

ARRIVAL OF THE DANIEL WEBSTER

Two Weeks Later from California.

NEW ORLEANS, January 8. The steamship Daniel Webster, Capt. Graff...

The entire trip from San Francisco to New Orleans has been in twenty-three days...

The news from San Juan de Nicaragua is of special importance. The health of the place was good...

A number of passengers by the steamship City of Pittsburg, destroyed by fire at Valparaiso, had arrived at San Francisco.

The first legal execution took place at San Francisco on the 10th inst. A large portion of the city of Shasta was destroyed by fire on the 28th November.

The roads between Columbia and Stockton were so bad that stage have been abandoned. Flour was selling at Columbia at $80 per bushel.

A petition for the adoption of the Maine Liquor Law was in circulation. Also petitions for a better observance of the Sabbath.

Catharine Hayes was achieving immense triumphs: the first choice seat, at an auction sale had realized $1,100 premium.

The rainy season had commenced in good earnest throughout California, and at the date of the departure of this steamer, the floods rendered many of the roads wholly impassable.

The rains had, however, but little interfered with the operations of the miners, who are represented as doing very well. The greatest drawback to them was the continued high prices for food—the want of which many of them felt severely.

The market for nearly every description of produce had largely advanced since the departure of the steamer of the 1st.

The greatest advance that had been realized, was in the price of flour, which commands figures never before heard of since the discovery of the State.

Provisions were very scarce, and held at rates too high to admit operation, except for the supply of actual wants.

The general feeling in the market was, in consequence of this rapid advance, quite inauspicious.

An organization of robbers had been discovered in Los Angeles county, who carried on their operations to such an extent as to excite the fear of the whole neighborhood.

Sacramento had been almost entirely rebuilt, and the appearance of the city is greatly improved. The clipper ship Sea Witch, Capt. Fraser, which left New York, Aug. 20, had arrived at San Francisco.

Our advices from the Sandwich Islands are ten days later. The only news of importance is the occurrence of a serious riot among the seamen connected with several American whaling vessels in port.

China dates to October 5th had reached San Francisco. The news was unimportant. Honolulu dates are to the 10th November, and give the particulars of a serious riot occasioned by American sailors, and before it was quelled the station house and Harbor Master's office were burned down.

Imposing Ceremonies—Inauguration of the Jackson Estate. WASHINGTON, January 8. The ceremony of inaugurating Mill's question-staircase takes place to-day, and the occasion has drawn hither a large number of distinguished persons from all parts of the country, to witness and take part in the inauguration.

The military, with detachments from the army and marine corps, heads of departments, members of the two Houses of Congress and citizens, strangers, &c., began to assemble at the City Hall as early as nine o'clock, and about half-past ten o'clock the procession was formed under the direction of Col. Geo. W. Hughes, as Chief Marshal.

The procession was very imposing and moved down Four and-a-half street to Pennsylvania Avenue, and up the Avenue, to Lafayette Square. The streets, and especially Pennsylvania Avenue, were thronged by an immense concourse of citizens, and the scene was at once grand and magnificent.

Upon the arrival of the procession at the monument, where an immense concourse had assembled, after an eloquent prayer by the Rev. Mr. Butler, Chaplain of the Senate, the address was delivered by the Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, and the Statue was then unveiled.

The unveiling was received with repeated cheers by the assembled multitude, and almost every head in the vast concourse was uncovered. The address of Senator Douglas was exceedingly able and highly interesting.

A national salute was then fired, and other ceremonies had.

Opening of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. BALTIMORE, Jan. 10. The President and Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, the Governor and members of the Legislature of Maryland, the City Councils of Baltimore, some fifty members of the Legislature of Virginia, and about 700 invited guests, left this city this morning, in a train of twelve magnificent cars, for Wheeling, to attend the celebration of the formal opening of the road. The whole company will be entertained at Wheeling with a grand banquet.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 10, 9 P. M.—The excursion train for Wheeling reached Cumberland safely to-night. Gov. Lowe overtook the party at Cumberland in a special train.

The Seminole Indians. BALTIMORE, Jan. 10. The Governor of Florida dispatched a message to the Legislature, calling for forces to aid the General Government in driving Billy Bowlegs from the country, he being reported to be fortified south of Fort Myers. The Governor recommends that three hundred Creek warriors be sent into the swamp to capture the Seminoles.

Arrest of a Member of the Michigan Legislature. DETROIT, Jan. 8. Considerable excitement existed at Lansing on Thursday in consequence of the arrest of J. S. Noble, a member of the Assembly, by under-sheriff John Tuttle, of this city, on an indictment against him last June, at Mackinac, for the escape of a prisoner. Mr. Noble had the House for permission to leave the State, a resolution ordering him into custody. Sergeant-at-Arms was laid on only Monday. The whole matter was referred to the House on the 23rd.

Since the whole matter was referred to the House on the 23rd.

The Wheeling Bridge—Conflict between the Supreme Court and Congress.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes as follows, under date of December 25th. So it seems the worst feature of the Wheeling Bridge Case is yet to be decided.

We shall look with anxiety for the result. Public attention will soon be called to the remarkable conflict between the United States Supreme Court and the legislative branch of the government, in the Wheeling Bridge case.

The Court, by a decree at its late session, after a hearing of the case, decreed that the bridge should be removed as an obstruction to navigation, or elevated to a certain height, and they allowed a certain time within which the bridge company should comply with the terms of the decree. Congress, at the late session, and after the adjournment of the Court, constituted the bridge a post road, with a view to save the bridge and evade the decree. They undertake to legalize what the Judiciary has decided to be a nuisance.

In February, the U. S. Marshal will proceed to execute the decree, and summon a posse, and if need be, call upon the President for military aid. The Governor of Virginia, on the other hand, will resist the execution of the decree and employ the militia for that purpose. There is a clash of authority between co-ordinate branches of the government and in which States are deeply interested on one side and the other. Whether Congress or the Court is to yield is the question.

Counterfeit Money.—A new batch of counterfeit money has found its way into circulation in this vicinity. The assortment consists of Grand and York 5's and Harrisburg 2's. They are all easily detected by men who handle a great deal of money, but are well calculated to deceive others.—Hollidaysburg Standard.

NAVIGATION CLOSED.—The water was drawn off the canal on the 6th inst., the last boats of the season having arrived here on the 6th. This is much later than ever the canal was kept open before. Of the amount of business done on it, we can form no opinion—the Canal Commissioners will, probably, in due time, let the people know.—Holl. Standard.

FORCE OF HABIT.—Lord Campbell, in his "Lives of the Chancellors," says that Lord Tenterden, the celebrated judge, expired with these words on his lips, "Gentlemen of the jury, will you now consider your verdict." The last words of Lord Hermand, the Scotch judge, were equally striking and professional—"Guilty, but recommended to the mercy of the Court."

Burying alive is of frequent occurrence in the California diggings during the wet season. The late journals give accounts of many cases of this nature, but none fatal.

Cambria County, ss :

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of Cambria county, Greeting: Whereas Dr. William A. Vickroy, George Vickroy, George Gettys and Mary his wife, formerly Middlea Vickroy, Louisa Vickroy, and William Hancock and Charlotte his wife, formerly Charlotte Slick, late of your county, were summoned to be in our Court of Common Pleas for the county of Cambria, before our Judges at Ebensburg on the first Monday of December, A. D., eighteen hundred and fifty-two, to answer Edwin A. Vickroy, of a plea, wherefore whereas they, the said Defendants and the said Plaintiff, together and undivided do hold the following described tenements or premises, with the appurtenances, to wit: One tract of land containing one hundred and seventy acres, known as the "Coleman Farm," being part of a survey in the name of Ephraim Williams, originally containing four hundred and thirty acres, situate in Jackson Township, Cambria county, adjoining other lands of the parties to this wit, lands of James Williams, Henry Beck and others; one other tract containing one hundred and forty-one acres and sixty-three perches known as the "Garber Farm," and being part of the survey in name of Ephraim Williams above mentioned, situate in Jackson Township, Cambria county, and adjoining lands above described, lands of James Williams, Henry Beck and others; also one other tract of unimproved land containing one hundred and fifty-five acres and thirty-eight perches, being part of larger tract surveyed in name of Benjamin Williams, originally containing four hundred and forty-one and one fourth acres, situate in Jackson Township, Cambria county, adjoining lands of Ephraim Williams, Henry Beck, William Todd, John Barclay and the residue of said survey, with the appurtenances, of which they deny that partition be made between them, according to the laws and customs of this Commonwealth, and the statutes in such cases provided, and justly permit not the same to be done, &c. And it was in such manner proceeded in, in our court, that it was considered that partition should be made between the parties aforesaid, of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances.

Therefore we command you, that taking with you twelve honest and lawful men of your bailiwick, by whom the truth of the matter may be better known, in your proper person you go to the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and that there, in the presence of the parties aforesaid, by you to be forward, if they shall be willing to be present, the said tenements, with the appurtenances, by the oaths and affirmations of the said twelve honest and lawful men, respect being had to the true value of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, into ten equal shares or parts you cause to be parted and divide, so that neither the said Plaintiff nor the said Defendants, respectively may have more of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, than it pertaineth to them severally to have. If equal partition in value as aforesaid, cannot be made of any share or part, there, by the same inquest, or oaths and affirmations aforesaid, you have power to equalize such partitions or purports, by valuing the purports respectively, and to award that any one or more shares or purports shall be subject to the payment of such sum of money as shall be equal to the difference in value of any other share or shares, purport or purports, and you return the same with said inquest; and you further have power, by the same inquest and oaths or affirmations as aforesaid to divide the said tenements, with the appurtenances, into such number of purports as shall appear to the said inquest most convenient and advantageous, without regard to the number of parties in interest, and to value each purport. But if the said inquest shall be of opinion, that the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, cannot be parted or divided without prejudice to or spoiling the whole, then we command you that you cause the said inquest to make a just valuation and appraisement of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, upon their oaths or affirmations aforesaid, due notice having first been given to the aforesaid parties or persons concerned or interested therein to appear, to appear if they shall think fit, at the time and place of holding such inquisition, and that the partition or valuation and appraisement, or valuation and appraisements, so by you distinctly and openly made, you have here in our said Court of Common Pleas for the county of Cambria, before our Judges at Ebensburg, on the first Monday of March next, under your hand and seal, and under the hands and seals of persons called whose oaths or affirmations you shall have made the same, that such further proceedings may be had as to law or justice shall appertain. And have you then and there the names of those by whose oaths and affirmations you shall have made the same, and this writ.

Witness the Honorable George Taylor, President of our said Court at Ebensburg the thirtieth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two. R. L. JOHNSTON, Procl'y. December 30, 1852—10-4.
