A Beautiful Tribute to Franklin Pierce.

Below we publish a just and handsome tribute to General Pierce, taken from the columns of the New York Journal of Commerce. The still, small voice of commendation from this respectable whig paper is heard with delight amid the storm of calumny and detraction which assails our noble leader:

"All who have with an impartial eye observed the conduct of the nominee of the democratic party for the office of President, must have been struck with his unobtrusive and modest course, and not less with the high and manly spirit, evinced whenever called upon to act or speak. These traits of character are rare in public men, and especially among those, who bred to other pursuits, quit them in time of war for services in the field. They are ever associated with the highest qualities of mind and of heart, and win for their possessor the respect and esteem which General Pierce's neighbors and friends so generally and so warmly felt towards him. We were lately near his residence in the Granite Hills, and should personally have paid our respects to him, but that it might have been misrepresented. We heard, however, not only from his political friends, but also from his political opponents, his neighbors and acquaintances, the most friendly and respectful, and often the most enthusiastic, testimony of his high and noble qualities. Even in the time of Judge Woodbury, it is conceded that General Pierce had command of the State, but that he never used his power and influence for himself, as he preferred ever to live among his neighbors as a private citizen, enjoying the honors awarded to him on all hands as the head of the bar of New Hampshire. His resignation as senator in Congress, as an officer of the army when service could no longer be rendered, and his refusal to accept the office of Attorney General and the gubernatorial chair of his State, are acts in harmony with the universal opinion held towards him by his neighbors and friends. Gen. Pierce, however, by no act or procurement of his, and from the spontaneous action of the Democratic Convention—such it unquestionably was, for we were present and witnessed—has become the nominee of the great party which it represented for the presidential office, and instantly his whole career is examined for some spot or blemish on which calumny may expatiate until the elections have decided the questions now before the country. A career which was opened under the teaching of an ancestry which had fought and bled in the country's service in the great battle of the revolution, an ancestry famous for its high and patriotic tone and bearing, was a beginning which could by no possibility terminate in the dishonor which party malignity would now attach to the name of Gen. Pierce. Throughout the war in Mexico he acted with courage; and if he erred at all, it was on the side of imprudence and unnecessary exposure. The spontaneous tribute of Gen. Scott, paid to Gen. Pierce when the nomination of the former was first announced at Washington by an assembled crowd, proves incontestably that the sentiment of the army towards General Pierce, was such as ever attends a soldier who has courageously performed his duty in battle. The name and fame of those who have rendered patriotic service are dear to the American people, and should be protected from unjust attack."

Surmounting a Difficulty.
A correspondent of the Scientific American describes an interesting method adopted by a Yankee of East Dorset, Vermont, of transporting timber from the Green Mountains. The gentleman referred to had contracted to furnish the Western Vermont railroad with 32,000 ties and other timber. As the only place from which he could get ties and timber was three miles distant from the railroad, on the tops of the Green Mountains, in a place inaccessible by any feasible road, his friends joined in the prediction that it was impossible for him to fulfill the contract. He ascended through a narrow ravine to the mountain's top, and there gathered in one vast pile 32,000 ties and other timbers. Then the question arose with every one, by what means is this to be conveyed to the railroad?—Only a few weeks of summer is allowed to accomplish it in, and nothing but rocks and gullies intervene. Surely, necessity is the mother of invention." He goes to work and builds a small substantial spout or flume of long narrow plank, stretching from rock to rock down the mountain gorge. Here it rests on a rock, there high on the branches of a tree, and there again high in the air, it threads across the valley supported like a telegraph wire. In four or five weeks the three miles were completed, all built in the most substantial manner. A small stream of water is turned into the flume, twenty men go merrily to work dashing in the heavy ties and timbers; away they fly as on the wings of a dove. In four summer days that pile of 3500 tons of lumber is conveyed, without coast, from the Green Mountains in Peru to the railroad in Dorset.

A Bonaparte in the American Army.
A promotion of 43 cadets of the Military Academy at West Point has just taken place in the U. S. Army. We remark among the number the name of the cadet Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, who was number 11 in his class at the time of the examination, and who is appointed to the regiment of mounted riflemen. He is the grandson of Jerome Bonaparte, brother of the Emperor Napoleon, Ex-King of Westphalia, and now President of the French Senate. His grandmother, Madame Patterson, first wife of Prince Jerome, resides in Baltimore and is in possession of a considerable fortune.

WHATEVER concerns the health and happy importance. I take it for granted that every person will do all in their power, to save the lives of their children, and that every person will endeavor to promote their own health at all sacrifices. I feel it to be my duty to solemnly assure you that worms, according to the opinions of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary causes of a large majority of diseases to which children and adults are liable; if you have an appetite continually changeable from one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Pain in the Stomach, Picking at the Nose, Hardness and Fullness of the Belly, Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Pulse Irregular—remember that all these denote worms, and you should at once apply the remedy:—

Hobensack's Worm Syrup.
An article founded upon Scientific Principles, compounded with purely vegetable substances, being perfectly safe when taken, and can be given to the most tender Infant with decided beneficial effect, where Bowel Complaints and Diarrhoea have made them weak and debilitated the Tonic properties of my Worm Syrup are such that it stands without an equal in the catalogue of medicines in giving tone and strength to the Stomach, which makes it an infallible remedy for those afflicted with Dispepsia, the astonishing cures performed by this Syrup after Physicians have failed, is the best evidence of its superior efficacy over all others.

THE TAPE WORM!
This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost indefinite length becoming so coiled and fastened in the Intestines and Stomach effecting the health so sadly as to excite the Dance, Fits, &c., that those afflicted seldom if ever suspect that it is Tape Worm hastening them to an early grave. In order to destroy this Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 or 8 of my Liver Pills so as to remove all obstructions, that the Worm Syrup may act direct upon the Worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 Table Spoonfuls 3 times a day, these directions followed have never been known to fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

Hobensack's Liver Pills.
No part of the system is more liable to disease than the Liver, it serving as a filterer to purify the blood, or giving the proper secretion to the bile; so that any wrong action of the Liver effects the other important parts of the system, and results variously, in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. We should, therefore, watch every symptom that might indicate a wrong action of the Liver. These Pills being composed of Roots & Plants furnished by nature to heal the sick; Namely, 1st, An Antiperistaltic, which augments the secretion from the Pulmonary mucus membrane, or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. 2nd, An Alterative, which changes in some inexplicable and insensible manner the certain morbid action of the system. 3rd, A Tonic, which gives tone and strength to the nervous system, renewing health and vigor to all parts of the body. 4th, A Cathartic, which acts in a perfect harmony with the other ingredients, and operating on the Bowels, and expelling the whole mass of corrupt and vitiated matter, and purifying the Blood, which destroys disease and restores health.

TO FEMALES.
You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in many cases, and in fact you are subject to In obstructions either total or partial, they have been found of estimable benefit, restoring their functional arrangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids so effectually to put to flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, such as headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side back, &c.

None genuine unless signed J. N. Hobensack, all others being base imitation.
