

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

"Mr. Showman, what is that?" "That, my dear, is the Rhinoceros. He is coming from the desert. He is a very curious animal, and feeds on bamboo and missionaries. He never leaves his home unless he moves, in which case he goes somewhere else, unless he is overtaken by the dark. He is a very courageous critter, and always whips when he conquers. He was brought to this country much against his will, which accounts for his low spirits when he's melancholy or dejected. He is now somewhat aged, although he has seen the day when he was the youngest specimen of animated nature in the world. Pass on, my little dear, and allow the ladies to survey the wisdom of Providence as displayed in the ring-tailed monkey, a animal that can stand hanging like a feller critter, only it is reversed.

GRAVE OF AN ANCIENT SEA KING.—A remarkable discovery has lately been made in the parish of Horre, near Horten, in Norway. In a shippen (barrow in the shape of a ship) has been discovered the unaccounted part of a vessel, together with the skeletons of three horses, two dogs, a sword-dagger, battle-axe, the foot of a glass goblet, a bell with curious ornaments of bronze, stirrups, the bit of a bridle with silver mountings, the remains of a saddle, (a saddle-bow of bronze,) and other objects. This cairn has probably held the corpse of King Eystein, or his son, King Halfdan, who, according to Snorra, lie buried here.

FALL OF ROCKS AT NIAGARA FALLS.—On Saturday night and Sunday morning, large portions of the rock near the American Ferry broke off and fell into the river, stirring up considerable commotion in the caudron of sea, sending waters. The falling rock was detached from the under wall of "Point View." Many fine specimens of Gypsum and Mica have been brought to the surface by the phenomenon, and the whole army of explorers for Geological specimens may be seen engaged in the busy pursuit.

The owner of a load of hay in Sixth street market-space, caught a young scoundrel in the act of applying a match to it, yesterday. Questioned as to the cause of this rash act, he said he was a Scott man, and wanted to get up a bonfire in honor of his nomination. Here's Young America for you!—Cin. Commercial.

A boy was lately asked who killed Abel. He promptly said—"General Jackson." This recalls the catechetical examination of a lad living in the wildest regions of the Green mountains. "Into what state did the fall bring mankind?" asked the teacher. With a most rueful expression of countenance the urchin bawled out—"Varmount."

GEN. WORTH.—The family of Gen. Worth, it is said, have applied to Congress for a pension, to be paid them in consideration of the public services of Gen. W., who, at the time of his death, was unable to leave them any property. The sum asked is $500 a year.

The Boston Traveller says that Mrs. Betsey Grimes, who has lately been confined to her bed by indisposition, at her residence, corner of Ann and Mechanic streets, died, a day or two since, from the effects of drinking a quantity of iced lemonade, which she drank while in a weak bodily state. She died in less than an hour.

The Cincinnati Commercial of the 14th inst. says:—The steamer Lewis Whiteman arrived yesterday, from New Orleans, with about four hundred emigrants on board. There was considerable sickness, and ten deaths from cholera. Four persons, in a dying condition, were put ashore at quarantine.

A VETERAN DEMOCRAT.—The Concord Reporter, in speaking of a mass meeting held at Concord, New Hampshire, last week, to ratify the Democratic nominations, mentions, among the incidents of the occasion, the introduction upon the stage of Wells Way, Esq., of Marlow, eighty three years of age. "He voted," says the Reporter, "for Washington on his second election, and has voted for every Democratic President and every nominee of that party from Jefferson to the present time. He was one of the first in getting up a Democratic ticket in this State, with John Langdon at its head, and had the pleasure of being on the committee which conducted that eminent statesman to the chair. He is residing at present with his son-in-law, Rev. E. Smith, in this village, and means to live long enough, if it is God's will, to vote to place Frank Pierce in the chair occupied by a Washington, a Jefferson, and a Jackson."

The Thibodaux (La.) Minerva of the 12th inst. says the cholera has again made its appearance in that parish. It is confined almost exclusively to the white population. A number of deaths have already occurred, among them the late Sheriff of the parish, Leon Falgout, Sr. and his wife, who died after a brief illness of a few hours only. No new cases had occurred within the previous three days.

A SINGULAR COINCIDENCE.—Rev. Dr. Stow, pastor of the Rowe street Church, baptised ten persons last Lord's day. Of this number, four were young men, of nearly the same age, bearing the names of Daniel Webster, Henry Clay, William Henry Harrison, and Benjamin Franklin.—Boston Transcript.

PAY YOUR POSTAGE.—The man who, under the present rates, writes without paying postage, is not entitled to the courtesy of a reply. To save three cents, he makes you pay five; and frequently in relation to matters entirely personal to himself. There is no excuse for this, as every man can carry a few stamps in his pocket.—Hereafter, all unpaid letters sent to this office will be returned, even if they come from the Queen of England.

The Washington National Monument is now languishing for the want of means to carry it on, and therefore the Board of Managers suggest to the clergymen throughout the United States, that, as the anniversary of our independence will fall on Sunday, they shall each take up collections in their churches for this great and patriotic object.

Revising the Laws.—We learn that Gov. Bigler under the authority of an act passed at the last session of the Legislature, has appointed James M. Porter, E. A. Penniman, and Ellis Bonham, Commissioners to revise and codify the laws of Pennsylvania.

Material Aid to Kossuth.—The Tribune sums up the amount of material aid secured to Kossuth since his arrival in the United States, making the sum of 90,000. This is a small sum with which to be begin to revolutionize Europe.

"Ma," said a little girl to her mother, "do men want to get married as much as the women?"

"Pshaw! what are you talking about?" "Why, ma, the women that come here are always talking about getting married; the men dont do so."

The Harrisburg Union says there resides in that borough a lady, sixty-nine years of age, who has three new teeth growing in her mouth at the present time. The lady enjoys remarkably good health, and has seen a great deal of trouble within a few years.

Ole Bull is paying a visit to Gen. Pierce, at Concord, N. H.

The Baltimore Argus says that Lola Montez bugged the eye of Mr. George Smith, her maître de danse, with her fist making him see stars, at the Holliday Street Theatre, on a late occasion.

THANKFUL IT'S NO WORSE.—The Portland Advertiser, speaking of the Whig platform, consoles itself after this wise:

"Upon the whole, as the bashful guest said to the landlady who apologized for her dry cake, it's a great deal better than we expected?"

A puppy dog was thrown into the Niagara river the other day with his feet tied, and went over the falls. His master took that method of getting rid of him, but strange to say, when he returned to his house he found that the dog had come out safe and was drying himself in the sun.

The Pittsburg Gazette, Whig, supports Scott, but bolts from the platform.

Louis Napoleon gets a salary of $8,310,000 a year, or 7 1/2 cents a second.

A down-east militia captain, on receiving a note from a lady requesting the "pleasure of his company," understood it as a compliment to those under his command, and marched the whole of them to the lady's house.

The old Spaniards, were wont to engrave on their blades, "Never draw me without reason never sheath me without honor." Lord Mahon well says that this might with aptness and truth have adorned the sword of Washington.
