

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Dr. Forbes, in the quarterly Review, says—"The crabs in the Kneeling Islands, in the Pacific Ocean, eat coconuts, boring a hole through the shell with one of their claws; the fish eat coral, and the dogs hunt fish in the shallow water of the reef; the greater part of the sea-fowl roost on branches, and many of the rats make their nests at the top of high palm trees."

The following recipe will be found exceedingly valuable during the hot months, when there is so much inability to affections of the bowels. Parch half a pint of rice until it is brown; then boil it as rice is usually done. Eat slowly, and it will stop the most alarming cases of diarrhoea.

"Take a Wife Tom," said Richard Brinsley Sheridan, to his wild son Tom, "Take a wife, Tom, and reform." "With all my heart," replied Tom innocently, "whose wife shall I take?"

Thurlow Weed, editor of the Albany Evening Journal writes in one of his letters:—"Louis Napoleon is a man of most decided ability. He had not, as many supposed, lived a life of indolence. He has a well disciplined mind, and is well read in the principles of Government. He works hard and keeps those about him hard at work. In this, as in many other respects, he is like the Napoleon."

There is nothing purer than honesty, nothing sweeter than charity; nothing warmer than love; nothing richer than wisdom; nothing brighter than virtue; nothing more steadfast than faith; nothing better than constancy.

A great Meagher demonstration was held at the American Theatre in New Orleans on the 20th of June. A letter was received from Gov. Walker, expressive of sympathy with the objects of the meeting, and with the Irish people. Ex-Gov. Johnson was present and made a neat speech. Among the resolutions reported by Mr. Burke and unanimously adopted, were two in relation to the proposed honors to Mr. Meagher in New York, and that gentleman's declination. The meeting highly applauded the wisdom and delicacy of the action.

In Wheeling, on the 3d instant, a keg of powder was ignited by a spark from the shoe of the horse that was passing by. Both the horse and the boy who was riding him were very much hurt; but neither was killed.

The great tunnel on the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad has been completed, and the opening of the railroad through was to be celebrated with a great festival, in which ten thousand persons were expected to participate, on the third inst.

Col. Crockett, of Tenn., a son of "old Davy's" and a full-blooded Whig, was invited by the Democracy of Tammany Hall to participate with them in celebrating the 4th; he accepted, and on being toasted made a speech!

At a Democratic meeting at Fremont, Sandusky county, Ohio, John L. Greene, until now a prominent Whig, was called upon to make a speech, and announced that he should vote for Pierce and King.

Gen. Scott has not sufficient confidence in his election to resign the office of Major General, for which he is drawing a salary of SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS per year! He has already drawn from the People's Treasury a QUARTER OF A MILLION OF DOLLARS in the shape of salary. This ought to satisfy the appetite of any man. He has no hope, however, of being elected, and will not give up the 6000 a year!

After Scott was nominated says the (Providence R. I. Post.) Gov. Johnson of Pennsylvania, pledged himself to the Convention, that Pennsylvania should go for Scott by a larger majority than she gave for Taylor. This from the Whig ex-candidate for Governor of the Keystone State, who was beaten last fall by more than 8,000 majority against him, must have been extremely encouraging.

Hon. Daniel Webster was in Philadelphia on Wednesday last, on his way to Marshallfield. The Bulletin says:—"Just before going to press, we heard a rumor that Mr. Webster had signified his acceptance of the nomination for the Presidency tendered to him by the 'American' Convention at Trenton."

The following successful application of iron to a new purpose, will be interesting to our friends in the iron business. Hurra! for the Iron age!

At the Prussian Industrial Exhibition Count Bernard, a large proprietor of iron works, exhibited sheet iron of such a degree of tenacity that the leaves can be used for paper. One of the finest sort of machinery rolls 7040 square feet, of what may be called leaf iron, from a cwt. of metal. A book binder of Breslau has made an album of nothing else, the pages of which turn as flexibly as the finest fabric of linen paper. As yet no extensive application for this form of the metal has been found, but the manager says the material must precede the use for it."

A Debating Society out somewhere near sunset, lately discussed this question—"Is a swine six months old a pig or a hog?" The question was argued at great length and with "marked ability," but the arguments on both sides were so near equal in point of force and ingenuity, that the President was desired to decide the question, which he did in the following words:—"It's the opinion of the chair, gentlemen, that the animal's a good sized chunk of a hog."

Anecdote.—An exchange tells the following anecdote, which we pronounce decidedly good: One of our storekeepers of this place, a few days since, purchased an Irish woman a quantity of butter, the lumps of which, intended for pounds, "he weighed in the balance and found wanting." "Sure its yer own fault, if they are light," said Biddy, in reply to the complaint of the buyer, "its yer own fault sir—for wasnt I had in the other end of the scales when I weighed 'em?" The storekeeper had nothing more to say on the subject.

The Burmese war in India is likely to be marked by great ferocity. The Governor of Rangoon has offered fifty rupees for the head of every British soldier, and thirty for the head of every black one. The consequence is, that as soon as any of the English troops fall, the Burmese rush up with hatchets to cut off the required heads, and sometimes, in consequence of the competition for the reward, severely injure each other.

Hon. Robert Rantoul, delivered a speech before the Democracy of the 2d district, Mass., on Monday. He goes for PIERCE and KING.—As to the platform, he should have preferred the old Democratic platform, without any interpolations as to slavery. He does not wish to meddle with the opinions of the slave holders, and he does not wish the slaveholders to meddle with his. He, however, under all the circumstances, puts himself under the Democratic banner.

QUEEN VICTORIA OPPOSED TO THE MAINE LAW.—By the Montreal Courier we learn that her majesty, the Queen, has disapproved the liquor law passed by the New Brunswick Legislature on the Maine pattern, on the ground that its provisions are a violation of the liberty of the subject.

A Monument to the signers of the Declaration of Independence is proposed to be erected in Independence Square Philadelphia, where a convention of delegates from the original thirteen states met last Monday, and recommended that the monument be constructed with thirteen sides, one side to be devoted to each of the Old Thirteen States, to have whatever device it may select; the Declaration of Independence to be cut in full on the monument; the artists and architects of the United States to be invited to furnish designs; committees to be appointed to superintend, &c. The sum of $100,000 was named as the probable cost; and it was recommended that each State pass an act and appoint a trustee to make collections.

Mr. Meagher attended the military review in New York on Monday, and at an entertainment given by the officers he was toasted. To which he made a handsome response.

NARROW ESCAPE.—As the lid of a coffin was about being fastened down, in Rochester, the other day the inmate was discovered to be living. The poor fellow who came so near being buried alive, is now likely to recover.

DEAD LETTERS.—Fifty-three thousand eight hundred dead letters were sent to the office at Washington on the 7th inst., from New York, being the number accumulating here from January 1 to March 31. On 50,000 of them the postage was unpaid.

PROBABLY NOT.—Probably the Scott committee will not circulate the 5000 copies of the Boston Pilot which they ordered—when they find that the same edition contains Scott's original native letter, in which he inclined to think foreigners ought not to be naturalized at all; and also an article showing up the whig falsehoods about the Constitution of New Hampshire.

OHIO FOR PIERCE.—Ohio is on fire for Frank Pierce. The New Lisbon Patriot says "we have yet to hear of the first Democrat in Columbiana county who will not give Pierce his hearty and cordial support." Old Columbiana can easily give over one thousand majority when her spunk is up.

THE PITTSBURGH AND STEUBENVILLE RAILROAD.—The contract has been made for the graduation and masonry of this entire road; the road is now in vigorous progress at every heavy point along the whole line, and the contractors are bound to have their work completed so that the road may be ready for the cars in a year from next January.

Whig Disassociation Meeting in Boston.—Nomination of Webster. Boston, July 8.

Last evening a meeting was held at Faneuil Hall, for the purpose of rejecting the nomination of the Whig National Convention of Baltimore, and to nominate Daniel Webster instead of General Scott.

Mr. Harry Williams was nominated as President of the meeting, and Wm. B. May, S. N. Hobbs, and James B. Blake were appointed Secretaries.

The Chairman addressed the meeting, praising Daniel Webster and abusing Scott. He was constantly interrupted by mingled cheers and groans for Scott.

The next speaker was Rev. Mr. Winslow, who spoke in the same strain, concluding, amid great confusion, by saying that Daniel Webster will, with the help of God, be the next President of the United States.

Mr. Dennison then came forward with the resolutions, saying he was hoarse, having just returned from the battle ground of Trenton, where he had been receiving the nomination of Daniel Webster for President, and George Custis Washington, the grand nephew of no less a man than George Washington, for Vice President. [Cheers.] He was most happy to say to this audience and to the country, that both the gentleman would stand the nomination.—[Tremendous cheers.] He was proud to see Faneuil Hall respond to Trenton.

Mr. Dennison then read the resolutions, which are commendatory of Scott and laudatory of Webster. The concluding ones are as follows:—Resolved, That we have full faith not only in the availability of Daniel Webster, but in his triumphant success which shall put his name before the people as a candidate for the office of President, and that we hasten, and are prompt to spread out to the breeze the banner inscribed with his name—confident that it will be greeted with acclamations throughout the country, and that under its folds we shall be led to a triumphant and successful result.

Resolved, Finally, That to promote the objects specified in the foregoing preamble and resolutions, measures be at once taken by this meeting for causing a Convention favorable to the nomination of Daniel Webster, without distinction of party, to be called at an early day, and that a committee to prepare and circulate a suitable address to the friends of Mr. Webster, in all the States of the Union inviting and urging the party to strenuous co-operations with us for the accomplishment of the noble purposes we have in view, be appointed.

Several other speakers appeared and addressed the meeting. The resolutions were adopted, and the meeting soon after adjourned.

Another Tremendous Conflagration in Montreal—Four Hundred Houses Destroyed.

BUFFALO, July 9, A. M. We have just received intelligence that the city of Montreal has been visited by another destructive conflagration. The telegraph wires, leading to Montreal, in every direction, are burned down, so that communication is cut off.

The reports from the nearest working station are, that four hundred buildings are in ashes. At last accounts, the fire was still raging with great fury.

It commenced, yesterday afternoon, in Dalhousie Square, adjacent to the ruins of the late conflagration.

A temporary telegraph line is now being put up, when I will forward you a full report. [THIRD DESPATCH.] MONTREAL, July 8, 8 1/2 P. M.

At an early hour this morning, a fire commenced in a small building, at the corner of St. Lawrence and Catharine streets, and extending thence to St. Dennis street, and destroying an immense number of buildings in St. Constance street, Mignone street and St. Elizabeth street—also, the beautiful block of buildings known as Cornwall Terrace.

The Bishop's Palace in St. Dennis street, Viger Square, Viger market, and the cattle market also fell a prey to the flames. The Montreal Hospital in Dorchester street, narrowly escaped destruction. The fire is still raging in La Gachetiere Sanguillet streets.

[FOURTH DESPATCH.] MONTREAL, July 9, 5 A. M.

The fire is still burning with fearful rapidity. The Quebec Barracks, the officers' quarters, and Hays & Dorregan's Hotel are amongst the buildings destroyed. The utmost consternation and confusion prevails, and it is almost impossible to give even a faint idea of the immense destruction caused by this dreadful calamity.

STILL LATER. BURLINGTON, Vt., July 10.

The terrible conflagration in Montreal is still raging furiously, and the light can be distinctly seen from this place, though it is 100 miles distant. The fire commenced on Thursday morning, and has consequently, been raging forty-eight hours. A gentleman who arrived here this morning from Montreal, which place he left yesterday, describes the scene of the conflagration as awful and appalling. The flames were raging unchecked and hundreds and thousands of families were wandering about without a shelter to cover them. The sparks and burning embers were flying in all directions, thus spreading the conflagration, and it was impossible to predict when and where the calamity would stop.

A Good Man Gone.

We are indebted to the Editors of the Washington (Pa.) Commonwealth, and the conductors of the Morse Line for the following telegraph dispatch:—To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Dispatch.—We have just received the melancholy intelligence of the death of our much respected and beloved fellow-citizen, Hon. THOS. M. T. McKENNA, who departed this life, this morning, in Reading, Pa., where he had been detained for several weeks by indisposition. Our borough is in mourning. Business here is suspended entirely, and sorrow is depicted upon the countenances of every citizen. The court-house bell is now being tolled, reminding us that we have lost one of our noblest citizens. The American Flag is suspended from the court house, shrouded in mourning. I just learn that a town meeting will be held this evening to express the regret of the citizens.

DI-D.—On the morning of the 5th inst., at his residence in Chambersburg, Major WILLIAM GILMORE, father of Col. John Gilmore of this county, aged 53 years. The deceased had held successively the offices of justice of the peace, Brigade Inspector, Postmaster and High Sheriff, the duties of all of which he discharged to his own credit and the satisfaction of the public.
