These Reprints have nowbeen in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class and them as cheap, and in fact, cheaper, than they from numerous Eclectics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption. Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The He is also prepared to manufacture Spouting Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerof these fascinating tales.
