GREAT COUNTRY THIS.
The Maine Liquor Law Defeated.
THE subscriber, thankful for past favors, would respectfully inform his friends and the public in general, that he has removed his store to the room formerly occupied by H. J. McDonald as a Catholic Book Store, where he has just received and is now opening, the largest and most fashionable assortment of ready made CLOTHING
ever offered for sale in this vicinity. His stock consists in part of Coats of all kinds and sizes, from 1.50 up to 20 dollars; Pants from 1 to 7 dollars; Vests from 50 cents to 6 dollars; Drawers of all kinds, under shirts, Sailor's blue shirts, hickory shirts, and a very fine article of white shirts with imported bosoms; standing collars, suspenders, gloves, men's cravats, and silk and linen pocket handkerchiefs; Men's and Boys' HATS AND CAPS,
Boots and Shoes. A superior article of Ladies Morocco Shoes, and seal and kid slippers; carpet bags, and in fact everything that is necessary for taste or comfort. Also, a small sprinkling of Groceries, a little too cheap. All of the above stock was purchased in the eastern cities, from the largest and best made goods to be found and selected with great care.
Believing that quick sales and small profits is the surest and best way to do business, I am determined to sell all my goods at lower prices than any other establishment in these "diggins." My terms are
ONE HALF CASH,
and the balance before the goods are taken away.
I will charge nothing for showing my goods, and only ask persons to give me a call, and they cannot fail to be pleased. COME ON ONE AND ALL!

This is not in fun!
We want money, particularly that which has been due for some time. Will those indebted to us please call and settle their accounts during this month and pay us all they can. Our books must be settled, and until they are, we must positively refuse to add any thing more to long standing accounts. Experience proves that in-doing a credit business, if you leave accounts run over six months or a year, that there is difficulty in settling.
The books of the former firms of J. Ivory and J. Ivory & Co. will be in the hands of an officer for collection by the 1st April, if those indebted do not call and pay their accounts by that time.

Commission and Forwarding.
After the 10th inst., we will be obliged to pay Penna. Railroad Co. freights upon the delivery of merchandise; therefore, persons receiving goods by that line will pay us the freight before the goods are taken away. The same rule will be observed with canal freight when we have to pay on delivery. Bills lading should always be furnished us to avoid losses of packages. Hereafter we will charge the following commissions: 3/2 cents per 100 lbs., on all goods left in our care on side track; 5 cents per 100 lbs. when we handle or store goods, or check them off and receipt for them. Goods remaining in warehouse over ten days will pay extra storage. On all freight not paid when goods are taken away, we will charge three per cent. for collecting.
All outstanding amounts due us as freights we would like to have paid immediately.

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE

These Reprints have now been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase, notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class and from numerous Electrics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.
Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive,
