

MOUNTAIN SENTINEL.

ANDREW J. RHEY, EDITOR.

EBENSBURG, PA.

Thursday, October 23, 1851.

THE "SENTINEL" has much the largest circulation of any paper published in this county...

We this week issue our paper upon a half sheet, and hope our subscribers will not complain...

Hon. J. W. Geary, has our thanks for a copy of the "Alta Californian," of Sept. 15th...

The first snow of the season "came down" this morning, whitening the ground and rendering overcoats and furs in active demand...

On last Wednesday, a little girl aged 10 years, whose name we have not learned, was crossing the railroad on the fourteen mile level...

We have omitted to notice that during the October Court, GEORGE REED, Esq., of Johnstown, was admitted to practice law in the several Courts of this county...

The Lancaster Union says that the name of William Mathiot, Esq., has been mentioned in connection with the Secretaryship of State under Governor Bigler...

Graham's Magazine for October and November present an appearance equal if not superior to any of the preceding numbers.

Godey's Lady's Book for October and November are as welcome as bright, brilliant and sparkling gems.

The Bulletin of the American Art Union for October is embellished with an etching on stone of the "Treachery of Maltoresce," a scene in Cooper's "Prairie," and an engraving of a view on the Juniata.

Our esteemed contemporary, Col. S. S. Seely, of the Jersey Shore Republican, has been here for several days, receiving the congratulations of his numerous friends...

On Friday last, in Pittsburgh, Pa., the renowned thief-taker, assisted by officer Kelly, succeeded in capturing Robert Eckhart...

The Legislature Of this State will stand 56 Democrats to 39 Whigs and 5 Native American Whigs. The Senate stands 16 Democrats, 16 Whigs and 1 Native...

OFFICIAL VOTE.

We give below the official vote for Governor and Canal Commissioner as far as received, comprising forty-six counties.

Table with columns for candidates (Bigler, Johnston, Cloer, Strahm) and rows for various counties (Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Bedford, Berks, Blair, Bucks, Cambria, Carbon, Chester, Centre, Clarion, Clinton, Columbia, Cumberland, Dauphin, Erie, Franklin, Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Lancaster, Lawrence, Lebanon, Lehigh, Luzerne, Lycoming, Mercer, Mifflin, Monroe, Montgomery, Montour, Northampton, Northumberland, Perry, Philadelphia city and county, Pike, Schuylkill, Somerset, Susquehanna, Union, Washington, Wayne, Westmoreland, York).

Hon. James Campbell.

The news for the last few days indicate the election to the Supreme Court of Hon. Richard Coulter over the above named gentleman...

Legislative.

The very best evidence of the worth of our victorious candidates for the Legislature, Col. John Keen and William P. Schell, Esq., is the manner in which they were supported at their respective homes.

In McConnellsburg, the home of Schell, he has a majority of 10, whilst Gov. Johnston had a maj. of 7—making a gain of 17! Schell's majority in Fulton is 191 over Linton, and 182 over Barnhart.

Capture.

On Friday last, in Pittsburgh, Pa., the renowned thief-taker, assisted by officer Kelly, succeeded in capturing Robert Eckhart...

President Judge.

Table with columns for candidates (T. P. Campbell, Geo. Taylor) and rows for counties (Cambria, Blair, Huntingdon).

Correspondence of the "Mountain Sentinel."

A. J. RHEY, Esq.—Dear Sir: After a hard fought battle, we, the Democracy, have carried this State—Governor, (BIGLER,) Congress, Legislature, and all...

The honest old Democrats from the West, on the election day, abandoned their "long toms," picks, pans, &c., and gave up one day for the success of the principles of that party...

Here, in San Francisco, we elected one Senator, Hon. J. R. SNYDER, a native of Philadelphia, Pa., for many years a citizen of St. Louis...

Had we the proper number of Democratic representatives in the State, edited and controlled by reliable Democrats, this State is Democratic by ten thousand majority, as it is, and under the difficulties we labour, our success is almost Providential...

The Pacific Star, a sickly fungous eye-sore on the Democratic party here, caved in, the day before the election...

There is no city in this Union where an honest, fearless Democratic editor could do better than in this; and if the right kind of a party paper was established here and properly conducted...

The news from the Mines still continues cheering. Quartz mining now appears to be absorbing more interest than heretofore.

The health of this city and the entire State is much better than last year. A considerable number of emigrants arrived in Sacramento a few days ago, via the Plains.

The following Eastern Banks have recently failed or become doubtful. As bills of these banks are in circulation to a considerable extent in the West, it would be well to preserve this list, as a convenient reference.

At Cincinnati on the 21st of Oct., there was three feet of water in the Ohio river, and a prospect of a rise. At Pittsburgh, same date, four feet of water, and rising. Weather cool.

The Election of Local Judges in Pennsylvania.

For the information in the following we are indebted to the Harrisburg American, and we copy, after making a few alterations:— JUDGES ELECTED.—The Whigs and Natives have carried their entire Judicial ticket in Philadelphia city and county.

Robert J. Fisher, Dem., is elected in the York and Adams district; James H. Graham, Dem., in the Cumberland, Perry and Juniata district...

Commodore Lewis Warrington, of the United States Navy, departed this life at Washington City, on Sunday morning, between 5 and 6 o'clock, in the 69th year of his age...

Johnston pours the vials of Executive wrath, through the Harrisburg American, says the Pennsylvania, upon the heads of such Whigs as Clay, Webster, Fillmore, Cooper, Brooks, &c., and all because he was not elected Governor.

A Paris correspondent of one of the London papers, relates the following rather incredible story:— "A commercial traveller, whose business frequently called him from Orleans to Paris, M. Edmund D—, was accustomed to go to an hotel with the landlord of which he was acquainted.

From the N. Y. Journal of Commerce. Pennsylvania has pronounced her potent voice for the compromise measures. All hail Pennsylvania! She indeed performs the part of Keystones to the Arch of the Union.

What is said Abroad. From the N. Y. Journal of Commerce. Pennsylvania has pronounced her potent voice for the compromise measures. All hail Pennsylvania! She indeed performs the part of Keystones to the Arch of the Union.

A gentleman, whose fortunes were on the wane, got into a way of living a little on his friends. Among the rest he visited an old acquaintance, and stayed six or seven weeks with him, when his company became wearisome.

Later from Northern Mexico. NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 20.—We have dates from Brownsville, Texas, and the Northern part of Mexico to the 16th inst. Caravajal at the head of the revolutionary force, was within ten miles of Matamoras.

BY TELEGRAPH. Later from Northern Mexico. NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 20.—We have dates from Brownsville, Texas, and the Northern part of Mexico to the 16th inst.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The President has appointed Judge Sharkey, of Mississippi, U. S. Consul at Havana, in place of Mr. Owen, recalled. Judge S. was President of the Nashville Southern Convention.

CHARLESTON, S. C. Oct. 20.—We have returns of the election from all but some four or five counties, and the known co-operation majority, so far, is 8,076. Out of 40,340 votes polled in counties from which we have authentic returns the co-operation majority is 7,852.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21.—By the arrival of the steamer Mexico, to-day, from Galveston, we have dates from that city to the morning of the 19th. It is stated that Wild Cat was much dissatisfied, and was moving towards Matamoras. It is supposed he will oppose the revolutionists.

From Our Exchanges.

The statue of an idol in stone, coarsely executed, but supposed to date from the period of the Phenicians or Carthaginians, was found about a fortnight since among the ruins of the town of the old Arzew, in Algeria.

The first newspaper tolerated in Virginia, was in 1780; the subscription price was fifty dollars per annum for one copy; advertisements of moderate length were inserted for ten dollars the first week, and seven dollars for each week succeeding.

A late number of the London Times says that "Great Britain has received more useful ideas and more ingenious inventions from the United States, through the exhibition, than from all other sources!"

The editor of the Louisville Courier says he saw, on Tuesday, a returned Californian, a native of Anderson county, Ky., who has travelled all the way from New Orleans on foot. He landed at New Orleans, to use a common phrase, "flat broke," some six weeks ago, and had to make his journey home on foot.

The Baron de Raman, a negro, the Commercial Minister of the Emperor Faustin, of Hayti, is now travelling upon a special mission, in relation to commerce, through Germany, France and England.

The Commissioners appointed for the purpose, have selected a site for the U. S. Military Asylum, which has been confirmed by the President. The place purchased is situated north of Washington, in the District of Columbia, and was lately owned by John A. Smith, Esq., and contains about 150 acres.

A negro in Boston had a severe attack of rheumatism, which finally settled in his foot. He bathed it, and rubbed it, and swathed it, but all to no purpose.

The man who a few years ago carried a sealed note to the telegraph office with a request that it be transmitted to Washington without opening, seems now to have been only a little ahead of the times.

Russia in the Caucassus.—The stupendous northern power, Russia, doing almost as she pleases in Europe, can make no headway against the sturdy mountaineers of the east.

Tom Moore.—By the latest accounts from England, we regret to hear that the bard of Eris is fast failing. For some time past he has been in a state of all but mental darkness, and it is painful to state that now no hope remains of the "light of other days" being restored.

ALBERT, OR GRINELL.—The new lands discovered on the arctic zone, by the members of the American Exploring Expedition, were naturally named after the munificent originator of that enterprise, Mr. Henry Grinnell.

WORTH KNOWING.—A young lady of this city, says the Philadelphia Argus, while in the country, some years ago, stepped on a rusty nail, which ran through her shoe and foot.
