

From the American Celt.

A Visit to Thomas Francis Meagher. The interest which attaches to the name and position of this distinguished Irishman, has made the public very desirous to see him, personally, in the chief cities of the Union.

Among those most anxious to see him may be counted many of our readers. As they have often consented to see with our eyes, we desire to extend to them the benefit of our late visit to the fortunate ex-exile of Van Dieman's Land.

One evening last week, accompanied by some Boston and New York friends, we found Meagher in his retreat, at Glen Cove, Long Island. It was four years, lacking a month, since we had last met. In that time he had undergone much of experience, and we expected to find him more changed in manner than in person.

It is not for us to repeat the details of a private conversation, but the reports which Mr. Meagher gave of his companions in captivity, have a public interest. O'Dougherty, we learned, is physician to a private charity at Hobart Town, and doing well; Martin is teaching an academy, and equally respected; Mitchell is farming and educating his children.

What shocked us, was the account of Smith O'Brien. He told us, that noble man, not yet in his fiftieth year, had grown quite stooped and gray, and was periodically affected with complaints of the heart. Reader! we remember him straight as a lance, and sound as a bell.

After the 16th inst., we will be obliged to pay Penna. Railroad Co. freights upon the delivery of merchandise; therefore, persons receiving goods by that line will pay us the freight before the goods are taken away. The same rule will be observed with canal freight when we have to pay on delivery.

JEFFERSON & EBENBURG PLANKROAD COMPANY. The stock-holders in the above named roads are required to pay to Wm. H. Gardner, Esq., Treasurer of said Company, at Jefferson, two dollars and fifty cents on each share subscribed, on or before the first day of July next.

Mr. Lofland has been elected Mayor of Memphis.

TERMS.

The "MOUNTAIN SENTINEL" is published every Thursday morning, at One Dollar and Fifty Cents per annum, if paid in advance or within three months; after three months Two Dollars will be charged.

No subscription will be taken for a shorter period than six months; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid. A failure to notify a discontinuance at the expiration of the term subscribed for, will be considered as a new engagement.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted at the following rates:—50 cents per square for the first insertion; 75 cents for two insertions; $1 for three insertions; and 25 cents per square or every subsequent insertion. A liberal reduction made to those who advertise by the year.

ADVERTISEMENTS handed in must have the proper number of insertions marked thereon, or they will be published until forbidden, and charged in accordance with the above terms.

All letters and communications to insure attention must be post paid. A. J. RHEY.

CLOTHING! Who wants Bargains! EVANS & HUGHES. Have just received from Philadelphia at their Clothing store in Ebsenburg, a large assortment of SPRING AND SUMMER CLOTHING. among which may be enumerated a fine lot of casemere, alpaca, tweed and fine cloth coats, dress, sack and habit cloth coats of every variety and color; a very large stock of satin and cassimere pantaloons of every description, and a good assortment of silk, satin and cassimere vests, together with every kind of boys clothing.

Also, fine and coarse shirts, handkerchiefs, silk shirts, stocks, umbrellas, leghorn, palm leaf, straw and silk hats, caps, &c., all of which they will dispose of on the most reasonable terms. They have also on hand a large stock of cloths, cassimeres and vestings, which they are prepared to make up in the most workmanlike manner, and on the most accommodating terms for cash or approved country produce.

Having selected their goods with great care and purchased on the lowest cash terms, they are prepared to accommodate their friends and customers with clothing of a superior quality and at lower prices than goods of a similar quality were ever sold in this country.

The public are respectfully invited to call and examine their goods. May 20, 1852.

THIS IS NOT IN FUN! We want money, particularly that which has been due for some time. Will those indebted to us please call and settle their accounts during this month and pay us all they can. Our books must be settled, and until they are, we must positively refuse to add any thing more to long standing accounts. Experience proves that in doing a credit business, if you leave accounts run over six months or a year, that there is difficulty in settling.

The books of the former firms of J. Ivory and J. Ivory & Co., will be left in the hands of an officer for collection by the 1st April, if those indebted do not call and pay their accounts by that time. JOHN IVORY & SON. Summit, March 11, 1852.—4f.

Commission and Forwarding. After the 16th inst., we will be obliged to pay Penna. Railroad Co. freights upon the delivery of merchandise; therefore, persons receiving goods by that line will pay us the freight before the goods are taken away. The same rule will be observed with canal freight when we have to pay on delivery.

GREAT COUNTRY THIS.

The Maine Liquor Law Defeated. The subscriber, thankful for past favors, would respectfully inform his friends and the public in general, that he has removed his store to the room formerly occupied by H. J. McDonald as a Catholic Book Store, where he has just received and is now opening, the largest and most fashionable assortment of ready made

CLOTHING ever offered for sale in this vicinity. His stock consists in part of Coats of all kinds and sizes, from 1.50 up to 20 dollars; Pants from 1 to 7 dollars; Vests from 50 cents to 6 dollars; Drawers of all kinds, undershirts, Sailor's blue shirts, hickory shirts, and a very fine article of white shirts with imported buttons; standing collars, suspenders, gloves, men's cravats, neckties, and linen pocket handkerchiefs; Men's and Boys' HATS AND CAPS;

Boots and Shoes. A superior article of Ladies Morocco Shoes, and seal and kid slippers; carpet bags, and in fact everything that is necessary for taste or comfort. Also, a small sprinkling of Groceries, a little too cheap. All of the above stock was purchased in the eastern cities, from the largest and best made goods to be found and selected with great care.

Believing that quick sales and small profits is the surest and best way to do business, I am determined to sell all my goods at lower prices than any other establishment in these "diggins." My terms are ONE HALF CASH, and the balance before the goods are taken away. I will charge nothing for showing my goods, and only ask persons to give me a call, and they cannot fail to be pleased. Come on over and all! S. PETERSBERGER. Summitville, April 29, 1852.

READ!!!

Youth and Manhood.—A vigorous life, or a PREMATURE DEATH. Kinkelin on Self Preservation. ONLY 25 CENTS. This Book, just published, is filled with useful information, on the infirmities and diseases of the Generative Organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age. To all who apprehend or suffer under the dire consequences of early or prolonged indiscretions—to all who feel the exhaustive effects of sedentary and baneful habits—to all who in addition to declining physical energy, are the victims of nervous and mental debility, and of moping and melancholy despondency. Dr. K. would say—

READ THIS BOOK. The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives, will prevent years of misery and suffering, and save annually Thousands of Lives. Parents by reading it, will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter, prepaid, addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of Third and Union Streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will ensure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. He who places himself under the care of Dr. K., may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, (post paid) and be cured at home. Packages of medicines, directions, &c., forwarded, by sending a remittance, and put up secure from damage or curiosity. July 31, 1851.—ly.

THE Great British Quarterlies

AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE. Important Reduction in the rates of Postage LEONARD SCOTT & Co., No. 54 GOLD STREET., NEW YORK, Continue to publish the following British Periodicals, viz: THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conservative), THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig), THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church), THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal), AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory).

These Reprints have now been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase from American periodicals of a similar class and from numerous Eclectic and Magazine made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Mess. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

TERMS. Per annum. For any one of the four Reviews $3 00 For any two of the four Reviews 5 00 For any three of the four Reviews 7 00 For all four of the Reviews 8 00 For Blackwood's Magazine 3 00 For Blackwood & three Reviews 9 00 For Blackwood & the four Reviews 10 00 Payments to be made in all cases in advance. Money current in the State where issued will be received at par.

CLUBBING. A discount of twenty-five per cent. from the above prices will be allowed to Clubs ordering four or more copies of any one or more of the above works. Thus: Four copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent to one address for $9; four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $30; and so on.

REDUCED POSTAGE. The postage on these Periodicals has, by the late law, been reduced, on the average, about Forty per cent! The following are the present rates, viz: For Blackwood's Magazine. Any distance not exceeding 500 9 cents Over 500 and not exceeding 1500 18 " Over 1500 and not exceeding 2500 27 " For a Review. Any distance not exceeding 500 4 cents Over 500 and not exceeding 1500 8 " Over 1500 and not exceeding 2500 12 "

At these rates no objection should be made, as heretofore, to receiving the works by mail, and thus ensuring their speedy, safe, and regular delivery. Remittances and communications should be always addressed, post-paid, to the Publishers, LEONARD SCOTT & CO., 79 FULTON STREET, New York, Entrance 54 Gold Street.

N. B.—L. S. & Co., have recently published, and have now for sale the "FARMERS' GUIDE" by Henry Stephens of Edinburgh, and Prof. Morton of Yale college, New Haven, complete in 2 several royal octavo containing 1600 pages, 14 plates, and 600 wood engravings. ST. FRANCIS' ACADEMY FOR BOYS.

Loretto, Cambria County, Penna. THIS INSTITUTION, in charge of the FRANCISXAN BROTHERS, and distant four miles from the direct mail route between Philadelphia and Pittsburg, will, on the first Monday in September, be re-opened for the reception of Pupils, who will be instructed in any of the following branches of an Elementary and Liberal Education:— Reading; Writing; Arithmetic; English Grammar; Ancient and Modern Geography; Use of the Globes; Ancient and Modern History; Elements of Natural Philosophy; Book-Keeping; a full course of the Mathematics, and of the Greek and Latin Classics, &c.

TERMS. The Annual Pension for Board, Tuition, Washing, Mending of Linens, and use of Bedding, (payable half yearly in advance), is $100 00 Postage of Letters, Books and Stationery, if not furnished by Parents or Guardians, will form an Extra charge, as will also medical attendance. The Scholastic Year, commencing as above, will close on the 15th of July following.

Those remaining at the Institution during the Summer Vacation will be charged $12 extra. Each Pupil must come provided with a sufficient supply of Summer and Winter Clothing; six Shirts, six Pocket Handkerchiefs, six pairs of Stockings, four pairs of Drawers, six Towels and three pairs of Boots or Shoes.

The healthy location of this Establishment, together with the picturesque scenery—the varied and extensive prospect all around, so beneficial to youthful minds—must render it desirable as a place of Education. The attention of the Brothers to the Intellectual, Moral and Religious Culture of Boys intrusted to their care, will be unremitting; and to render that attention effective, the discipline will be exact, yet mild and paternal.

A half yearly account of the health, conduct, and literary progress, of each Pupil, will be transmitted to his parent or Guardian. All letters addressed (post-paid) to the Superior of the Franciscan Monastery, Loretto, Cambria County, Pa., will receive due attention. Reference may be made to Rt. Rev. O'Connor, Bishop of Pittsburg, and Rev. H. P. Gallagher, Loretto, Cambria County. August 7, 1851.—43-6m.

A fresh arrival of Boots, Shoes, Summer Hats, Caps, Fancy Gimp and Floret Straw Bonnets, Powder, Gun Caps, Shot, Lead, &c., received this day and for sale at the cheap store of J. MOORE. June 26, 1851.
