From the Harrisburg Investigator. The Alien Law to be Revived.

Gen Scott's hatred of foreigners has long been known; and on every occasion that opportunity presented itself, he has shown his Native American sentiments. In 1836 he was fired with indighastened to his parlor, at the Astor House, to will charge three per cent. for collecting. vent his indignation, and there, as he says himself, in his letter of 1841, he and two friends drew up an address to the American people, to disfranchise all foreigners that might, after that date, come to our shores. That address, synopsis:

1. To reduce the term of naturalization from five years to three years.

Here we have Gen. Scott's views in reference to foreigners in 1844. The terms of naturalizakinds of indignities.

What a mode of conferring political rights on foreigners !!! Two years' service in the army, the only requisite to confer on them civil rights. Why, the proposition is monstrous, and in the very face of all the experience of the civilzed world, and all the warnings of the fathers of Sipe, late of Allegheny township, deceased; all ship, forthwith. the Republic. "I now hexitate between extending the period of residence before naturalization [to twenty-one venrs,] and a total repeal of all acts of Congress on the subject. MY MIND INCLINES TO LATTER."

In 1836 he was fired with indignation against foreigners, and drew up an an address against them. In 1844 he drew up and advocated a law to deprive all foreigners of a vote, except those who might serve two years in the army, and in 1852, in his letter accepting the Whig nomination, he carries out the idea of excluding foreigners from voting, except such as move and only at J. These are the positions of Gen. Scott in reference to foreigners, and they are getting to be better understood every day.
