The Case of Mary Delany ... Strange Developements.

Testerday, at noon, says the Pittsburgh Disich, of Tuesday, Col. Black and J. D. Mahon, q., argued the motion to set aside the verdict the jury in the case of Mary Delany, convictof the murder of Jacob Shaw, on the night the 9th of Apirl. The ground of their argumis was, that the verdict was taken from the resonn, and recorded, without polling the jury. the course of his argument, Mr. Mahon spoke the interposing hand of Providence, in furhing conclusive evidence of her innocence, ad the confessed guilt of another. We made squiry about the matter, and found it to be ue, that one John Valentine Reed, a painter, no testified for the defence during the trial of Mary Delany, openly confessed, while in a state f intoxication, and with tears in his eyes, that he plunged the fatal knife into the unfortunate deceased. In describing the manner in which he stabbed Shaw, Reed said, "As Shaw came out of the house he struck me and knocked me Reed says he can produce the knife with which he inflicted the wound, covered with blood. In-Mayor, but no arrest had been effected late last such things have happened. His Honor Judge McClure, has reserved his decision for a few days. The motion for a new trial still remains upon the docket.
