Another Pillbustering Expedition.

We clip the following from a correspondence of the Baltimore Argus:

"That another pillbustering expedition is on foot within our borders, for the invasion of the 'ever faithful' Cuba, there now cannot be the slightest doubt. I have just read a letter from Gen. John A. Quitman, commander of the invading force, to a gentleman in this city, who, in the plan of operations is distinctly set forth—in the first place the General declares that it is especially desirable to evade any infraction of the neutrality laws, and to that end it is essential that the expedition should be organized in some locality adjacent to but outside of our borders.

The invading army is composed of five thousand man-picked troops of the country—each man is to pay his own expenses to the place of rendezvous, and to contribute fifty dollars toward his own equipment.—Some efficient ex-officers of the U. S. Service are engaged, and thus organized, a descent is to be made at some point near the Havana, where the Spanish defences are strongest—thus, by the very audacity of the movement, striking terror into the tyrants who rule the destinies of the 'Gem of the Antilles!'"

LATER FROM THE EAST!

The undersigned would respectfully inform his numerous customers, that he has received a large assortment of READY MADE CLOTHING from the well known establishment of M. M. Clegg. It is needless to praise the clothing made at this establishment as those who have purchased from me, can bear testimony as to the quality and fit of the garments. It is not necessary to enumerate the different articles of clothing—I have every article that can be mentioned in the clothing line.

Richard Trotter would beg leave to say to his friends and the travelling Public generally, that he has leased George's Laurel Elm Exchange at the foot of the No. 1. He will spare no pains or expense to make comfortable those who patronize his house; his table will at all times be furnished with the best that the market can afford and his bar with carefully selected liquors and wines.

Hoping to receive a liberal share of Patronage, he remains the public's obedient servant.

Richard Trotter, HENCKEL, Oct. 4, '54.
