariot of the fairy Titania, drawn by 20 Lilliputian popies, the whole forming the most imposing and pleasing pageant ever witnessed in the United States.

The partnership heretofore existing between John C. Given, James Myers, and John C. O'-Neill, teading under the firm of John G. Given is this day dissolved by mutual consent— John C. O'Neill retiring. The business will be continued as heretofore by John G. Given and James Myers, under the title of the former firm. The Books, &c., will be left at the old stand for settlement and collection.
