mitain

"WE GO WHERE DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES POINT THE WAY ; --- WHEN THEY CEASE TO LEAD, WE CEASE TO FOLLOW."

VOLUME VIII.

EBENSBURG, THURSDAY, APRIL 29, 1852.

TERMS.

The "MOUNTAIN SENTINEL" is publishwithin three months; after three months Two Dollars will be charged.

No subscription will be taken for a shorter period than six months; and no paper will be failure to notify a discontinuance at the expiration of the term subscribed for, will be considered as a new engagement.

M. ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted the first insertion; 75 cents for two insertions; $1 for three insertions; and 25 cents per square for every subsequent insertion. A liberal reduc-All advertisements handed in must have the tion. proper number of insertions marked thereon. r they will be published until forbidden, and charged in accordance with the above terms.

man. All letters and commu A. J. RHEY. attention must be post paid

OREGON.

Hon. Anson Dart, Superintendent of Indian Af fairs for Oregon, has written the following letter, descriptive of things in that country.

"Oregon, spoken of as a whole, is an open prairie country, without timber. Still, all that part of it lying west of the Cascade mountains is perhaps three-fourths of it covered thickly with timber, growing very tall and straight; it is mostly a species of fir. There is much white cedar; some yellow pine. The soil is very good for wheat and other grains-corn excepted-as well as for fruit of every kind that will grow in a northern climate. The prospects for the farmers in Oregon are better than in any other portion of country with which I am acquainted. In short, labor of every kind commands high pricas. There are nevertheless, many that are idle speculators and gamblers. Talented lawyers, however, are doing well. The mercantile business is everywhere everdone-large quantities of goods sold at auction in San Francisco, cargoes of goods are sent there by eastern shipcountry, then, and not till then, will a healthy state of things exist, connected with merchan-

"The lumber business is of immense value to Oregon. Say to your friend from Maine that persons, well acquainted with saw-mills, who are willing to work, will all do well there. The water power of Oregon is immense-it is greater, I think, than that of any State in the Union. On the large streams, however, it is very expenfall in those streams, in the rainy and dry seafourishing mills, although there are one or two of flour and potatoes are sent to California from Oregon, as well as immense numbers of hogs and poultry ; besides butter and eggs are items their exports. The climate of Oregon is more mild than any other party of the United States, a the same latitude. There was no snow or freeing weather last Winter. The grass was green Winter, and cattle were in better condition bousands of horses are raised in upper Oregon, takes about five months to go by land, and about out slackening their speed. forty days by steamers; first cabin passage

Mr. Buchanan.

The prospects of Mr. Buchanan (remarks the Pennsylvanian,) are daily becoming brighter and brighter; we receive the most cheering accounts from our friends from all sections of the country. A friend at the South writes, us, if the Baltimore Convention nominates James Buchanan, of Cure for Lowness of Spirits.

Take one ounce of spirits of resolution, 'an equal proportion of the oil of good conscience; er's woes, which grow extensively in the garden | at last, and can travel no longer. of life. Gather also a handful of the blossoms

Life in the Wilderness.

Not far in rear of our bivounc is a small lodge, ed every Thursday morning, at One Dollar and apparently of Chippewas, from the North shore. Fifty Cents per annum, if paid in advance or | The Madeline or Apostle Islands are in front, -on the right, far to the Southeast, and beyond the bay of Chegorinegan, rise the mountains following rates: -50 cents per square for light of day, but only a lingering twilight, which race, in high latitudes and under clear skies, illumiion made to those who advertise by the year. ness has become general in every other direc- and make her his wife.

> lodge, where the voices of children are heard. and sex .- Baston Journal. She moves like a person conscious of strength; and what through labor and many fedious marthes have distorted her limbs, there is still viger in that frame. Her face, broad and haggard as it appears, is not altogether savage. Her tangled hair, hanging wildly about her shoulders, parting occasionally, discloses a head, round, full and large, not square, angular, and distorted "as with many"—in truth, with most of her

Let us peep into that lodge. We pull aside the blanket which attaches to the door, andsuch is the Indian etiquette-it causes no surin the towns, such as doctors, lawyers, clerks, prise. Those children evidently have white by my command to hear to you my greeting and blood in their veins. Indeed, there sits a short and sleuder man, beside whom the squaw towers up like the father above his son. "Bon soh-Entrez messieurs"-we entered. A Canadian ifornia, are daily shipped to Oregon, and there | Frenchman is never at a loss for words. Bouchsold for less, in many cases, than the same could care the lowest variable. The lowest variables and that from these countries him, further increased his terror and his pace. be bought for in New York. Besides this, large from Canada, and French—the lowest voyageur, which are rich in gold and silver and precious who serves the Fur company in the capacity of pers, and sold at ruinova looses tot the partors, pervant laborer, and soldier for $100 to $150 As soon as the merchants of Oregon are permit- a year-who endures the fatigue of incessant ted to order the goods that are wanted in the travel and the exposure of rigorous seasons, snows, rains, and winds, from extreme youth to extreme age, never forgets to be in good humor to strangers and polite to everybody. Strange beings! hunger and toil, either of which render most men merese and mutinous, do not disturb the equanmity of the voyageur.

his load of 95 pounds across the Portage from any law of your Empire. pose to pose ; rain or sunshine, it is all the same | "Our object is friendly commercial intercourse, sons. The present number of saw-mills in Or- vigor and life, miniery, spirits, and music. But productions which might suit your people, egon is about a hundred. There are no first-rate | why did the stunted Bouchette take to wife the with such a woman. A "trader" in the North- to purchase it. west is an agent or cierk of a low grade who is sent out from the stations or posts to collect furs from the Indian villages, in the gradation of service, he is next to the last or lowest. Bouchette in the Spring than in the fall before; and this, was engaged in his lonely employment in the too, without food, except grass. Hundreds of winter of 183-, in the vicinity of Lac la Pluis. He was moving in a company of the Gens des Bois, a vicious, heartless, and cruel tride. As tail, only to say that the cost of going to Oregon rice became exhausted; and yet the journey s considerable, either in time or money. It must be pursued without delay, yes, even with-

Hard life! How few people of the States recosts about five nundred dollars; steorage about | alize the pains that are endured every year in three hundred. The mail-steamers go once in these far of regions of trade! How few of them nor his nose may be froze, to his slumbers in was one of the best ways to make time pass, and she be " What can she have wanted here?two weeks from San Francisco to Oregon and are impressed with the idea that the life of the Indian is a continued struggle with famine !parts of the North-west, especially before you ally does, to procure a regular and sufficient supply-not more than he can do, but more than he actually does. His confidence in the Great Spirit is unbounded-his capacity to resist hunger is astonishing. So it is with the Frenchman bred Pennsylvania, the Democratic hosts, in the ap- to Indian life; but in the trial between the preaching contest, will march on to certain vic- French and the Indian muscle on an empty stomach, the Frenchman lags behind. So it was here; and Bouchette was weary and faint. He could not march with the iron-strang Gens des viduals, who believe in the "total depravity" of Bois. Hunger, it is said, produces delirium as infuse into these a table-spoonful of the salts of well as weakness. The Indians sustain him, He should never marry, unless to afflict poster, Patience, and add thereto a few sprigs of oth- and carry him forward a long time ; but he falls

They resolve to abandon him. It is many of hope; sweeten these with the balm of Provi- miles to the post, and the snow is deep. He is dence, and, if possible, procure a few drops of left, and the clan pass on. It may be like bur-

capital use. Here the enormous size and strength | ed the actor down.

of this Indian woman saved the life of a human being.

and brought it to the fort alive. Her care did not | in a Paris ball room : rising out of the clear depths of Lake Superior | end here. The usual fever that follows exposure and extreme suffering from frost, attacked Bouchette with rigor. No mother or wife would

Whether it was a mere fancy, excited by the What can be more repulsive than the coarse story of her acts; or that, in fact, the rugged features of that tall squaw, sitting upon her and almost deformed physiognomy of this wohaunches watching the kettle and white-fish man still exhibited traces of the kindness that up, throwing a bolder light and blacker shade ette, that her eye had a more gentle expression.

The Japan Expedition.

Sundry documents relating to the Japanese Expedition were sent in to the Senate, by the President, on Monday. The following is an interesting extract from the letter of President Fillmore, to the Emperor of Japan: its tone does not sustain the belligerent reports which journals claiming to be in the confidence of the Executive, have circulated concerning the objects of the Expedition:

"I send you by this letter an envoy of my own appointment, an officer of high rank in his country who is no missionary of religion. He goes good wishes, and to promote friendship and commerco between the two countries.

"You know that the United States of America tries of Oregon and California are parts of the stones, our steamers can reach the shows of your happy land in less than twenty days.

"Many of our ships will now pass in every year, and some perhaps in every week between California and China, these ships must pass along the coast of your Empire; storms and winds may cause them to be wrecked on your shores, and we ask and expect from your friendship and your greatness, kindness for our men and protection for our property. We wish that He sings as load on short allowance as on a our people may be permitted to trade with your and to music of his own composition and per- best known to myself, shall be nameless. One tive in using it on account of the great rise and to him. At break of day he springs from his and nothing more. You may have productions bed of boughs, throws aside his blanket, full of which we should be glad to buy, and we have female portion of the crowd in particular press-

> "Your Empire-contains a great abundance of won the confidence of the trader in the evening should be appointed to which coal might be and ventured to inquire why he should mate brought, and where they might always be able

A Bachelor's Woes.

What a pitiful thing an old bachelor is, and Pagnini for a space broke up a ball." his rueful phiz, on a bitter cold night, when the fierce winds blow, when the earth is covered with a foot of snow. When his fire is out, and in shivering dread, he slips neath the sheets of My time will not allow me to go into further de they journeyed on through the snow their wild encased in yarn hose, and he buries his nose chusetts, whom he had not seen for years. Now permitted no striking display of agility. Here the cock crows, and the sun has just rose, from | But on the morning after his arrival, the old | been a believer in ghosts, I should probably have He has nothing to live for but food. In most beneath the bed clothes pops the bachelor's nose man and his sons being out at work, his aunt gone down to the grave with the conviction indeas you may suppose, when he hears how the came to him, and saidreach the Buffalo region, it is more than he usu- wind blows, and sees the windows all frozen, why back neath the clothes pops the poor felbed he rose, to put on his clothes, that he'd keep some here for medical purposes, but let no surely be frose .- From one who "knows,"

[In such a condition of "things," who wouldn't take a wife, if he could get one? But the above picture pertains only to those bloodless, cheerless, complaining, fault-finding, medicine-taking tobacco-chewing, tea and coffee-drinking indimankind in general and of women in particular.

BOT LOLA BRHIND THE SCENES.—The Beston

Atlas has the following paragraph: A game of fistcuffs was played at the Howard genuine friendship, but be careful of counter- lesque to compare that ugly woman's face, with Atheneum on Saturday last, as we have been infeits in the ingredients of self-interest, which a nose monstrous in size beyond all example, formed. A certain actor entered the property to where the boys were mauling rails. After grow spontaneously—the least admixture of it hat irregular countenance, shapeless and broken man's room, and went to work putting out the conversing awhile, one of his cousins saidwith the above would spoil the composition. as it is, to an angel's; but the overgrown squaw lights. He was requested to desist by a boy Reduce the whole to an electuary by a proper | with the heart of an angel of life and mercy, who was in the room, as the lights were wanted and, as the old folks are down on liquor, we keep | Proportion of content, flavor with the essence on turned back to the side of the forsaken traveler. which request he did not see fit to pay attention some out here to help us on with our work." good judgment, and regulate the quantity taken | She gave him some kernels of rice; but this did | to. This produced a scrimmage, in which the

A Donkey in a Hall Room. Mr. Kendall, writing from Paris to the New

evenings since at the Casino Paganni, a large good things which justifyla re-publication. The tance; arranges the business of the day with bull room located at the head of a passage lead- scene is laid at Cape May, a famous watering his aids and orderlies. Sees his physician at 9 scontinued vatil all arrearages are paid. A that overlook the Montreal river. Near the have shown more watchfulness than did this ing out of the Chaussee d'antin, and which is place near Philadelphia; ledge is a small fire, and a kettle is suspended misshappen northern girl to a man almost a much frequented this season by a mixed and "Talking of peculiar situations, gentlemen," over it from a stake stuck in the ground, ob- stranger, and no more related by blood or obli- most miscellaneous crewd. The orchestra had sain Mr. Tatem, "I was once in a singular fix English; gives special audiences from 10 to 11; liquely across the fire. There is no longer the gation than any other member of the human just struck up the Galop du Chemin de Fer, myself." (Railroad Gallop,) and the merry dancers had He recovered, and returning with the tribe to taken their places, when into the room bolted a nates the Western horizon for hours after dark- La Pointe, his first act was to search out a priest donkey, snorting and braying at the top of his gone to Cape May, that favorite resort of fashpowerful lungs, and, joining in the gallop, went fon and folly, during one of the hottest seasons on horseback or in a tilbury; on his return be round the large salle with a perfect rush. Nev- ever got upon this continent. It was intensely transacts business until the dinner hour-6. er was such a stampede seen in a ball room .- hot; I perspire insensibly when I think of it .- He entertains at dinner, several times during The now affrighted dancers scattered inevery di- | Have you been at Cape Island, gentlemen?" rection, and 'sich a gittin' up stairs,' such a jum_ which it contains. Now you get a profile. The reigned in her heart, I cannot with certainty as- ping upon chairs and tables, and such a climb- the question. few sticks she has just added to the fire flash sert; but we thought, after the recitatof Bouch- ing up pillars, up to that moment had never been witnessed in the Casino Paganni, or any er, to warn you against the place. A more unupon the outlines of her face. Now she rises her voice a milder tone, and her general manner other casino. The police were struck dumb at inviting resort is not to be found. I have good His physician has mentioned to me, (adds Mr. and takes the kettle and its contents into the a more tender bearing than others of her tribe the strange apparition, the musicians dropped authority for stating that it is the only unfinish. W.,) that he never saw him out of humor but their instruments and fled in terror, while the ed part of creation. They have a legend down once or twice, and then his dissatisfaction was donkey kept galloping on in his mad flight, ca- there which runs thus: The hands were at work scarcely manifested. The English stories of receing in circles around the room amid the on this spot at the tail end of the sixth day, but his "flying into a rage" in dialogues with minwild screams of the hundreds of woman, all on- hight overtook them and they were compelled to isters, are ludicrously contrasted with his chaly bent upon seaking places of safety.

gauntlet of at least fifty coachmen, always sta- | painted red." ping to procure a ticket of admission, but knock. commotion, too. Without stopping to select a is a warm bath of itself " partner, he joined in the grand gallop, and at a stride which soon distanced everything on the story."

"After a half a dozen turns round the saleon full stemach. The livelong day he packs his people, but we shall not authorize them to break formance, he finally cooled or tired himself down, night, about a week after our arrival, I had gone came to his senses, and quietly commenced a early to bed, not wishing to participate in any survey of the premises. From this out he is of the abominable hops' that were given at our said to have been the pet of the evening, the hotel." ing around him, and regaling him plentifully than. Amazon who sits beside him? You shall hear, coal; this is an article which our steamers in was over, he was sent by the commissary of powith cakes and other notions. When the ball that cost enough to be good. Large quantities The winds rose too freely over the sea on the going from California to China, must use. They like to the public pound, and thus ended the do-marked Mr. Blanchard. morrow for either party to proceed. We had would be glad that a harbor in your Empire ings of a donkey in a dancing saleon. The adventures of the celebrated bull in the chinn shop | have been acceptable at the moment. I had were as nothing in comparison; that animal been asleep for some time, when I was awakencups, and sancers, but the here of the Casino said-

A Temperance Joke.

Joe Harris was a whole souled, merry fellow, and very fond of a glass. After living in New | ted my unknown bedfellow, jumping three feet Orleans for many years, he came to the conclu- from the bed; and she (for it was a woman) his lonely hed. How he draws up his toes, all sion of visiting an old uncle, away up in Massa- | would have jumped farther, but want of room neath the chilly had clothes; that his nose and there is a difference between New Orleans and was a situation for a modest man! Before I his toes, still encased in yarn hose, may not Massachusetts, in regard to the use of ardent could say, angels and ministers of grace defend chance to froze. Then he puffs and blows and spirits, and when Joe arrived there and found us, she had gathered up her 'dry goods' and he swears that he knows no mortal on earth ever all the people run mad about temperance, he made good her retreat from the room. I am not suffered such wees, and with ah's and with oh's felt bad, thinking with the old song, that "keep- a coward gentlemen, yet I am free to confess and with limbs so disposed, that neither his toes | ing the spirits up by pouring the spirits down" | that my nerves were slightly agitated. Who can silence the bachelor goes. In the morn when began to fear, indeed, that he was in a pickle .- Were questions that I could not answer. Had I no doubt, are in the habit of taking a little some- try." lows nose, for full well he knows, if from the thing to drink, about eleven o'clock. Now I one know it, as my husband wants to set the boys a good example."

more that day, took, as he expressed it, "a bus- transaction, and in order to remove all doubts, ter." After that he walked out to the stable, the next morning at breakfast I inquiredand who should he meet but his uncle.

"Well, Joe," says he, "I expect you are accustomed to drink something in New Orleans, but you find us all temperance here, and for the sake of my sons, I don't let them know that I have any brandy about; but I just keep a little out here for my rheumatism. Will you accept a little ?"

Joe signified his readiness, and took another big horn. Then continuing his walk, he came

"Joe, I expect you would like to have a drink

Out came the bottle, and down they sat, and boy got rather the worst of the bargain, when he says that by the time he went home to dinby tried the above recipe, we know it to be at his all boy got rather the worst of the bargain, when he says that by the time he went home to dinby tried the above recipe, we know it to be at his all boy got rather the worst of the bargain, when he says that by the time he went home to dinby got rather the worst of the bargain, when he says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and of her sex, then I will unhesitatingly admit ing the difficulty which he labored under, knockinfalliable and the same moment has a low and they saw that the bottle, and the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and of her sex, then I will unhesitatingly admit ing the difficulty which he labored under, knockinfalliable and the same moment has a low and they saw that the bottle, and the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and of the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and in the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and in the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and in the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and in the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and in the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and in the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and in the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and in the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and in the says that by the time he went home to dinother has a could well be, and in the says that the all from visiting a temperance family.

A Peculiar Situation.

The following article appeared originally in She threw his listless body upon her back, Grienns Picayune, describes the following scene the Frederick (Md.) Examiner, half a dozen

"How so-how was that?" said we.

A general negative shake of the head followed leigners.

suspend operations, and thus the island was left raesteristic self-control. His habitual discre-My hat could have brought such an intruder incomplete! To those who are familiar with the tion and reserve in speech are such that there into a dancing hall no one could imagine, but locality, this is certainly a plausible story. I is no political odds could unlock him when his it was afterwards ascertained that the donkey have more than once heard it called the Jumping purpose is to be close. From time to time, he had been left by his master standing before a off place.' Sunshine and sand knee-deep are talks over with the most intelligent men about door in Chaussee d'Antin, and that, struck by the strongest inducements to pay a second visit. him what he intends to write; he digests his one of the carriages continually passing through | To be sure, they say something of the advantage | subject, and prepares his topics and composition that noted theroughfare, and frightened by the of sea bathing-but look at the risk. If you ven- before he uses pen at all, ratiling of others, he had suddenly started off at | ture beyond your nose, the undertow carries you | the top of his speed. The more he ran, as is out, and death by drowning is inevitable. After always the case, the more frightened he became, | which follow 'grappling irons,' and the indignity and in his flight, seting the passage leading to of a 'coroner's inquest.' The spot is distinguishthe Casino, he bolted into it for refuge. But led by a half dozen stunted trees, two or three poor refuge did he find; for he now had to run a | apologies for hotels, and three or four cabins

"All in good time, gentlemen. I said Stagers and myself were foolish enough to go down .-The saloon is on the first floor, and without stop- | Some two or three thousand people were there when we arrived and every nook and corner was ing over the astonished door-keeper in his head. | jumed full. After repeated solicitation, we finlong career, the poor brute made his advent a- ally succeeded in getting a small room with the mong the dancers, as already mentioned. 'Sol. privilege of sleeping two in a bed. The theritary and alone he set that hall in motion, and mometer at 90 and two in a bed! The thought

"Don't descend to particulars, but give us the

"Certainly. In the room adjoining ours slept

"Pooh - pooh! it's a ghost story," said Na-

"No, gentlemen,"

"Then you were ducked with cold water," re-

"Wrong again! Although a cold bath would simply confined his operations to braking plates, ed by the most musical voice imaginable which

" 'Kate, suppose we lay spoon fashion.'

" Lay how ! inquired I.

" 'Gracious heavens! where am I?' ejaculalibly impressed upon my mind that I had setual-"Joe, you have been living in the South, and, Iy been in hed with one of the long faced gen-

"Well, what took place then! Who was she?" "Be patient, and you shall know everything. The two young ladies before mentioned sat op- | the Mexican war, viz : posite to me at the table. I had a very faint Joe promised, and thinking he would get no suspicion that one of them was a party to the

"Miss B., shall I help you to a little of this

"If you place, sir." " Will you have it spoon fashion? said I,

"The deep blush that mantled her handsome face told me more plainly than words that she was my ghost of the preceding night. Having gone up without a light she had mistaken my room for her own, and but for the 'spoon fashion' arrangement, Stagers would probably have discovered us in bed together. I am happy to add, gentlemen, that the affair has a pleasant denouncement. Miss B. and myself are now engaged to be married. When the ceremony takes place, you shall be present, and if you do not Leuis Napoleon.

The President of France, (says the Paris correspondent of the Journal, Mr. Walsh,) rises at years since. It had a pretty general run among | 7 in the summer and 8 in the winter; examines "A highly ludicrous incident occurred a few the papers at that time, but it is one of those immediately letters and documents of imporo'clock; takes a turn in the garden of the Elythen breakfasts; he cats little. After breakfast he takes his sent at the council of the Ministers, "I will tell you. Stagers and myself had who usually assemble before noon. He rides as often as possible, and for about an hour a day the week, a large number of French and for-

> His evenings are allotted to the theatres or "Then permit me, as a friend and well-wish- the balls. He often labors, in his cabinet or

The Golden Age.

Alluding to the extraordinary discoveries in California and Australia, and to the organization of extensive Companies for the purpose of work the mines in the most successful manner, the N. Y. Herald says-in the newly discovered mineral regions of Califormin and Australia, are calculated, in the course of a year or two, to produce, if successful only in a tolerable degree, at least of one hundred or one hundred and fifty millions of dollars in gold annually, to be added to the circulation of the civilized world.

Take these movements and their results, and add them to what has already been accomplished by individual diggers, with shovels end pans, in Australia and California-these wonderful gold countries-and it is not unreasonable to expect, that in three or four years, from two to three hundred million dollars of gold will be added annually, by the labors of these and other companies, to the stock of the precious metals f the civilized world. The effect of such addition of the measure of value, as acknowledged by commerce and civilization, may be estimated n the course of five, six, or ten years. It will be tremendous, and operate on prices, on public stocks, on the value of property of all kinds to an extent that has been utterly unknown in the history of human events, since the first discovof America, and the rich yield of the Mexican and Peruvian mines."

John Mitchel.

The following is an extract from one of the speeches for which this Irish exile was expatviated by the Government of Great Britain:

I tell you frankly, that I, for one, am not loyal ." I am not wedded to the Queen of England, nor unalterably attached to the House of Brunswick. In fact, I love my own barn better than I do that house. The time is long past when Jehovah appointed kings. The thing has long since grown a monstrous imposture, and has been already, in some civilized countries detected as such and drummed out accordingly. A modern king, my friends is no more like an ancient anointed shepherd of the people, than an arhbishop's apron is like the Urim and Thummim. There is no divine right now but in the sovereign people.

It is stated that Governor Thomas H. Seymour will probably be elected U.S. Senator in Connecticut. If he succeeds, his name may be added to the list of those who have obtained seats in that distinguished body for services in

Cel. Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi; Col. John C. Frement, of California;

Gen. James Shields, of Illinois;

Maj. Solon Borland, of Arkansas; Maj. Jeremiah Clemens, of Alabama;

Col. John B. Weller, of California; Com. Stockton, of New Jersey:

Col. Thos. H. Seymour, of Conn. (probably.) All Democrats. A much larger number of 'Mexican war horses" have found their way

An old lady, who was apt to be troubled in her dreams, and superstitious withal informed the parson of the parish that on a night previous she saw her grandmother, who had been dead for ten years.

"What were you eating," enquired the par-

"Oh, only half a mince pie."

into the House of Representatives.

"Well," said he, "if you had devoured the there is romance in the phrase 'spoon fashion." | father."