A Beautiful Sketch.

We are indebted to a writer in the Chicago Journal for the following sketch of a domestic scene that cannot fail to touch a chord in every parent's heart:

"Yesterday we saw a wagon loaded with wheat coming into town—nothing strange in that, certainly. And a man driving the team, and a woman perched on the load beside him, and a child throne in the woman's lap—nothing strange in that, either. And it required no particular shrewdness to determine that the woman was the property,—personal, of course—of the man, and that the black-eyed, round-faced child was the property of both of them. So much we saw—so much we suppose everybody saw, who looked. It is a fair inference that the wife came in to help her husband to 'trade out' a portion of the proceeds of the wheat, the product of so much labor, and so many sunshines and rains. The pair were somewhere there—a fine point observation isn't it?—this side of forty, and it is presumptive, if blessed like their neighbors, they left two or three at home 'to keep house,' while they came to town—perhaps two girls and a boy, or, as it is immaterial to us, two boys and one girl. Well, follow the pair, in and through, until the wheat was sold, the money paid, and then for the trade. The baby was shifted from shoulder to shoulder, or sat down upon the floor, to run off into mischief, like a sparkling globule of quicksilver on a marble table, while calicoes were priced, sugar and tea tasted, and plates 'rung.' The wife looks askance at a large mirror that would be just the thing for the best room, and the roll of carpeting of the most becoming pattern, but it won't do, they must wait till next year. Ah! there is music in those next years, that orchestras cannot make. And so they look, and price, and purchase the summer supplies, the husband the while eyeing the little roll of bank notes growing small by degrees and beautifully less. Then comes an 'aside' conference, particularly confidential. She takes him affectionately by the button, and looks up in his face—she has fine eyes, by the by—with an expression eloquent of 'do now—it will please them so.' And what do you suppose they talk of? Toys for the children; a John wants a drum, and Jane a doll, and Jenny a book, all pictures, 'just like Susan so-and-so's.' The father looks 'nonsense,' and feels in his pocket for the required silver, and the mother, having gained the point, hastens away, baby and all, for the toys. There acts the mother—she had promised, not all that she would bring them something, and she is happy all the way home, not for the bargains she made, but for the pleasant surprise in those three brown parcels. And you ought to have been there when she got home, when the drum and the doll, and the book were produced—and thumped, and cradled, and thumped—wasn't it a great house! Happiness is so cheap, what a wonder there is no more of it in the world.

Hear Fanny Fern, of the Boston Olive Branch on kissing. Don't she talk as if she had met one of the gifted brothers she alludes to in her remarks? We recommend her to our bachelor readers, as she has made known her desire, through the Olive Branch, to get married. She says she can crowd more heaven or 'tother place into five minutes than any other woman living, just according to the chap's like who may take her for better or worse.

Unwritten Kisses.

A sensible cotemporary says:—"The women ought to make a pledge not to kiss a man who uses tobacco."

So they had! but the deuce of it is, all the handsome men use it in some shape. And "kissing" is a little luxury not to be dispensed with! As to a female kiss, laugh! there's no overabundance in it: it's as flat as an unimproved soda powder! If I'm victimized that way, I always take an early application of soap and water! You will see women practice it sometimes just to "keep their hands in," (lips I mean,) but it's a miserable substitute for a sham article!—half to tantalize some of the male audience!—(I hope to be pardoned for turning "State's evidence," but I don't care a pin if I ain't.) Now kissing is a natural gift, (not to be acquired by any bungler!) when you meet with a gifted brother, "make a note on't," as Capt. Cuttle says. There's your universal kisser, who can't distinguish between your kiss and your grandmother's—laugh!—there's your philosophical, transcendental kisser, who goes "through the motions" in the air! then there's—oh! my senses!—they say there's such a thing as "unwritten music" and "unwritten poetry." I have my private suspicions that there are "unwritten kisses."

Largest Bridge in the World.

The Railroad Bridge now completed, over the Genesee river at Portage Falls, N. Y., is supposed to be the largest structure of the kind in the world. The Wyoming County Mirror says:—"This immense structure is now completed. Those who have not seen it should go now, as it is worth fifty miles travel to see them raising it. It will be, if not the wonder of the world, the wonder of the thousands who will visit annually. We are not aware that there is another bridge in the world as high and as large as this, and are confident that there is not, of similar structure.

It is 225 feet from the river to the track 240 to the top of the railing; and the length is 1000 feet. The suspension bridge at Niagara Falls is 230 feet high, and 735 long—so that Niagara is beat in that respect. And yet, though the work is reared to such an astonishing height, it has the appearance of perfect safety. We are told that by calculation they know that it would bear twenty times the weight of any train that could be placed upon it.

$500 CHALLENGE.

WHATEVER concerns the health and happiness of a people is at all times of most valuable importance. I take it for granted that every person will do all in their power, to save the lives of their children, and that every person will endeavor to promote their own health at all sacrifices. I feel it to be my duty to emphatically assure you that worms, according to the opinions of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary causes of a large majority of diseases to which children and adults are liable; if you have an appetite continually changeable from one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Pain in the Stomach, Picking at the Nose, Hardness and Fullness of the Belly, Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Pulse Irregular—remember that all these denote worms, and you should at once apply the remedy:—

Hobensack's Worm Syrup.

An article founded upon Scientific Principles, compounded with purely vegetable substances, being perfectly safe when taken, and can be given to the most tender Infant with decided beneficial effect, where Bowel Complaints and Diarrhoea have made them weak and debilitated. The Tonic properties of my Worm Syrup are such that it stands without an equal in the catalogue of medicines in giving tone and strength to the Stomach, which makes an infallible remedy for those afflicted with Dyspepsia, the astonishing cures performed by this Syrup after Physicians have failed, is the best evidence of its superior efficacy over all others.

THE TAPE WORM!

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost indefinite length becoming so coiled and fastened in the Intestines and Stomach effecting the health so sadly as to cause St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., and those afflicted with it, ever suspect that it is Tape Worm haunting their steps, as early grave. In order to destroy this Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 or 8 of my Liver Pills so as to remove all obstructions, that the Worm Syrup may act direct upon the Worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 Tablespoonfuls 3 times a day these directions followed have never been known to fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

Hobensack's Liver Pills.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the Liver, it serving as a filter to purify the blood, or giving the proper secretion to the bile; so that any wrong action of the Liver effects the other important parts of the system, and results variously, in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. We should, therefore, watch every symptom that might indicate a wrong action of the Liver. These Pills being composed of Roots & Plants furnished by nature to heal the sick: Namely, 1st, An Extract of the Bark of the Sassafras tree, which purifies the blood and restores the secretion from the Pulmonary membrane, or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. 2nd, An Alternative, which changes in some inexplicable and insensible manner the certain morbid action of the system. 3rd, A Tonic, which gives tone and strength to the nervous system, renewing health and vigor to all parts of the body. 4th, A Cathartic, which acts in perfect harmony with the other ingredients, and operating on the Bowels, and expelling the whole mass of corrupt and vitiated matter, and purifying the Blood, which destroys disease and restores health.

TO FEMALES.

You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in many complaints to which you are subject—in obstructions either total or partial, they have been found of estimable benefit, restoring their functional arrangements to a healthy state, purifying the blood and other fluids so effectually to put to flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side back, &c.

None genuine unless signed J. N. Hobensack, all others being base imitation.

Agents wishing new supplies, and Store keepers desirous of becoming Agents must address the Proprietor, J. N. Hobensack, Philadelphia, Pa.
