

DEMOCRAT AND SENTINEL.

WM. B. SIPES, Editor and Proprietor. Ebensburg, Friday, Sept. 2, 1853.

V. P. PALMER, the American Newspaper Agent, is the only agent for this paper in the cities of Boston, New York and Philadelphia...

FOR GOVERNOR, WILLIAM BIGLER.

FOR SENATOR, CYRUS L. PERSHING.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

- Supreme Judge, JOHN C. KNOX. Canal Commissioner, THOMAS H. FORNEY. Auditor General, EPHRAIM BANKS. Surveyor General, J. PORTER BRADLEY. For Assembly, THOMAS COBLEY, WM. T. DAUGHERTY, ANDREW J. RIEY, T. L. HEYER. For Commissioner, JOHN H. DOUGLASS. For County Surveyor, THOMAS M. CONNELL. For Auditor, JOSEPH HOGE.

Gov. Bigler.

It is an oft-repeated assertion that "Republics are ungrateful," but the truth of it we cannot so readily admit. True merit will sooner or later meet with its reward in all cases...

State Senator.

The Johnstown Echo, of last week, has an article on this subject which we cordially endorse.

The importance of the next Senatorial contest here is well known. Numbers of the Whig papers of the State admit that the political complexion of the next State Senate will depend upon the result in the Counties of Cambria, Blair, and Huntingdon...

TEMPERANCE MEETINGS are being held in every part of Indiana county, and a feeling seems quite prevalent, favorable to a prohibitory liquor law.

A Southern editor notifies his patrons that his fighting hours are between 10 and 12 o'clock A. M., and cordially invites them to "walk in."

The Whig State Convention assembled in Huntingdon, and nominated THOMAS A. BIRD, Esq., of Philadelphia for the Supreme Bench.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

Col. S. S. Wharton, the late "handsome member" of the Legislature, from Huntingdon, who was defeated for re-nomination, announces himself as a volunteer candidate.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

The Crystal Palace was lighted with gas for the first time, on Monday night. The number of visitors was 5,599. Contributions at the Palace for the completion of the Washington monument, have amounted to the sum of $1,575 51.

Cyrus L. Pershing, Esq.

We find the following complimentary article in the Hollidaysburg Standard, and transfer it to our columns, to show the position Mr. Pershing occupies in Blair County:

Next Senator.—The Democratic papers of Cambria county are warmly urging the nomination of Cyrus L. Pershing, Esq., of Johnstown, for the Democratic candidate for Senator, and his name will be presented in the Conference by the Cambria county delegates.

From the back-linings, cypress hole, without eliciting an "Alas! poor Yery!" and with only an exclamation from the digger, of "room for your better!"

The following communication is from the pen of an intelligent and radical Democrat, and will well repay perusal:

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

A great National highway—the best that human genius can devise and human labor construct, connecting our Atlantic and Mississippi Valley States with our new empire so rapidly expanding on the Pacific—among the most urgent needs of our time.

A Sketch.

Read the following article. Ponder upon it, young woman, and see if it does not contain something that may relate to yourself.

Miss Augustina—Is a young lady yet in her teens, and possessed of great personal beauty, of which she is well aware.
