Terrible Steamboat Accident--Great Loss of Life.

MADISON, Indiana, April 3.—This afternoon, about half-past 2 o'clock, as the steamboat 'Redstone,' Capt. Tate, hence for Cincinnati, with about 70 persons on board, including crew, was backing out from Scott's Landing, about three miles above Carrollton, her boilers burst with tremendous force, instantly killing a large portion of those on board, and dreadfully scalding and mangling most of the rest. The boat being completely shattered, immediately sunk, in deep water, and many of the passengers, who might otherwise have been saved, were drowned. Of the crew, only the captain and clerk were saved and the former was so severely injured that it is thought he cannot recover. The boat having sunk, it was with difficulty that the bodies of those on board could be recovered. Up to 7 o'clock this evening, fifteen dead bodies were recovered, most of them so horribly mutiliated as to baffle all attempts at identification. The names of the unfortunate have been ascertained.

Fire at Chilicothe--Further Particulars.

CINCINNATI, April 3.—By the mail, we have just received Chilicothe papers, containing full particulars of the disastrous fire that occurred at that place on Thursday last. "Adams' Block," including the Clinton House, and the adjacent extensive ware houses, were burnt to the ground.

In a few hours the entire portion of the city east of High and north of Second street, was a mass of smouldering ruins. Included in the destruction, addition to the block above mentioned, was the "Ross Block," the extensive row of elegant and spacious stores between that and the Canal, the Madison House, business houses, &c. Of the wholesale establishment on Water street, east of Walnut street, every store to Mulberry street was destroyed. Also, many stores as far east as Bridge street.

The merchants had just received their spring goods, and their stock was very large and valuable.

The Post-Office, the printing-office of the Advertiser, and the lines of Telegraph passing this section of the city were also destroyed. The books and letters were removed from the Post-office in safety. The loss is large.

☞ MRS. SUSANNA RITNER, wife of ex-Governor Joseph Ritner, died at the residence of her husband, in West Pennsborough township, Cumberland county, on the evening of Feb. 22d, in the 51st year of her married life, and the 70th year of her age. She was the daughter of Jacob Alter, Esq., for several years a member of the State Legislature, during the session of that body in Lancaster; and the grand-daughter of Henry Landis, one of the first settlers and Mennonist ministers in the county of Lancaster.

Cholera Morbus.

READ THE FOLLOWING EXTRAORDINARY CURE.

I hereby certify that about two weeks ago I was seized with a violent attack of Vomiting and Purging, (Cholera Morbus,) with very distressing pains in the stomach and bowels, which was completely removed by two tea-spoonfu doses of the Petroleum, taken in a little water. After having taken the first dose, I slept soundly and comfortably for three hours.

☞ WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY imparts new vigor to vital action, and relieves the system by opening the pores of the skin, and promoting the secretion of mucous matter. Its action is sudorific, sedative and expectorant, by opening the pores, allaying irritation, and by rendering the expulsion of mucous matter easy.

Those who take the Balsam will feel immediate relief from the distressing irritations that accompany affections of the respiratory organs. The pores have been closed, the Balsam opens them, The Lungs suffer from irritation, the irritation is soothed; the pulse is violent and feverish, they are softened, and the mucous membrane is relieved of its engorgement with rapidity and ease. All by the use of this delightful remedy.

DIED.

On Wednesday evening, March 23, very suddenly, at his residence, in Blairsville, Indiana county, DANIEL H. BARR, Esq., aged about 60 years.

The deceased was father of James P. Barr, one of the proprietors of this paper.

Mr. Barr was a gentleman well known throughout Western Pennsylvania, where he was long a resident, and was universally and deservedly esteemed by all who knew him. He was a man of strong mind, and high practical intelligence, and during a long, active and busy life, displayed in all his relations with his fellow men that pure moral honesty of character and polished natural courtesy of demeanor, which ever mark the Christian gentleman. In his social relations he was kind and affable to all, while in the circle of his more intimate acquaintances, he was beloved by both young and old, as an agreeable companion and pleasant and valued friend. Possessing as he did, for a man of his years, an unusually exuberant flow of animal spirits, his presence always gave new life to the social circle, and from the same cause he was enabled to pursue to the very last, the avocations of business life, with almost youthful ardor.

His death was sudden and unexpected. After a day devoted to business, he came at even ing to his dwelling, complaining of no unusual illness, called for and drank a glass of water, and died without a struggle. A disease of the heart was the cause of his death.

His sudden demise has left a widow and ten children without a parent and protector, and the majority of the latter were entirely dependent upon him.

In the last war with Great Britain, Mr. Barr served as a soldier, under General Pike; during 1840 he was Deputy U. S. Marshal for taking the census; he was for some time Postmaster at Blairsville, and more recently held the office of Collector of Tolls upon the State Works at Blairsville, which post has been left vacant by his death.

His life throughout was an active and useful one, and his large circle of friends and acquaintances in this city and elsewhere, will deeply sympathize with his bereaved and stricken family, at the announcement of his sudden and lamented death.—Pittsburg Chronicle.

I have been suffering and under the hands of physicians for these last four years and had lost already all hopes, for my evil was generally pronounced an affection of the lungs or consumption. At last I was advised to consult the German physician of Carrolltown. He after a careful examination, declared I had an aposteme in the region of the lungs, outwardly not to be perceived, and if I would submit to an operation he hoped he could cure me. After I had agreed he made a large incision in my chest, out of which at least two quarts of a brownish matter of a very disagreeable smell were discharged. After some applications, and the use of some medicine I was in the course of two weeks restored to my full health. Four weeks afterwards my sister was attacked by a severe nervous fever and every one despaired of her life, but the same physician, Joseph Eberstaller, of Carrolltown, restored her to complete health. Both of us therefore owe this gentleman, next to God, life and health, and this is written to give him publicly a testimonial of our gratitude.

THE
Great British Quarterlies
AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.
Important Reduction in the rates of Postage!
LEONARD SCOTT & CO.,
NO. 54 GOLD STREET., NEW YORK,

Continue to publish the following British Periodicals, viz:
THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conservative),
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig),
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church)
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal),
AND
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory.)

These Reprints have now been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class and from numerous Eclectics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Mess. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.
