

rate integrity is unsullied, and his walk and conversation blameless, while his public career has excited universal admiration. It is true he has been the subject of some vituperation and abuse. But this has been the fate of all distinguished Democrats.

Those who have been the people's greatest favorites have been the most calumniated. It is "the rough brake which virtue must go thro'." To say that the people of this State will be all influenced by the petty slanders which personal malice or political hostility can coin so easily is an insult upon their intelligence and justice so gross, that we have a right to repel it with indignation. We have yet to learn that any of Mr. Buchanan's competitors for the nomination have escaped this universal fate. But when we do ascertain that either of them has passed through life unscathed by detraction, we are prepared to express our conviction, that such a man is unfit and unworthy to be the candidate of the democracy for the office of President.—"Who unto him of whom all men speak well."—Among the many elements of popularity which Mr. Buchanan combines, not the least is the character of the opposition to him. It is not based on any charge, which if true, would prove him to be wanting in honesty, ability or fidelity to the Constitution, and shows only that he has been fearless and faithful in the performance of his political duties. It is absurd to believe that a man cast in such a mould, could fail to enlist the enthusiastic support of a people like ours.

Thus far we have in arguments a priori—reasons which show how utterly improbable it is that our candidate can be other than the most popular man among us. But the history of Pennsylvania for the last twenty-five years, proves it as an incontestable fact. He was five times chosen to the House of Representatives, in Congress, the last time under circumstances which made his election a triumph to the friends of Jackson, such as no other man in the State had achieved. No appointment which President Jackson made gave more pleasure to the people of the State than that which showed his confidence in Mr. Buchanan by making him Minister to Russia. He was three times elected to the Senate of the United States, an honor which Pennsylvania has never conferred on any other man. His appointment as Secretary of State by Mr. Polk, was well known to have been made with the warm concurrence and approbation of General Jackson, and if anything could have increased our affectionate regard for our hero and statesman of the age, his uniform endorsement of Mr. Buchanan would do that effect.—But better and more direct evidence than all this of Mr. Buchanan's standing at home is afforded by the action of the people on the very question of the Presidency. Mr. Buchanan's friends in Pennsylvania have three times presented him as a candidate for that great office, and each time they were sustained by the full tide of public approbation. The greatest and best men of the nation have been set up against him, and vigorously pressed by their supporters.—But in the primary meetings of the people, and in the County and State Conventions, no name has stood for a moment before the competition of his. We fearlessly assert that since the days of Washington, there has lived but one man in any part of the Union who could rival Mr. Buchanan in the affections of his own State.

We have not addressed you for the purpose of proving that his claims to the Presidency are entitled to your respect. If you doubt his talents, his patriotism and his honesty, our appeal at this time of day would be in vain. If his life of labor in your cause and ours, has made no favorable impression on the country, it is too late to create a reputation for him now. He comes before you either with something better than a manufactured character, or else with none at all that is worthy of your attention. We ask you to subject his life to the severest inquiry that justice will allow, and if he does not sustain it, reject him. But we demand that he shall not be struck down by paltry slanders and, least of all, by the absurd falsehood which charges him with want of unpopularity. If the National Convention shall decide against our candidate, we cannot promise that our people will bear the decision without bitter mortification; for their State pride is thoroughly aroused. If the man they now offer is set aside, they have no hope of succeeding at another time. If Pennsylvania must wait until she presents a more unexceptionable man than Mr. Buchanan, she must wait forever.

Still the Democracy of this State will be true and faithful to their party, and their country. It will not be their fault if the rule of our opponents is to be perpetuated. Whatever the Convention may do, the Democrats of Pennsylvania will be at their posts ready to perform their whole duty, and to present, as they always have presented, a living rampart between the Constitution and its foes. But if they are permitted to do battle under the leadership of their own fellow-citizen—the well tried friend, whom they know, and trust, and love—it will energize their efforts, and add thousands to their majority.

His nomination would give them an opportunity not only to vindicate him, but to demonstrate how false is the dishonoring charge against themselves, of being so ignorant, so unjust, or so ungrateful, as not to appreciate a man whose merits are acknowledged by all the world besides.—Their hearts will thro' to meet the encounter on such terms. There will be a rapture in the strife which is to be crowned with a victory like that.

Read! Read! what Kier's PETROLEUM, OR ROCK OIL, HAS BEEN DOING.

A Natural remedy procured from a well in Allegheny County, Pa. four hundred feet below the Earth's surface! Put up and sold by Samuel M. Kier, Canal Basin, Seventh St., Pittsburgh Pa.

The healthful balm from Nature's secret spring, the bloom of health, and life, to man will bring: As from her depths the magic liquid flows, To calm our sufferings, and assuage our woes.

A Most Remarkable Case of Total Blindness Cured by Petroleum.

We invite the attention of the afflicted, and the public generally, to the certificate of William Hall, of this City. The case may be seen by any person who may be skeptical in relation to the facts there set forth. S. M. KIER.

"I had been afflicted several years with a soreness of both eyes, which continued to increase until last September, (1850), the inflammation at that time having involved the whole lining membrane of both eyes, and ended in a deposit of a thick film, which wholly destroyed my sight. I had an operation performed, and the thickening removed, which soon returned and left me in as bad a condition as before. At this stage of the complaint, I made application to several of the most eminent medical men, who informed me that "my eyes would never get well." At this time I could not distinguish any object. By the advice of some friends, I commenced the use of the Petroleum, both internally and locally, under which my eyes have improved daily until the present time, and I have recovered my sight entirely. My general health was very much improved by the Petroleum, and I attribute the restoration of my sight to its use. I reside at No. 142, Second Street, in this City, and will be happy to give any information in relation to my case. WILLIAM HALL." Pittsburgh, Sept. 17, 1851.

Another Letter recommending the Petroleum.
NEWVILLE, Cumberland Co. Pa.
Mr. Kier: Dear Sir—Having been appointed by your travelling agent, when along last, agent for the sale of your Petroleum, and fearing it might not sell rapidly, inasmuch as so much worthless trash is sold by travelling agents, we only took two boxes from him, which has all been sold. Finding it to sell quite readily and actually to answer the various purposes for which it has been recommended, we thought we would order of you about four boxes more, as there is still a great demand for it. * * * * *

In regard to the efficacy of your Petroleum, we might add, that in every instance, without exception, where it has been tried, it was found to give immediate relief, particularly for pains in the limbs, back, &c., resulting from Bilious Intermittent Fever, which prevailed in this section to a very great extent, and invariably was followed by pains and swelling in the limbs. Your Petroleum, in these cases, (without exception,) was found to give immediate relief.
Yours most respectfully,
GILMORE & STOUGH.

A Bad Case of Intermittent Rheumatism.
The following extracts are from a letter received from a young gentleman of Middleburg, Summit County, Ohio. They are attested by Charles Belden and Dr. Elijah Curtis, of that place:
"Mr. Kier: Dear Sir—Gratitude compels me to express my thanks for the discovery of your invaluable medicine. I was afflicted with that awful and disheartening disease, the Intermittent Rheumatism, on the 21st of September last, whilst I was in Cleveland; and was brought home from that place to Middleburg, where I lay on my back for over two months. For three weeks of this time, I was in the most intense suffering and agony. I lay with my limbs in one position, and could not stir a muscle, nor have my bed changed. My screams could be heard all over the neighborhood, so intense was my suffering. When every other remedy proved valueless, I had recourse to your invaluable Petroleum, of which I had made but three applications, until I commenced to get better. I used altogether but two bottles and a half, and am now well. I can get any number of persons to testify to the above facts, if necessary."
