

Thursday, November 11, 1852.

The Post-Office in Pittsburg. We notice in several of the Pittsburg papers that the name of Lieut. ROBERT ANDERSON, is mentioned in connection with the appointment of Postmaster of that city, under the administration of President Pierce.

The Whig Party and Gen. Pierce. Daniel Webster, a short time before his death, called his confidential friend, Peter Harvey, Esq., of Boston, to him, and asked him whether Rufus Choate intended supporting Scott. Mr. Harvey answered, "I do not know, but think not."

FRANKLIN PIERCE defeated his opponent by a large majority of the popular vote. Not that he is a greater man in all things than Gen. Scott, but simply because the majority of the American People believed the principles of the Democratic Party to be best conducive to the happiness and welfare of the country.

DEMOCRATIC JUBILEE. On Wednesday evening, November 10th, the Democrats of Ebensburg and vicinity celebrated the recent victory in fine manner.

THE PLANK ROAD.—On Monday last we took a ride over the Ebensburg and Jefferson Plank Road, and are much pleased with its construction.

GEN. PIERCE'S CABINET.—Some papers are already speculating as to who will constitute Gen. Pierce's Cabinet. One of them says there is no doubt of Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN being appointed Secretary of State, and that Hon. LINN BOYD, of Kentucky, and Gov. Cobb, of Georgia, will be two of the Secretaries.

A Change. P. C. Shannon, Esq., has retired from the editorial chair of the Pittsburg Daily Union and is succeeded by Thomas J. Keenan, Esq., and our old friend, John Hastings, Esq.

Pennsylvania Election. We have but few additional figures respecting the vote of this State, and deem it unnecessary to publish a detailing table. The probable result in the State may be approximately stated as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Majority in 44 counties, Pierce, Scott; Dem. C. Comm'r's maj; in remaining counties, Pierce, Scott; Totals, Pierce, Scott.

General Order, No. 1. HEAD QUARTERS, White House, Washington, D. C.

Table with 4 columns: Districts, Pierce, Scott, Hale. Lists districts like Allegheny, Blacklick, Cambria, etc.

Pierce's majority, 574.

MR. EVERETT. We are glad to see that the Hon. Edward Everett has accepted the appointment of Secretary of State vacated by the death of Mr. Webster.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. That road between Chagres and Panama must be a very interesting one. Some portions of it are so narrow that a fat man, in undertaking to make the passage week before last, got so jammed between rocks on each side, that the mule walked from under him, and left him suspended in the air.

Thanksgiving in Pennsylvania. By the following proclamation from Governor Bigler, it will be seen that Thursday, the 25th of November next, has been appointed as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, throughout our Commonwealth.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. The price of railroad iron in England has gone up from $21 to $31 per ton. This adds, under our ad valorem tariff, $6 per ton to the duty, thus increasing the protection on our side.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. A gentleman, with a glass eye was about to exercise the right of suffrage in one of our wards this morning, when he was accosted by a political opponent with, "I say mister, what are you doing here? you can't vote, you're not natural eyes'd!"

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. About two weeks since Mr. Webster sent to Boston for a large lantern, to be placed on the boat, which lay at anchor on the pond, visible from the chamber where he lay.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. "Louis Bonaparte," says Victor Hugo, "is a man of middle height, cold, pale, slow in his movements, having the air of a person not quite awake. He has published, as we mentioned before, a tolerable treatise on artillery, and is thought to be acquainted with the manoeuvring of cannon. He is a good horseman. He speaks drawingly, with a slight German accent. His histrionic abilities were displayed at the Eglington tournament. He has a thick mustache covering his smile, like that of the Duke d'Artois, and a dull eye, like that of Charles IX."

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. G. P. R. James, Esq., has consented to deliver the funeral oration on the life, character and public services of the late Duke of Wellington, before the British residents of Boston and their invited guests at the Melodeon, on Wednesday evening, the 10th inst.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. "Louis Bonaparte," says Victor Hugo, "is a man of middle height, cold, pale, slow in his movements, having the air of a person not quite awake. He has published, as we mentioned before, a tolerable treatise on artillery, and is thought to be acquainted with the manoeuvring of cannon. He is a good horseman. He speaks drawingly, with a slight German accent. His histrionic abilities were displayed at the Eglington tournament. He has a thick mustache covering his smile, like that of the Duke d'Artois, and a dull eye, like that of Charles IX."

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. Thoms Francis Menger has accepted the post of Lieut. Colonel of the Irish Regiment known as the "Long Island Irish Volunteer Companies of Brooklyn Williamsburg, New York."

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. "How beautiful is it when the silver moon smiles on the sleeping earth, and the southern breeze, rich as an angel's breath, floats like the incense of roses upon the peaceful night—see a fat rat dash through a muddy gutter."

A HUGE MAN OF WAR.—The English are busily employed in introducing screw propellers into their men-of-war; and so, as their navy is concerned, are determined to be always ready for action. The first-class Kite, a fine line of battle ship Windsor Castle, a three masted, originally constructed for a battery of 100 hundred and twenty guns, was a short time since, cut under amid-ships, and lengthened twenty-three feet, to furnish a suitable space for the accommodation of screw propelling machines. She has just been launched, and her name is changed to that of the "Duke of Wellington."

MR. W. S. O'BRIEN.—The Dublin Freeman publishes the following extract of a letter from Mr. O'Brien, in which that gentleman says: "I am in good health, but my existence here is weary, flat, stale and unprofitable—barren in regard of present enjoyment, still more barren in regard of hope for the future. Nevertheless, I endure life with unremitting patience, content to wait for such changes in my destiny as the progress of events and the will of God may evolve."

WE learn from the Albany Register that the consecration of the great Roman Catholic Church in that city, is at length definitely fixed for Sunday, November 21st. Archbishop Hughes will perform the consecration ceremony.

LIFE IN NEW YORK.—The Tribune chronicles among the current events of the metropolis during the last four weeks, four murders, two supposed murders, six attempts to kill, nine stabbing cases, three cases of shooting, and twenty-seven of assault.

WE find the following telegraph despatch in the New York Express. It is strongly expressive of a "fire in the rear."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. General Scott attributes his defeat—firstly, to the New York Herald; secondly to the defection for Mr. Webster; and lastly, to the lukewarmness of Mr. Fillmore and his friends.

PRETTY GOOD.—The Philadelphia Sun, the organ of the Native American party, says:—"BROOM AND COATES.—Our candidates only fall behind Gen. Scott two votes and some eighteen Electoral votes. This result, achieved when they were nominated less than a week before the election, shows that with six months preparation, BROOM might have swept the country, and COATES covered the body politic with the honor of an American victory."

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—About the 15th or 20th of November, the staging near Greensburg will be done away with, and a continuous railroad communication between Philadelphia and Pittsburg be accomplished.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. That road between Chagres and Panama must be a very interesting one. Some portions of it are so narrow that a fat man, in undertaking to make the passage week before last, got so jammed between rocks on each side, that the mule walked from under him, and left him suspended in the air.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. The price of railroad iron in England has gone up from $21 to $31 per ton. This adds, under our ad valorem tariff, $6 per ton to the duty, thus increasing the protection on our side.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. A gentleman, with a glass eye was about to exercise the right of suffrage in one of our wards this morning, when he was accosted by a political opponent with, "I say mister, what are you doing here? you can't vote, you're not natural eyes'd!"

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. About two weeks since Mr. Webster sent to Boston for a large lantern, to be placed on the boat, which lay at anchor on the pond, visible from the chamber where he lay.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. "Louis Bonaparte," says Victor Hugo, "is a man of middle height, cold, pale, slow in his movements, having the air of a person not quite awake. He has published, as we mentioned before, a tolerable treatise on artillery, and is thought to be acquainted with the manoeuvring of cannon. He is a good horseman. He speaks drawingly, with a slight German accent. His histrionic abilities were displayed at the Eglington tournament. He has a thick mustache covering his smile, like that of the Duke d'Artois, and a dull eye, like that of Charles IX."

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. G. P. R. James, Esq., has consented to deliver the funeral oration on the life, character and public services of the late Duke of Wellington, before the British residents of Boston and their invited guests at the Melodeon, on Wednesday evening, the 10th inst.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. Thoms Francis Menger has accepted the post of Lieut. Colonel of the Irish Regiment known as the "Long Island Irish Volunteer Companies of Brooklyn Williamsburg, New York."

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. "How beautiful is it when the silver moon smiles on the sleeping earth, and the southern breeze, rich as an angel's breath, floats like the incense of roses upon the peaceful night—see a fat rat dash through a muddy gutter."

A HUGE MAN OF WAR.—The English are busily employed in introducing screw propellers into their men-of-war; and so, as their navy is concerned, are determined to be always ready for action. The first-class Kite, a fine line of battle ship Windsor Castle, a three masted, originally constructed for a battery of 100 hundred and twenty guns, was a short time since, cut under amid-ships, and lengthened twenty-three feet, to furnish a suitable space for the accommodation of screw propelling machines. She has just been launched, and her name is changed to that of the "Duke of Wellington."

MR. W. S. O'BRIEN.—The Dublin Freeman publishes the following extract of a letter from Mr. O'Brien, in which that gentleman says: "I am in good health, but my existence here is weary, flat, stale and unprofitable—barren in regard of present enjoyment, still more barren in regard of hope for the future. Nevertheless, I endure life with unremitting patience, content to wait for such changes in my destiny as the progress of events and the will of God may evolve."

WE learn from the Albany Register that the consecration of the great Roman Catholic Church in that city, is at length definitely fixed for Sunday, November 21st. Archbishop Hughes will perform the consecration ceremony.

LIFE IN NEW YORK.—The Tribune chronicles among the current events of the metropolis during the last four weeks, four murders, two supposed murders, six attempts to kill, nine stabbing cases, three cases of shooting, and twenty-seven of assault.

WE find the following telegraph despatch in the New York Express. It is strongly expressive of a "fire in the rear."

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. That road between Chagres and Panama must be a very interesting one. Some portions of it are so narrow that a fat man, in undertaking to make the passage week before last, got so jammed between rocks on each side, that the mule walked from under him, and left him suspended in the air.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. The price of railroad iron in England has gone up from $21 to $31 per ton. This adds, under our ad valorem tariff, $6 per ton to the duty, thus increasing the protection on our side.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. A gentleman, with a glass eye was about to exercise the right of suffrage in one of our wards this morning, when he was accosted by a political opponent with, "I say mister, what are you doing here? you can't vote, you're not natural eyes'd!"

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. About two weeks since Mr. Webster sent to Boston for a large lantern, to be placed on the boat, which lay at anchor on the pond, visible from the chamber where he lay.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. "Louis Bonaparte," says Victor Hugo, "is a man of middle height, cold, pale, slow in his movements, having the air of a person not quite awake. He has published, as we mentioned before, a tolerable treatise on artillery, and is thought to be acquainted with the manoeuvring of cannon. He is a good horseman. He speaks drawingly, with a slight German accent. His histrionic abilities were displayed at the Eglington tournament. He has a thick mustache covering his smile, like that of the Duke d'Artois, and a dull eye, like that of Charles IX."

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. G. P. R. James, Esq., has consented to deliver the funeral oration on the life, character and public services of the late Duke of Wellington, before the British residents of Boston and their invited guests at the Melodeon, on Wednesday evening, the 10th inst.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. Thoms Francis Menger has accepted the post of Lieut. Colonel of the Irish Regiment known as the "Long Island Irish Volunteer Companies of Brooklyn Williamsburg, New York."

FROM OUR EXCHANGES. "How beautiful is it when the silver moon smiles on the sleeping earth, and the southern breeze, rich as an angel's breath, floats like the incense of roses upon the peaceful night—see a fat rat dash through a muddy gutter."

A HUGE MAN OF WAR.—The English are busily employed in introducing screw propellers into their men-of-war; and so, as their navy is concerned, are determined to be always ready for action. The first-class Kite, a fine line of battle ship Windsor Castle, a three masted, originally constructed for a battery of 100 hundred and twenty guns, was a short time since, cut under amid-ships, and lengthened twenty-three feet, to furnish a suitable space for the accommodation of screw propelling machines. She has just been launched, and her name is changed to that of the "Duke of Wellington."

MR. W. S. O'BRIEN.—The Dublin Freeman publishes the following extract of a letter from Mr. O'Brien, in which that gentleman says: "I am in good health, but my existence here is weary, flat, stale and unprofitable—barren in regard of present enjoyment, still more barren in regard of hope for the future. Nevertheless, I endure life with unremitting patience, content to wait for such changes in my destiny as the progress of events and the will of God may evolve."

WE learn from the Albany Register that the consecration of the great Roman Catholic Church in that city, is at length definitely fixed for Sunday, November 21st. Archbishop Hughes will perform the consecration ceremony.

LIFE IN NEW YORK.—The Tribune chronicles among the current events of the metropolis during the last four weeks, four murders, two supposed murders, six attempts to kill, nine stabbing cases, three cases of shooting, and twenty-seven of assault.

WE find the following telegraph despatch in the New York Express. It is strongly expressive of a "fire in the rear."

Cambridia County, ss. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to the Sheriff of Cambria county, Greeting: Whereas James Hagens heretofore in our county Court of Common Pleas of the county of Cambria, to wit; on the ninth day of September, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, before the honorable the Judges then constituting the same Court, and Judges then in the consideration of the same Court, recovered against Alice Moran and George Burgoon, Administrators of the estate of the said John Moran, deceased, a certain debt of fifty three dollars and seventy-five cents lawful money of the United States, as also eighty one and a fourth parts of some Court were adjudged for his damages, of that debt, with interest on the debt from the twelfth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, whereof the said Alice Moran and George Burgoon, administrators aforesaid were convicted, as of record and proceedings in our said Court, before our Judges at Ebensburg, remaining, manifestly appears—said as yet remains to be made, as by the continuation of the said James Hagens we have received, and whereas the said A. Moran and Geo. Burgoon have been discharged from the further administration of the estate of the said John Moran, and Letters of Administration de bono non on said estate have been granted to Patrick McManamy, and because we are willing that those things which are right in our Court should be done, we command you, that you make known to the said Patrick McManamy, and to the widow and heirs of the said John Moran, deceased, that they be and appear before our Judges at Ebensburg, at our county Court of Common Pleas, there to be held, on the first Monday in December next, to show if any thing for themselves they know or have to say, why the aforesaid James Hagens, execution of his debt and damages aforesaid, ought not to have according to the form and effect of the said recovery, if to him it shall seem expedient. And have you then and there this writ.

Witness, the Honorable George Taylor, President of our same Court at Ebensburg, this 21st day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

R. L. JOHNSTON, Prothy. November 11, 1852.

Cambridia County, ss. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to the Sheriff of said county, Greeting: We command you that without any other delay, from us, of the following described building and lot of Ground of Patrick Fitzgibbon to wit, all that certain one and a half story Plank building situate in the Borough of Summitville, Cambria county, on a lot of ground adjoining lot of William McLaughlin on the east, and the ground belonging to the Catholic Church on the west fronting on the Turnpike road, said building containing in front eighteen feet, and in depth fourteen feet, and the lot or piece of ground appertained to said building—in your building you cause to be levied as well a certain debt of Eighteen dollars and sixty six cents, lawful money of the United States, which Dennis Conahan late in our Court of Common Pleas for the county aforesaid, by the consideration of the said Court, recovered against the said Patrick Fitzgibbons to be levied of the said building and lot of ground, also the interest thereon from the sixth day of September, A. D. 1852, and eight dollars and eighty-five cents costs, which accrued in respect of the said Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in such case as provided. And have you these names before our Judges at Ebensburg, at our county Court of Common Pleas, there to be held on the sixth day of December next, to render unto the said Dennis Conahan for his debt interest and costs aforesaid, and have you then and there this writ.

Witness the Honorable George Taylor, President of our said Court at Ebensburg, the eighth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

R. L. JOHNSTON, Prothy. November 11, 1852.

LET down for trial at a Court of Common Pleas to be held at Ebensburg in and for the county of Cambria on the first Monday of December next.

FIRST WEEK. Buchanan vs. Litzinger, " Dillon, " Newman at Ream et al " Crum " Dillon " Crum " Crum et al " Smay " Froehner's use " Robinson et al Kayler " Glass " Bewley et al Wilson " Pitt " Potts et al " Boyle Braman " SECOND WEEK. Barclay et al vs. McHugh et al Rockafeller " Wants et al Commonwealth for use " Ballew et al " Conway " Russell " Moore " Frouk et al " Dillon for use " Dillon " Bailley's Adm " Carroll et al " Same " Same " Sedlmeyer et al " Bell & Co " St Clair " Gates " Meyers " Gillespie " Keppler " Senlan

R. L. JOHNSTON, Prothy. Prothonotary's Office, Ebensburg, Nov. 4, 1852. Crusader and Cambrian copy.

REWARD. On the night of the 29th October, ult. some person or persons stole from the saw mill of the subscriber in Clearfield township, Cambria county, four crowbars, one saw-set and wrench, one iron square, and also broke the mill-saw. I hereby offer a reward of $50 to any person who will give such information as may lead to the detection and conviction of the thief or thieves.

NOTICE. HEREBY notify all persons not to enter on my premises after dark, except they be passing on the highway, as I am determined to keep watch and will deal very summarily with any person or persons found prowling about my premises in the night.

REGISTER'S NOTICE. All persons interested are hereby notified that the following accounts have been filed and passed in the Office of the Register of Cambria county; and will be offered for confirmation and allowance at an Orphan's court to be held in and for said county on the first Monday in December next, viz: The account of John McCoy Executor of the last will and testament of Patrick McCoy, deceased. The account of Lydia Varner and Jacob Fye, Administrators of the estate of Jacob Varner, deceased. The account of William Roberts, Administrator of John Grove, dec'd.

R. L. JOHNSTON, Register. Summit Oct. 7, 1852.