Steamboat Disaster .- Five Persons Killed -- Ten or Twelve Scalded.

POUGHEEPSIE, July 16 .- The steamboat Empire- in old and favorite boat on the New York and good conscience, &c. and Troy line-exploded a boiler about two o'clock this morning, when off Clint on Point, which dent of our said Court at Ebensburg, the 14th is about seven miles below this city.

Tue accident is attributed to various causes. One account says that a sloop run into the Empire on the larboard side, forward of the boiler, causing a breach in the guards, and the boiler having nothing to support It, fell overboard .-Many of the passengers, however, contradict this, and say that they saw no sloop that could h we run into the steamboat. It is their nelief that the explosion was caused by a defect in the boiler.

The boat subsequently drifted ashore, and now lies stranded, her head up the stream, a perfect wreck, paddle hoxes blown off, pipes shattered to pieces, and decks crushed Those who say the explosion was caused by a collission, blame the pilot, as the night was clear and starlight.

The life boat was lowered by the captain and crew, but the passengers leaping into it, caused an upset, and it is supposed that three or four persons were drowned. It is also renorted that a number leaped overboard on the first alarm, who doubtless perished.

The passengers and their baggage were taken off by the propeller Wyoming, sloop Ann Stafford, and another sloop. The injured. eleven or twelve, in number, were taken to the Exchange Hotel, in this city, and to the residence of Mr. Van Renasallær, where every exertion is being
