The canal was opened on Friday morning last and in the course of the day twelve boats heavily laden with produce and coal started for the east. Everything about the basin wears a cheering aspect—business is brisk, and the old familiar sounds of the boat horn and locomotive whistle are welcomed back with a rush.

Hall. Standard.

The U. S. Senate, after a good deal of discussion, passed a resolution, directing the payment of Kossuth's Hotel bill, whilst here; out of the contingent fund. The bill amounts to $4,500 for thirteen days board and lodging of the great Magyar. This is at the rate of about one hundred and twenty thousand dollars a year. The President "de facto" of the United States receives, for all his expenses, $25,000 a year. The Governor "de jure" of Hungary, as his admirers express it, requires $120,000 a year for board and lodging alone.—Washington paper.

The St. Louis papers have Santa Fe advices to the 21st of January. Great excitement exists in consequence of the discovery of rich gold diggings in the Gila country. The diggings are said to be very rich. Beyond this there is no news of importance. There are the usual recitals of murders and robberies by the Indians.

In the Ohio Legislature resolutions to refer the Maine Liquor Law to a vote of the people, was indefinitely postponed—yeas 44, nays 88.

Notice has been given of a bill to prevent the further settlement of colored people within the State.

Song.

AIR—QUICK STEP.

I digs, I hoes,
I ploughs, I mows,
I gets up wood for winter;
I reaps, I sows,
I taters grows,
And for all I knows,
I'm 'debted to the printer.

I do suppose,
All knowledge flows,
Right from the printing press;
So off I goes
In these 'ere clo's,
And settle up—I guess.

O'Connel's Last Appearance in the House of Commons.

D'Israeli describes this scene in the "Life of Lord George Bentwick:"

"He sat in his usual place—in that generally occupied by the leader of the opposition, and spoke from the red box, convenient to him from the number of documents to which he had to refer. His appearance was of great debility and his voice was very still. His words indeed only reached those who were immediately around him, and the listeners sitting on the other side of the green table, and listening with that interest and respectful attention which becomes the occasion. It was a strange and a touching spectacle to those who remembered the form of colossal energy, and the clear and thrilling tone that had once disturbed and controlled senates Mr. O'Connel was on his legs for nearly two hours, assisted occasionally in the management of his documents by a faithful aid-de-camp. To the house generally it was a performance of dumb show, a feeble old man muttering before a table; but respect for the great parliamentary personage kept all as orderly as if the fortunes of a party hung upon his rhetoric; and although not an accent reached the gallery, means were taken the next morning that the country should not lose the last, and not the least interesting speeches of one who had so long occupied and agitated the mind of nations.

Hear Him! Hear Him!

The Rev. Mr. Brownlow, editor of the Knoxville, (Tenn.) Whig, says, with Scott as their candidate, they will be beaten 5,000 votes in Tennessee, and that "Scott has personal vanity enough to damn successive administrations, and with it, very poor civil qualifications, and by no means a very high order of talents. He has been an incubus on the Whig party for many years, and defeated Mr. Clay's nomination in 1848," And again he says, speaking of Gen. Scott as a civilian:

"I am an humble member of the party, and will support, in good faith, either Fillmore or Webster, but I will never support Scott, directly or indirectly, though he may receive the endorsement of all the Whig Conventions between Hell and Heaven, and between this and November next.

New Counterfeit.

We are indebted to A, Wilkins & Co., says the Pitts. Post for the following information which no doubt will prove highly important to our business men:

We would call the attention of your readers to a new Counterfeit on the Farmers' and Drovers Bank of Waynesburgh, of the denomination of $5, one of which was presented at our counter this afternoon. The Vignette is composed of a drove of cattle in the foreground, and a ploughman and reapers in the distance; the head of Washington on the left and a female with a sheaf of wheat on the right end of the bill—J. Lazear, Cashier, and Jesse Hook, President.

The bill is a pretty fair lithographic likeness of the genuine, but may easily be detected by close scrutiny.

Potatoes.

The following letter from a Vermont farmer, addressed to Governor Bigler, makes some suggestions in regard to the cultivation of potatoes, that may be worthy of a trial. We had before heard of the advantage of covering potatoes with leaves, but never made the experiment:

To the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania:

I, Abner Lewis, of Poultney county, of Rutland, and State of Vermont, think I have found out a new way of raising potatoes, to keep them from rotting or rusting, of a much better quality and abundant crop. Plow and harrow the ground, and furrow lightly; plant early; drop the potatoe in the furrow, and put on each hill a handfull of leaves; then cover lightly with dirt; hoe them quite small; then plaster; and they will soon be fit for hilling.

Please try the above to your full satisfaction, and publish the same throughout the State. If the above proves a real public benefit, the State will please reward the undersigned whatever they see fit.

Yours Respectfully,
ABNER LEWIS.

Free Soil National Convention, &c.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The National Free Soil Convention to nominate a candidate for President and Vice President, is to be called in a few days, to assemble at Pittsburg, about the Fourth of July. John P. Hale, Charles Francis Adams, and John A. Dix, are spoken of as candidates for President. Mr. Hale at present seems most likely to get the nomination. For Vice President, Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky, and Lewis, of Ohio, have been mentioned. The Buffalo Platform will be adopted as the basis of the movement.

The design which had been entertained up to yesterday, to insert the word "white" as an amendment to the bill making the Public Lands free to actual settlers, has been abandoned. It may spring up again in a new quarter.

The news of the result of the Webster meeting in New York, received here to-day—by a singular coincidence the very anniversary of Mr. Webster's great seventh of March speech—has produced considerable sensation.

Hon. Mr. Perkins, Representative from New Hampshire, preached in the Congregational Church to-day.

The statement of last evening's Washington Telegraph, that Mr. Clay expects soon to address the Senate, is totally false. He is utterly unable to do it, and has no such expectation. His health has but slightly improved.—New York Tribune.

Cholera Morbus.

READ THE FOLLOWING EXTRAORDINARY CURE.

I hereby certify that about two weeks ago I was seized with a violent attack of Vomiting and Purging, (Cholera Morbus,) with very distressing pains in the stomach and bowels, which was completely removed by two tea-spoonfu doses of the Petroleum, taken in a little water. After having taken the first dose, I slept soundly and comfortably for three hours.

☞ WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY imparts new vigor to vital action, and relieves the system by opening the pores of the skin, and promoting the secretion of mucous matter. Its action is sudorific, sedative and expectorant, by opening the pores, allaying irritation, and by rendering the expulsion of mucous matter easy.

Those who take the Balsam will feel immediate relief from the distressing irritations that accompany affections of the respiratory organs. The pores have been closed, the Balsam opens them. The Lungs suffer from irritation, the irritation is soothed; the pulse is violent and feverish, they are softened, and the mucous membrane is relieved of its engorgement with rapidity and ease. All by the use of this delightful remedy. See advertisement in another column.

MARRIED:

On Sunday, 14th inst., at Strongstown by Rev. Kirkpatrick, Mr. THOMAS BROWN, of Ebensburg, and Miss SUSANNA MOLVEHILL of Strongstown.

DIED.

March 12th, 1852, SARAH ANN, infant daughter of Michael C. and Harriet McCague.

As vernal flowers that scent the morn
But wither in the rising day,
Thus lovely was this infants dawn—
Thus swiftly fled her life away.

At New Castle, Pa., on Sunday morning, 7th inst., Mrs. ARABELLA M. CAREY, wife of Maj. W. F. Carey.

Had it not been for a kind friend we might have remained in ignorance of the sad fact which the above notice conveys. The deceased we knew for years as a lady, whose goodness of heart, agreeableness of manner, gentle, kind and amiable disposition, in connection with her frank, and sincere style of conversation, instinctively endeared her to a numerous circle of acquaintances. She is taken from a world of troubles to a world of never ending bliss. In the spring-time of life, her earthly union with a fond, devoted husband has terminated—may a happy re-union occur in that land where sorrow is a stranger and ills unknown.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

We have come to the determination to sell goods at cash prices, without putting on any extra profit as an offset for bad debts. Any person dealing with us on credit, will receive a pass-book, except when we have a different understanding, and will expect all accounts to be settled by payment or note at the end of six months, and these terms will be rigidly adhered to. By doing business in this manner, we hope to sell more goods, and at cheaper rates. To those who purchase for cash we will always make a difference of six per cent., except flour and bacon, which must always be nett cash, without credit to any one.

JOHN IVORY & SON.
Summit, November 20, 1851.

This is not Infum!

We want money, particularly that which has been due for some time. Will those indebted to us please call and settle their accounts during this month and pay us all they can. Our books must be settled, and until they are, we must positively refuse to add any thing more to long standing accounts. Experience proves that in doing a credit business, if you leave accounts run over six months or a year, that there is difficulty in settling.

The books of the former firms of J. Ivory and J. Ivory & Co., will be left in the hands of an officer for collection by the 1st April, if those indebted do not call and pay their accounts by that time.

Summit, March 11, 1852.—tf.

Commission and Forwarding.

After the 16th inst., we will be obliged to pay Penna. Railroad Co. freights upon the delivery of merchandise; therefore, persons receiving goods by that line will pay us the freight before the goods are taken away. The same rule will be observed with canal freight when we have to pay on delivery. Bills lading should always be furnished us to avoid losses of packages. Hereafter we will charge the following commissions: 3½ cents per 100 lbs., on all goods left in our care on side track; 5 cents per 100 lbs. when we handle or store goods, or check them off and receipt for them. Goods remaining in warehouse over ten days will pay extra storage. On all freight not paid when goods are taken away, we will charge three per cent. for collecting.

All outstanding amounts due us as freights we would like to have paid immediately.

Balsam of Wild Cherry

WISTAR'S
BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.
THE BEST REMEDY EVER KNOWN

To man for Coughs, Asthma, Colds Croup, Bronchitis, Influenza, Bleeding of the Lungs, Difficulty of Breathing, Liver Affections, Pain or weakness of the Breast or Side, First stages of Consumption, &c. In short this Balsam is peculiarly adapted to every disease of the Lungs and Liver, which is produced in our ever-varying climate.

WILD CHERRY has long been known to possess important medicinal properties. This fact is familiar to every matron in our land, and physicians often prescribe it in different forms for a variety of complaints. Tar, also, has been equally noted for its virtues; and some physicians, whose names are familiar to the whole country, have gone so far as to declare that even CONSUMPTION could be cured by that alone. In other hands, again, it was nearly valueless, owing, no doubt, to their ignorance in preparing and administering it—a difficulty now entirely obviated by patient experiment and long experience.

The extraordinary medicinal powers of these two substances are now, for the first time combined and embodied in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. By a nice chemical process, everything deleterious or useless is rejected, so that what remains is the most extraordinary and truly efficacious remedy for all kinds of pulmonary and liver diseases ever known to man. To convince all unbelievers that our theory is really true, we refer to a few cases of cures performed by this wonderful medicine:

ANOTHER ASTONISHING CURE!

E. Kalb, a highly respectable merchant of Rushville, Fairfield county, Ohio, sent us the following voluntary tribute to

"DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY."

Rushville, Fairfield co., O, April 6, 1851.

Mr. J. D. Park—Dear Sir:—I wish to state to you that my daughter, Amanda, aged sixteen years, had, about a year since, a very severe attack of measles, which reduced her very much, and left her with a racking cough. I employed all of the physicians within our reach for the purpose of removing her cough, but without success. She appeared to be sinking into a decline, with every symptom of consumption.

I then tried Dr. "Rogers' Liverwort and Tar." But this aggravated her cough, and gave her symtoms of a still more malignant character. I was now most seriously alarmed, and it was with trembling fear that I from day to day, saw the progress of that insatiable disease, consumption. I really despaired of my daughter's recovery. But I providentially saw the certificate of Jonathan Coulson, whose daughter, "Sarah Jane," was cured of consumption by "Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry;" this created a faint hope that it might help my daughter, and I immediately commenced using it; and it almost instantly gave relief, her health was improved from the first bottle, and by the use of two bottles of "Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry," she was restored to perfect health, and she is not now at all predisposed to a cough.

I will say to all that are afflicted with any disease tending to consumption, do not despair, for Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure you, if you will but try it. E. KALB.

The genuine Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry has the fac simile of the signature of Henry Wistar, M. D. Philadelphia, and "Sanford & Park" on a finely executed steel engraved wrapper. No other can be genuine.

☞ Price $1 per bottle—six bottles for $5. Sold by J. D. PARK, Cin., Ohio, North-east cor., of Fourth and Walnut sts.—entrance on Walnut—to whom all orders must be addressed.
