We return thanks to Hon. Charles Sumner, Hon. Linn Boyd, and Hon. G. W. Thompson, for numerous favors

The "Farm Journal" for May is received and we are much indebted. The cheapness system after June 1, 1852 : of this valuable periodical places it within reach of every man, and no Agriculturist or Farmer should be without it. We will furnish ten copies at 75 cents per copy a year. The postage is a very small item. The work is published monthly, is beautifully embellished, and is worth twenty times the amount of subscription. Every farmer can make money by practising its teachings. Give in your names for this American book.

JOHN C. DUNN Esq., has withdrawn from the Pittsburgh Chronicle, leaving the paper under the sole charge of Jas. P. BARR Esq., who contemplates several material improvements .-Mr. Dunn is entirely a self-made man, has been connected with the above paper five years, and has attained a substantial reputation as a vigorous, sarcastic writer, his productions full of jest and fancy. From the editorial fraternity we could have better spared some other man, but Mr. Barr will labor to merit success and we hope an increased circulation of his excellent paper may give it him.
