

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

On the 7th inst. Spaulding & Rogers' great Circus Establishment was at St. Louis, "all about" in the Mississippi. It is described as a vast aquatic amphitheatre, surpassing all American Theatres in elegance and comfort, with 1100 arm chairs, 500 cushioned seats, and 900 gallery seats.

Capt. A. Irving Lewis died at Mobile, on the 3d inst., of yellow fever. Capt. Lewis was formerly a lieutenant in the Texas army, where he earned for himself the title of a brave officer.

It is a disagreeable fix to be placed in when you essay a bow to a fair friend across on the opposite side of the way, to have an omnibus intrude itself just in season for your bow to take effect directly in the middle of the crowd of passengers inside, half of whom bow to you in return, and the other half stare in a puzzled attempt to recall who you are.

A Western New York paper, in a paragraph commenting on the comparative liberality of the different Railroad Companies, with special reference to the conveying of Henry Clay's remains gratis over their lines, says, very gravely, that the New York and Erie Company were "months ago desirous of that honor."

The Boston Bee states that an address, in the form of a circular, will make its appearance in that city to-day, advocating the election of Mr. Webster to the Presidency. It will be accompanied by the proceedings of the recent meetings of his friends held in Faneuil Hall.

A National Convention of the Liberty party has been called at Buffalo, September 1. It will be a mass meeting, and assembly to nominate candidates for President and Vice President, Gerrit Smith and Charles Durkee having both declined.

The San Francisco Herald says that twenty-two thousand immigrants had arrived at that place, between the 1st of May and the 10th of July of the present year.

Gilbert Jacobs, of Springfield township, Ohio, was struck by lightning on Wednesday last, near Tremainsville. The fluid singed the hair of his head considerably, burnt a whisker completely off his cheek, blistered his neck and back, and tore open the lower part of his boot upon one of his feet, leaving him apparently dead. His companions restored him to consciousness by rubbing.

The Supreme Court of Maine has decided that the inhabitants of that State may keep liquor in their houses for their own use, and that liquor may be brought into and transported within or through the State, if it be not intended for sale. The amount of the decision seems to be, that the Legislature may prohibit the sale, or keeping or offering for sale, of liquor, but cannot prohibit its use.

During the funeral ceremonies of the late James Ryan, at the Mount Ida cemetery, in Troy, last Monday week, a startling incident occurred. After the coffin had been deposited in the vault, and as the bearers were coming out, the flooring of the vault gave way, and sank with a tremendous crash, carrying the corpse with it. It sank some six or eight feet.

We are informed that the Harrisburg and Lancaster Railroad have it in contemplation to connect Dillerville with Lancaster by a new road, and that an engineer has been employed to survey the route. The distance is about one mile, and the road could be built in a very short time.

The Boston Journal, alluding to the Serpent story, says:—"That the veritable serpent was off Race Point, on Friday afternoon last, four of our city officials who saw the monster, most solemnly aver, and they indignantly repudiate the suggestion that the moving mass which they saw might have been a school of porpoises."

The Commonwealth of Boston, says: Our nominee, Senator Hale, passed through this city, Saturday, in fine spirits, en route for Washington. He will "stand the fire."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20. HOUSE.—The House went into Committee, on the Navy Appropriation Bill. The amendment appropriating $5,000 for a burial ground for seamen, at New York, was adopted. Various other amendments were offered, debated and rejected. The Committee rose and reported the bill to the House, which was passed. The House then adjourned.

SENATE.—Mr. Hale moved to suspend the rules to take up the Land Distribution Bill.—Last year 16, says 28. The House bill, amending the Postage Law, was reported, with amendments fixing the postage of newspapers not exceeding three ounces, to one cent, to any part of the Union; and when postage is paid quarterly or regularly in advance, the rate to be reduced one-half. Upon transient papers, where the postage is not prepaid, the rates are doubled. Newspapers weighing one ounce, and circulated in the State where published, one-half said rates. The amendments were agreed to, and the bill was ordered for engrossment.

An ineffectual attempt was made to take up the bill for the election of a printer, and fixing prices. The River and Harbor Bill was then taken up; various amendments were made, and the bill was then postponed.

STEAMBOAT COLLISION.—Two Hundred Lives Lost!

The Propellor Ogdenburg ran into the Steamer Atlantic, off Long Point, this morning about half past two o'clock. The Atlantic sank soon afterwards, and a large number of lives were lost, perhaps 200. The Propellor Ogdenburg has just arrived with the Atlantic's small boats and part of her passengers who were saved. More particulars soon.

SECOND DISPATCH.

At two o'clock this morning the Steamer Atlantic came in collision with the Propellor Ogdenburg, about six miles above Long Point.—The steamer ran across the bow of the propellor striking her forward of her wheel on the larboard side. The propellor's engine had been reversed some ten minutes before the collision took place. The steamer continued on her course until she had run three miles from the place of contact, before her engine was stopped, which was caused by the water extinguishing her fire.

As soon as the damage to the propellor was ascertained and repaired, she started for the steamer and found her sinking very fast. The Lake was covered for miles with floating fragments, and persons clinging to them for life. Every exertion to save the sufferers was resorted to, but doubtless a great many were lost.

The clerk of the Atlantic did not save his trip book, and therefore cannot tell the number lost, but estimates the number of passengers on board to be from 500 to 600, a large portion of which were emigrants.

The propellor picked up and took off the wreck over 200 persons. It is impossible to say how many are lost.

THIRD DISPATCH.

When the collision took place, the passengers were all in bed, and the utmost consternation ensued among the passengers. Many of the steerage and deck passengers, who were chiefly Norwegian emigrants, jumped overboard. The water gained fast and the fires were soon extinguished—the boat rapidly sinking. A scene of terrible confusion followed. The emigrants, who could not understand a word spoken to them, fled in terror, and by cries of frantic despair. The cabin passengers, and others, who could understand the exhortations of the captain, were comparatively calm. They provided themselves with chairs, notices and beds, and all who had patent life preservers were saved. A great many of the emigrants jumped overboard in terror, and thus refused to certain death. Amidst the wildest shrieks of the sufferers, the boat sunk.

The Ogdenburg did all in its power to preserve lives, and hundreds of human beings, struggling in the water, were saved. About 250 of these picked up by the propellor, were taken to Erie, and a large number of the bodies left in the steamer Sultana, for Cleveland. Others came down in the cars. From the best information we can glean, we believe that not less than three hundred lives are lost.

The clerk of the Atlantic has saved nothing. He thinks there were from 500 to 600 passengers on board, part of them emigrants between decks. Very nearly all the cabin passengers were saved, together with all the crew, with the exception of two or three waiters. The propellor picked up nearly three hundred persons from the wreck, but the exact number cannot be ascertained.

Gen. Pierce as Judged by his Associates in Congress—Hon. A. C. McMillan, of Luzerne County.

MR. BRAMSTON is one of the most talented, staunch, and veteran democrats of Pennsylvania, and served in Congress with Gen. PIERCE. The men who know Gen. PIERCE best—both in his civil and military career—seem to be most zealous in promoting his election. In a speech delivered on the 4th of July last, Mr. BRAMSTON said:

"In respect to the two candidates presented by the Baltimore Convention, Mr. B. remarked that two more pure, upright and virtuous men could not be found in the republic. It was his happiness to have been associated with the two eminent men in one of the most trying and momentous periods of our political affairs. It was when the whole power of the aristocracy of the country was concentrated in the United States Bank in a mighty struggle under the lead of their most daring and talented leaders, to subject the government to its corrupt and haughty control. During the whole of that eventful period Franklin Pierce was found faithful and fearless in defence of the constitution and of the right of the people. His votes and his conduct on all occasions will verify this allegation. A purer democrat or a more devoted patriot does not breathe in this republic.

Colonel William R. King is one of the purest statesmen of the Union and a most experienced and veteran democrat. Practised in all the rules of legislation and profoundly learned in the civil history of the government, he is eminently qualified for the station for which he has been nominated, or for filling the first post in the gift of the people. Such are the candidates presented by the Baltimore Democratic Convention for the suffrages of the democracy of the nation; and they are every way worthy the support of every true democrat."

POISONING.

Thousands of parents who use Vermifuge composed of Castor oil, Colman, &c., are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

Another column will be found the advertisement of Hobeussack's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in their own, as well as their children's health. In Liver Complaints and all disorders arising from bile of a bilious type, should make use of the only genuine medicine, Hobeussack's Liver Pills.

"Beware! Beware!" but ask for Hobeussack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. Hobeussack, as one else are genuine.

WAYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL For the Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

Many years of trial, instead of impairing the public confidence in this medicine, has won for it an appreciation and notoriety by far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community, have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

While it is a fraud on the public to pretend that any one medicine will infallibly cure—all there is abundant proof that the Cherry Pectoral does not only as a general thing, but almost invariably cure the maladies for which it is employed.

As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log-cabin of the American Peasant, to the palaces of European Kings. Throughout this entire country, in every State, city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, the Cherry Pectoral is known as the best remedy extant for diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and in many foreign countries, it is coming to be extensively used by their most intelligent Physicians.

In Great Britain, France and Germany, where the medical sciences have reached their highest perfection, Cherry Pectoral is introduced, and in constant use in the Armies, Hospitals, Alms Houses, Public Institutions, and domestic practice, as the surest remedy for the most dangerous affection of the Throat, in milder cases, and for children it is safe, pleasant and effectual to cure. In fact, some of the most flattering testimonials we receive have been from parents who have found it efficacious in cases particularly incidental to childhood.

The Cherry Pectoral is manufactured by a practical Chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, consequently can be relied on as genuine without adulteration.

We have endeavored here to furnish the community with a medicine of such intrinsic superiority and worth as should command itself to their confidence—a remedy at once safe, speedy and effectual, which this has by repeated and countless trials proved itself to be; and trust by great care in preparing it with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength to afford Physicians an agent on which they can rely for the best results, and the afflicted with a remedy that will do for them all that medicine can do.

Prepared and sold by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass. Sold in Ebensburg by Fred. Kettel, and by Druggists and Dealers in Medicine every where.

Stray Horse.

CAME to the residence of the subscriber, one mile east of Ebensburg, about five days ago, a Bay Horse, with 5 or 6 mane and tail, supposed to be 12 or 14 years old, and to all appearance seems to have been a cart-horse. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of according to law. JOHN WHERRY. August 19, 1852—3t.

This is not in fun!

We want money, particularly that which has been due for some time. Will those indebted to us please call and settle their accounts during this month and pay us all they can. Our books must be settled, and until they are, we must positively refuse to add any thing more to long standing accounts. Experience proves that in doing a credit business, if you leave accounts run over six months or a year, that there is difficulty in settling. The books of the former firms of J. Ivory and J. Ivory & Co., will be left in the hands of an officer for collection by the 1st April, if those indebted do not call and pay their accounts by that time. JOHN IVORY & SON. Summit, March 11, 1852—4f.

THE Great British Quarterly AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

Important Reduction in the rates of Postage LEONARD SCOTT & CO., NO. 54 GOLD STREET, NEW YORK. Continue to publish the following British Periodicals: THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conservative), THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig), THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church), THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal), AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory).

These Reprints have now been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American Periodicals of a similar class and from numerous Eclectic and Magazine made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly a high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they are confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Castles" and "The Novel" (both by Bulwer), "My Penning" and "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Mess. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

TERMS.

Per annum. For any one of the four Reviews $3 00 For any two of the four Reviews 5 00 For any three of the four Reviews 7 00 For all four of the Reviews 8 00 For Blackwood's Magazine 3 00 For Blackwood & three Reviews 9 00 For Blackwood & the four Reviews 10 00 Payments to be made in all cases in advance.—Money current in the State where issued will be received at par.

CLUBBING.

A discount of twenty-five per cent. from the above prices will be allowed to Clubs ordering four or more copies of any one or more of the above works. Thus: Four copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent to one address for $9; four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $30; and so on.

REDUCED POSTAGE.

The postage on these Periodicals has, by the late law, been reduced, on the average, about Forty per cent! The following are the present rates, viz: For Blackwood's Magazine. Any distance not exceeding 500 9 cents Over 500 and not exceeding 1500 18 " Over 1500 and not exceeding 2500 27 "

For a Review. Any distance not exceeding 500 4 cents. Over 500 and not exceeding 1500 8 " Over 1500 and not exceeding 2500 12 "

At these rates no objection should be made, as heretofore, to receiving the works by mail, and thus ensuring their speedy, safe, and regular delivery.

Remittances and communications should be always addressed, post-paid, to the Publishers, LEONARD SCOTT & CO., 79 FULTON STREET, New York. Entrance 54 6d Street.

N. B.—L. S. & Co. have recently published, and have now for sale the "FARMERS' GUIDE" by Henry Stephens of Edinburgh, and Prof. Morton of Yale college, New Haven, complete in 2 serial royal octavo, containing 1600 pages, 14 plates, and 600 wood engravings.
