

ARRIVAL OF THE ASIA.

New York, Jan. 16, 1852. The Cunard steamship Asia, with Liverpool dates to the 31st instant, being one week later arrived at her wharf, at Jersey City, at 6 o'clock this evening.

The proposed loan of £2,000,000 for the Great Western and Canada Company, in six per cent debentures, repayable in 1857, has been completed in London.

ENGLAND. The London Morning Advertiser states that the cause of Lord Palmerston's resignation, was the interference on the part of the Foreign Secretary...

At the cabinet meeting only nine out of fifteen members were present, and Lord John Russell stated that in consequence of some misunderstanding about Foreign Affairs, Lord Palmerston had thought proper to resign.

The Premier it is said wishes to place in the cabinet, in order to propitiate the people of England, liberal and independent men.

On the other hand the News says that it most conclusively indicates the existence of treachery on the part of some of the English cabinet—that a conspiracy would seem to exist between some one in Downing street, and the Court of Vienna, to sacrifice Lord Palmerston, and that apparently a closer alliance may be formed between England and Austria.

On the other hand the London Times states that the very last act of Lord Palmerston was to express his unqualified approbation of Louis Napoleon's coup d'etat.

The London Chronicle states that all sorts of rumors are afloat as to the resignations by members of the Cabinet, and applications of members of the former government to take part in the present; but so far as our information extends, these rumors, one and all, appear to rest on nothing better than guesses and inferences.

The London Herald says, that the friends of Lord Palmerston are very indignant at his abrupt dismissal from office, and various rumors are current as to the results it is likely to produce on the cabinet. It is understood that Lord Palmerston means to bring the whole matter before Parliament, and some persons, who profess to be well informed, assert that, to avoid such an untoward event, Lord John Russell will resign previous to the commencement of the session.

For ourselves, we are of a different opinion; we believe that the ministers will cling to office until the latest possible moment, but it is clear that the days of the Government are numbered.

FRANCE. At the latest date, Paris was perfectly tranquil. The result of the election was as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 8,116,078 For Louis Napoleon, 7,439,216 Against, 640,737

Majority for Napoleon, 6,798,479 Louis Napoleon was inaugurated on the 1st instant. The ceremony passed off without the slightest disturbance.

On Wednesday, M. Baroche addressed a speech to the President, on presenting the result of the votes, to which Napoleon replied as follows:

France has comprehended that I departed from legality to return to the right. Upwards of seven millions of voters have absolved me. My object was to save France, and perhaps Europe, from years of trouble and anarchy.

I understand that with all the grandeur of my mission, I do not deceive myself as to its difficulties; but with the counsel and support of all right minded men, the devotedness of the army, and the protection which I shall, to-morrow, solemnly beseech Heaven to grant me, I hope to secure to the destinies of France, by founding institutions, responding to the Democratic instincts of the nation, and the desire of a strong and respected government to create a system which reconstitutes authority, without wounding a feeling of equality for closing any path of improvement and to lay the foundation of an edifice capable of supporting a wise and beneficial liberty. [Cries of "Viva la Napoleon," followed the speech.]

On the same evening, the diplomatic corps was presented to the President by the Apostolic Nuncio.

The Archbishop of Paris, in his speech to the President, offered his congratulations and God wishes for the success of the high mission God had confided to the President.

The President thanked him in a short speech. The cannon of the Invalides fired a salute of ten guns for every million of votes obtained by the President.

The correspondent of the London Globe says that Louis Napoleon constantly assures persons about him and the diplomatic body that he desires peace, because it is the duty of his position and the only means of re-establishing the finances and placing the trade, agriculture and manufactures of France on a good footing.

It is understood that in order to tranquilize the foreign governments, Louis Napoleon will almost immediately send instructions to all Ambassadors, desiring them to give the Courts the most positive assurance of his desire for the maintenance of peace.

The Tuilleries will henceforth be the official residence of the President.

A grand national fête was celebrated at Paris on the 1st instant.

The fête was also observed in the chief towns of the departments.

The troops marched at 9 o'clock A. M., to take up position along the streets and quays where the cortege passed, the gates of Notre Dame were thrown open at the same hour. The day being passed as a grand national holiday, the Post Office and public offices were closed at noon. The Bourse was also closed.

The French Eagle is re-established on the banner of the Army and on the Cross of the Legion of Honor.

A Provisional Chamber of 15 members has been appointed, pending the new election of members.

M. Persigny has gone to Belgium to demand the extradition of all the insurgents of the 2d of December, and also demanding the immediate payment of the sum which the Belgian Government is indebted to France for the expedition to Antwerp in 1831.

AUSTRIA, PRUSSIA AND RUSSIA. The news from these countries is of a very contradictory character. Whilst a certain satisfaction is discernible among the absolutist parties, it is not unminged with alarm at the ambitious propensities of Louis Napoleon, and the most active military preparations are observable in every quarter.

A great and favorable impression is described to have been caused at Vienna, by the resignation of Lord Palmerston.

Letters from Constantinople express no little alarm about the events which have transpired in France.

An intuitive feeling respecting Egypt has caused deep deliberations in the councils of the Porte.

Persia has become the scene of frightful confusion, by the downfall of Mirza Khan, who has been Prime Minister since 1848. It has been followed by a complete state of anarchy.

The Sultan of Turkey has issued a decree in favor of his Christian subjects, securing to them the freedom of meetings and the registry of their births and marriages.

Five Hundred Persons Destroyed by a Water Spout.

On Saturday, intelligence was received at Lloyd's, under date Malta, Monday, the 8th inst., of a most awful occurrence at the island of Sicily, which had been swept by two enormous water-spouts, accompanied by a terrific hurricane.

These who witnessed the phenomena, described the water-spouts as two immense spherical bodies of water reaching from the clouds, their cones nearly touching the earth, and as far as could be judged, at a quarter of a mile apart, travelling with immense velocity.

They passed over the island near Marsala. In their progress houses were unroofed, trees uprooted, men and women, horses, cattle and sheep were raised up, drawn into their vortex and borne on to destruction; during their passage rain descended in torrents, accompanied with hail-stones of enormous size and masses of ice. Going over Castellamarre, near Stabia, it destroyed half the town, and washed 200 of the inhabitants into the sea, who all perished. Upwards of 500 persons have been destroyed by this terrible visitation and an immense amount of property, the country being laid waste for miles. The shipping in the harbor suffered severely, many vessels being destroyed, and their crews drowned. After the occurrence, numbers of dead human bodies were picked up, all frightfully mutilated and swollen.

The Religion of Paying Debts. One of our religious exchanges has the following strong remarks on this subject. They drive the nail into the head and clinch it.

"Men may sophisticate as they please, but they can never make it right, and all the bankrupt laws in the universe cannot make it right, for they do not pay their debts. There is a sin in this neglect as clear and as deserving church discipline as stealing or false swearing. He who violates his promise to pay, or withholds the payments of a debt when it is in his power to meet his engagement, ought to be made to feel that in the sight of all honest men he is a swindler. Religion may be a very comfortable cloak under which to hide, but if religion does not make a man 'deal justly,' it is not worth having."

Cholera Morbus.

READ THE FOLLOWING EXTRAORDINARY CURE. I hereby certify that about two weeks ago I was seized with a violent attack of Vomiting and Purging, (Cholera Morbus), with very distressing pains in the stomach and bowels, which was completely removed by two tea-spoonful doses of the Petroleum, taken in a little water. After having taken the first dose, I slept soundly and comfortably for three hours.

Signed HENRY WISE, JR., On board Steamboat Ariadne, PITTSBURG, December 12, 1849.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY imparts new vigor to vital action, and relieves the system by opening the pores of the skin, and promoting the secretion of mucous matter. Its action is soothing, sedative and expectorant, by opening the pores, allaying irritation, and by rendering the expulsion of mucous matter easy.

Those who take the Balsam will feel immediate relief from the distressing irritations that accompany affections of the respiratory organs. The pores have been closed, the Balsam opens them. The Lungs suffer from irritation, the irritation is soothed; the pulse is violent and feverish, they are softened, and the mucous membrane is relieved of its engorgement with rapidity and ease. All by the use of this delightful remedy. See advertisement in another column.

WISTAR'S

BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY,

THE BEST REMEDY EVER KNOWN To man for Coughs, Asthma, Cold Croup, Bronchitis, Influenza, Bleeding of the Lungs, Difficulty of Breathing, Liver Affections, Pain or weakness of the Breast or Side, Fast stages of Consumption, &c. In short this Balsam is peculiarly adapted to every disease of the Lungs and Liver, which is produced in our ever-varying climate.

WILD CHERRY has long been known to possess important medicinal properties. This fact is familiar to every man in our land, and physicians often prescribe it in different forms for a variety of complaints. Tar, also, has been equally noted for its virtues; and some physicians, whose names are familiar to the whole country, have gone so far as to declare that even CONSUMPTION could be cured by that alone. In other hands, again, it was nearly valueless, owing, no doubt, to their ignorance in its preparation and administering it—a difficulty now entirely obviated by patient experiment and long experience.

The extraordinary medicinal powers of these two substances are now, for the first time combined and embodied in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. By a nice chemical process, everything deleterious or useless is rejected, so that what remains is the most extraordinary and truly efficacious remedy for all kinds of pulmonary and liver diseases ever known to man. To convince all unbelievers that our theory is really true, we refer to a few cases of cures performed by this wonderful medicine:

ANOTHER ASTONISHING CURE! E. Kahl,
