BENUCIAL AND MENTINES. WM. E. SIPES, Editor and Proprietor.

Ebensburg, Friday, Oct. 7, 1858.

V. B. PALMER, the American Newspape Agent, is the only authorized Agent for this pupe in the cities of Boston, New York and Philadelphia and is duly empowered to take advertisements and subscription at the rates required by us. His re celpts will be regarded as payments. His offices are-Boston, Scollay's Building ; New York, Trib-une Buildings; Philadelphia, N. W. corner Third and Chestnut Sis.

FOR GOVERNOR, WILLIAM BIGLER. [Subject to the decision of the Domocratic Convention

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

SUPREME JUDGE, JOHN C. INNOX, Of Tioga County. CANAL COMMISSIONER, THOMAS II. FORSYTE, Of Philadelphia County.

AUDITOR GENERAL, EPHIRARM BANKS, Of Mifflin County.

SCEVEVOR GENERAL, J. PORTER BRAWLEY,

Of Crawford County.

FOR SENATOR, JOHN CRESSWELL, Jr.

FOR ASSEMBLY, THOMAS COLLINS. WM. T. DAUGHERTY.

FOR TREASURER, ANDREW J RHEE,

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY. T. L. HEEYER. FOR COMMISSIONER.

JOHN H. DOUGLASS. FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR, THOMAS M'CONNELL.

FOR AUDITOR. JOSEPH HOGE.

LOST .- On last Sonday evening, in Ebensburg. glist character. The finder will be liberally ded on returning the same to the Editor of this pa-next paper which we shall issue will proclaim foundation, and should be treated with merited to the people of Pennsylvania the manner in contempt. and our County ? Will your verdict be such the corrupt adherents of Whiggery ? Shall faced aspirants.

DEMOCRATS OF CAMBRIA !

mark their initiatory proceedings, how would they not if placed in the Halls of Legislation? What hope could you entertain that the same "almighty dollar" would not control their actions then that controls them new?

Gur candidate is honest and competent --suspicion. Between him and the Whig nemtemperance men. We believe they are sin-should pursue. Every one of them will ad- to stay at home this winter and learn comistency. mit that of the two political candidates th y would infinitely prefer the Democratic ; why, then, should they weaken his prospects of question should be seriously considered.

elected ; but the Democrats must be united to accomplish this result. Remember this, | Commissioner. ye who hate corruption and despise dishones. the cause of honesty and truth.

ANDREW J. RHEY.

Our candidate for Treasurer, should receive ev- jurist on the bench. cry Democratic vote in the County, for a more not to be found within its limits. He has battled zealously for the measures and men of the party, and deserves the gratitude of that party in return.

Mr. Rhey will be elected-of that there can be rity and private worth.

Look out for Slanders.

The time for action has arrived ! The DAUGHERTY, which reports are utterly without lions of dollars.

which you have performed your duty. Shall | These gentlemen are known to be honest and we have the proud gratification of giving ti. competent. They have made no pledges for and dings to the public that will thrill the heart against the same measure, and are worthy of the of every liberty-loving patriot in our State support of every honest man in the District. The Whig leaders are aware of their strength, and will endeavor, by base misrepresentations, to induce an one as will cast dismay into the hearts of Democrats to sacrifice them for their own double-

WHIG HONESTY.

We were informed, by a very prominent and well. To the Democracy of Pennsylvania : informed Whig, during the present week, that the nomince of that party for the Legislature, Mr. Korn-LIN, (who is also the Temperance candidate.) had ploaged himself both for and against a prohibitory Legislative and Executive branches of our State His political and private reputation is above liquor law, to prominent men in Atlegheny townships Government are to be filled, and it becomes the Here we have a sample of the double dealing pracince, who, then, can hesitate which to choose? | tised by Whig office seekers to accomplish their ends, One word we have to say to Democratic They are always anxious to jump open any new hobby that promises to carry them into power, and incorporate into their creed all the isms that are affeat. cere in their devotion to the cause, but we be- but so soon as they find a man who opposes these lieve they are equally sincere in their attach- new fangled movements, they proclaim themselves rarely, if ever, surpassed by any State mamma ments to the Democratic party. They can opposed to them sill What confidence can be placed have no hope of electing their nomince, and in a man who will thus compromise filmself to even the by casting their votes for him they may lose an election? What could be expected from an offithe Scuate of the State. A plain sense of cial aspirant who is "all things by turns and nothing duty would indicate, then, the course they long?" If we are not much mittaken in the people of our county, this Janus faced Whig will have leave

TO THE POLLS DEMOCRATS!

Democrats of Pennsylvania, remember that you election, by throwing their votes away? This will be rafied upon on TUESDAY NEXT, to ever 1846. At the commencement of the assion of was born in Euclis county, where he was brough cise one of the highest political privileges known to We have no doubt of Mr. CRESSWELL'S the civilized world-that of electing your own milers election. We feel certain that he will be and oncers at the ballot box. You have four-State an Auditor General, a Surveyor General, and a Canal

For the first place, you have as your candidate, ty, and cast your votes where they will tell for Hon. John C. Knox, who now occupies a seat on the Supreme Bench, and who has discharged the functions tention to the high responsibilities resting upon him, preme Besch by Gov. Bigler, deserving, gentlemanly, and principled man is a certain Mr. Bold, that the people at large noter divial character is best known, our cerrespondent giant of before.

a favor of Judge Knox.

For the second office, you have presented as your andidate, the Hon. Ephraim Banis, the present in here held firmly and even. The confidence of the ditor General of the State, who has discharged he | people, whose laterests have been could led to he no doubt-and he will make an officer of whom high duties of his office with a care, industry and enwe may well be proud. Rally ! then Democrats, sejentious rectifiede, that has endeared him to the pirand give him a vote that will show to the world ty. He has long been favorably known to the peoprity and multiple manners. a heavy Gold pen and peneil, with a red set in the that you know how to appreciate political integ- ple of Pennsylvania, having held several progriment top on which was engraved the letter S. in old En-word derogatory to his character.

In opposition to hum, the Whigs have presented a Democrats, look out for Slanders against our Mr. McClure, of Chambersburg, who is so atterly inticket. Our opponents are busy circulating re- norant of the finances of the Commonwealth that in | county, where his father, Gen. Jourse Bauks, was | the proof station of Pennsylvania in the Demosraports calculated to injure Messrs. COLLANS and his first political emay he made an error of two will born.

> For the third office, the convention has presented lying in Juniata county, by his devotion to the number of the fion J. Porter Brawky. He at more of Independence. The office of the second se you the name of the float J. Porter Brawley. He also is well known to the people of the State. Immeinated for the office of Surveyor General, and elected

ADDRESS Of the State Central Committee,

The approach of our General Election is a fitting occasion to appeal to you on behalf of the interests, | ted. the success, and the principles of our common par by the Inte fourth of March Convention, and is at present the Democratic nominee. He has made an The most important officers in the Judicial, universal satisfaction to all who have had business paramount duty of every Democrat attached to the with the office. principles of his political faith and anxious for its honor and prosperity, to devote his exertions, his elmitted to the bar 1842, at the age of 24 years - influence, and his vote to the cause. We are proud of our State nominees. The State ticket is worthy of your support. It comprises a group of honorable and honored names, and comnes an aggregate of talent, character and much. tions in the anouls of our truly Democratic State. The Hon. John C. Knox was nominated with an manimity that fairly represented the universal repact for his judicial and personal character that ervades all soctions of our Commonwealth. Judge Knex was born in Tioga county, on the 15th of February, 1817, and admitted to practice in the courts of that county, in June, 1829. His success, due to his talents, energy and learning, was imme-Hare and brilliant. In January, 1830, he was oppointed Dupuity Attorney General of Tiogs, and continued in that office for three years. In 1845 he was elected to the Legislature, and re-elected in 1847, he received the manimous vote of the Demo cratic members of the House of Representatives for speaker. Judge Knox's retirement from legisla we till was abainst immediately followed by an invitation from Gov. Shunk to accept the office of in the city, he has been actively engaged in his oc-President Judge of the Xth Judicial District, contjused of the counties of Westmureland, Armstrong. 1 diana, and Cambria. He was commissioned on .

which he was called, and held for many years, was the 10th of April, 1848, and unanimously confirmed the office of Controller of Public schools; he was by the Senate. In Outober, 1851, he was elected President Judge of XVIIIth Judicial District, over his competitor, Judge Buffington, by nearly 2000 resentatives, and was re-elected to the State Senof his office with a modest dignity, and a proband at majority, and in May, 1858, appointed to the Su- ate, and re elected in 1850. No man who ever occupied a seat in that will make him in a very few years the abest is the evidence and the result of merit. He is a arned lawyer, an able jurist, an honest man. In In opposition to him, the Whigs have nominated the Northern and Western counties, where his juattasts that his present nomination will be approved by an unexampled vote. Although his profes-Between these two, there is no difficulty in deciding should and legislative career proved him to be a devoted student and valuable member, it is non judge that he has been most distinguished. He is just and feary not. In his hands, the scales of justice > elicial care, is unbounded; and the respect felt for the profound and jost jurist is only unequalled. or the post of Canal Comm by esteem for his private virtues, unspatted integmoetat to support the nominations of his party. The Hon. Ephraim Banks, the Democratic can- Our obligations are mutual and common ; up offices, and never has the breath of slander uttered a didate for Au iter General of Pennsylvania, is of other basis can any party enjoy prosperity and perance irrespective of politics ? Then we might Scotch Irish descent, and of good, old revolutiona- harmony. The time-honored motio of " Principles ry stock. His gratidiather, James Eanks, was a not Men," inculcates a practical lesson that is as Seatchman, and fought at Braddock's Field un- sound as it is valuable. her Washington, and afterwards resided in York It is in no sain-ploviane spirit that we refer to to make use of the popular excitement on the His grandfather, with his family about ey of the Nation. She stands firm and true to the 1772, moved to Lost Creek Valley, then Europer-hard, niterwards Mifflin, now Juniata county. Penn-Our State Conventions converse in h Between such a blunderer as this, and Mr. Banks, sylvania. His maternal granificther, Robert Nel-the people will at once decide in favor of the latter, son, was an Irishman, and lost a calmable estate known to them. Democracy of Pennsylvanials an-comparently and most them with the indifference

The families on both sides, participated in the the Intal influences of discord in other States is One word to the friends of Temperance. If you revelutionary struggle, and did service for the institleted; and more attached to its principles as diately after graduating at Allegheny College, he was country. Ephraina was been and ruleed upon the experience more submore demonstrates that they dected to the House of Representatives, where he was | lond purchased by his grandfather Banks, in 1772. Form the true foundation of the science of civil gav. and if your efforts are to be crowned with a cor-

in active and leading member for two years. Subse-quently he was nominated and elected to the Senate where he served with great crofit to himself. for three the best elumination diagna in the country and ellippine choices to the finally husiness, and followed it until be-was about station the country and ellippine choices to the product of the senate from polit-senabout station the country and ellippine choices to the product of the political capital in the principlic choice of the princi form topics always agit and among the people ance, will not only fail in a political point of view knowledge of mathematics and surveying, he practized surveying occasionally with the then Deputy | ought never to be introduced into politics. It has by the people at the succeeding election. He hasters of the county, and was afterwards engaged in always been a fatal mistake. The irrelation in The time for reasoning is past. ACTION As aproposed the present state of things in our is now the watchword—action is what is exthere, according to the assignment as a survey of the time of the approximation the transfer of political ends of Temperance put no collidence in these held several military offices, and among them the ever will be, inevitable defeat. Such measures political tyros, who ail at once seen to have dis-In opposition to him, the Whigs have presented the office of Colonel. Finding, by the opportunity the should be selimitted to the intelligence of the pro- covered that intemperance is a great evil. We name of Christian Myers, a renegade Democrat, who office of Prothenotary afforded him, that the legal ple's representatives, and if wise, will always alm deserted our ranks because the tariff would not reverse profession was better suited to his taste than any mately triumph. The Democratic party never has Humbag. The Whig party is in this category, and was of nature, and enable him to make iron to the business he could qualify himself for, he justified, and never will sanction the importation the importation. Temperance "go to the dogs,"-Pennsylvenian. indvantage in a place that nature never intended for late Alexander II. Anderson, Esq., one of the most the election ground. nominating tickets in different parts of the State such a business. First, a diverganizing Democrat- accomplished members of the bar in the county. The Democratic party is now formidable, and inand was admitted to practice during the adminis-tration of Gov. Heister. vinsible. The administration of the good and great statesman at the head of the Republic is founded with such a column, a glorious victory is cer-will have handed to them, on election morning. Including that the population of the grant of the House approach and the second post Mr. Brawley, who has always been firm and con In 1828, he was elected a member of the House appoint by the population of the house appoint by the base of his insugaral address, of Representatives, and was twice re-elected. For and must redaund to the honor, prospecity and pro-Be at the polls early. Deposite your vote, ed them, will swear first that no parties now exand for the second and third years, chairman of deat Pierce been nob'y vindicated under its fofferthe Judiciary Committee. For the period of his encer. The inviolability of an American citizen lastly, that the people have got together in some sentatives and heas made the improvement service in the House, no one enjoyed more of the abroad has been esserted and maintained successmiraculous manner, and by some "fusion" of system of our State his study for years. There is kindness and respect of his fellow members. While fully in the face of Europe. The finencial character and condition of Penn-sylvania have been elevated, and all the great interests of the State have been maintained ander the Democratic administration of Gay, Bigler; the pursuits of industry are rewarded with prosperity, suit Pennsylvania is fast advancing to the reak of the i John Blair, who had been members before, and first in population and wealth, as she is now the as far back as in 1793, and others of equal capitelfirst in political power. ty and much experience, and onjoyed their favor Democrats of Pennsylvanial. We carneyly ask personally and politically. con to remember the glorious majority of 1852 ---He was afterwards elected a member of the Con-Shall it be diminished, or shall we repeat it, and recontion to amend the Constitution of the State, and wos a zealous and efficient reformer of that taken | peat it as often as the banners of our beloved party are opened to the breeze !- Devote one day to mainted and respected holy. Perhaps no member stud fairer with his fellow-members than did Ephthin its principles and auccess. Vote, and vote the ticket, the whole ticket, and acthing but the Orphans' Court of Cambria county, to take testcains Banks. If he was not so brilliant as some, he was always judicious. If he did not startle his dicket.

Speaker of that body, but was defeated by a single | they would disturb the government, and bring everything into a state of anarchy and ruin, sim-In 1850, Mr. Brawley was nominated by the ply because their private ends were not realized. Democratic State Convention for the office of Surveyor General of the Commonwealth, and was elec-

Mr. Brawley, after he had left college, commen-was a faithful officer. When the administration he did not, we believe, give a single vote that in-carred the disapprotation of the party. He is al

As a man and a politician he has always enjoyed the friendship and confidence of those with whom and breadth of Pennsylvania. There are fow men living of more stern integrity, honest purpose and up to the business of a carpenter and builder, and ty three years of one, when he removed to Philadelphia. During the whole time of his residence once of the public them Mr. Forsyth.

been restricted by no marrow or sectional o

His reputation for integrity has never been en-

State. In the discharge of his duties in every pulspromote the interests of his constituents, he has ennsylvania, his practical business knowledge

It is the duty, as it is the interest, of every true

Mr. Forsyth is now about fifty years of age. Ha

During his logislative career, although a song great kindness and generasity of dishe has been intimately associated.

mged he resigned

Such men, however, are soon known. They are He was again nominated for the same office a disgrace to any party, and what is somewhat singular, they are nothing-do nothing-avail able, industrious and faithful officer, and has given nothing-and they politically come to nothing. The other class are those whose narrow and contracted intellects can take hold of but one sinced the study of law, under Judge Church and was gle idea and this one idea is sufficient to engross all their energies. Some fall upon Abolitionism, He was appointed Deputy Attorney General, and some upon Nativeism, and latterly others have taken hold of the subject of Temperance. We war n Mr. Brawbey is a firm and unflinching Demorest. our friends, prospectively and in advance, against a specious and to some extent popular can t which has already become the hobby of political able and popular in his manners, and is possessed quackery. The attempt will be made, under the specious pretext of temperance, to enlist ministers of the gospel, the pious portion of the community and the friends of public order and sob-The, Hon. Thomas H. Forsyth, the nominee for riety, whilst at the same time the wire-workers Cann! Commissioner, is known throughout the length and leaders have another object in view which they at present keep concealed. They hope to avail themselves of the current of popular feeling all the while governed by an under current, which they take care to concest from the people. They antinged to reside there until he was about twen- think that popular sentiment, being enlisted infavor of Temperance, can be made available for these purposes, and therefore they make pretencupation, except while absent as a member of the sions to Temperance, make a long face about the Legislature. The first important public trust to evils of intemperance, and hope by their hypocritical whining to enlist the moral part of the afterwards a Commissioner of his District, and is community in their favor-whilst, all the while 1845 was cleated a member of the Rouse of Rep- they have quite a different end in view : their owu advancement, interest or power.

Now, we hesitate not to insist that we are as Legislature, "campleted his term of service with sincere friends of the cause of Temperance as the or of the respect of his colleagues and the conf- most boisterous of these one idea men ; may, more we can refer to our practice as sustaining our celled, and is now abuvet procertial throughout the professions-and this is more than many of these valiant champions can do. And we are willing to enably all suitable and proper means to arrest He trust he has filled, and in cornest endeavors to this great national cell. But we do most sincereone, and Lusbeen governed only by a strict state by caution the papele not to be deluded by the His thorough acqualatance with the interests of open professions of political demagogues. The very fact that they mingle Tamperance with pand his inflexible honesty, emmently qualify him lities, is already prime frecia evedince against them. If they were so honest and sincere in their professions, why not separate what ought never to be united, and labor in the cause . [Temsuppose them to be honest. But as it is it can he seen by all that their most obvious design is subject of Temperance as a vehicle to carry them to posts of honor, power and profit. But we tall Our State Conventions convene in harmony and them heforehand that they will be disappointed.

> expect to do any good in relation to this matter, but also prove a serioue hindrance in regard to. assure the public that if these quacks once gain it be such an one as we can, in after years, point to with pride, and satisfaction?

the language of Jackson, we "considered un. Read it Democrats ! til the battle commenced, and NOW WE MUST FIGHT ?" Ave, fight bravely and manfully ! No wavering should be exhibited, no doubt, should be expressed. A solid, unbroken column should be presented to the enemy, and fail. One vote may accomplish much-may change the complexion of the Pennsylvania Senate ! Romember this, Democrats ! and our party is united-our candidates are every | will some one tell us, when ? way worthy the confidence of the people, and our focs can expect nothing at our hands. To the man who will tell, when the people met, elect the latter by an overwhelming majority. Fight! then, Men of Cambria for your party know of-this information is desired. years to come.

ocratic ereed, to adhere strictly to regular nominations. Nothing should induce you to sacrifice a political friend for a political foe.

Democrats ! let nothing deter you from do- To any Democrat who will bring us the returns of secure a glorious Democratic Victory.

JOHN CRESSWELL, ESQ.

We wish to impress upon the minds of Democrats the importance of adhering, unitedly, to this gentleman, who is the regularly nominated and popular candidate of the party for the State Senate. We wish to impress them we had an oppuraity of witnessing the difficulties atthe Whig nominee.

bribery and perjury ? If such corruptions form their duty better "

Whig Humbug,

peeted and needed from every Democrat. In Statesman. It has the nan on the nead exactly

When a class of persons are hard up for strength and reasons to back them, they call in the aid of and what do you think they are at ? They are Everything combines to induce us to fight People" got together last. If last fall's elections, public and private duties, ardently for a triumph this fall, and that tri- when they expressed themselves about Whiggery In opposition to him, the Whigs have nominated umph is undoubtedly within our reach, if we and its incidental numbuggery in a very une- Mores Pownall, of Lancaster, of whom bat fittle is thus fight. Our political horizon is clear - quivocal manner-be not their last expression- known, and that little not to his advantage. During

FIVE DOLLARS REWARD

but defeat, and annihilation as a party .- since last fall elections. In several counties we

We publish in to-day's paper the address of the vote, discharged the duties with fidelity.

A Proposition.

ing your whole duty next Tuesday. Let his township by eight o'clock, next Wednesday mornnothing cause you to waver in your adherence ing, we will furnish one copy of our paper for a year; favorable to the enacument of a prohibitory lauor other and younger children. to your party. No effort should be spared to gratis. We are annious to have the vote of our coundaw, met at Temperance Hall in Bedford, on the ty entire on that morning, and hope our friends will 20th September, 1853.

A Compliment.

over the Portage Rail Road recently, speaks in the son as Conferees for Bedford county. following very complimentary terms of the work- The meeting was organized by calling Dr. R. men employed on it:

" During our visit to the State Fair at Pittsburg, Jourdon, Secretary. with the fact that his election is fixed and tending the transportation of passengers and freight the several candidates for the legislature, upon Brawley was avery active and efficient member of certain if they do their duty ; and we wish over the old and nearly worn out Allegheny Portage the subject of a prohibitory liquor law had been to impress them with the truth that every railmad, with its seven planes, and weak and disabled satisfactorily ascertained by letter and otherwise. During his first year of service, he was chairman of

According to Whig authority, BRIBERY the employees on this road. Instead of finding them AND CORROPTION have marked every step as frequently represented, a " hard nation," we found of that party up to this time. According to them quiet, attentive and orderly, performing their their own statements, Conferees, preases, duties with a promptitude and gentlementy deport-ment that contrasts strongly with many of their traand men have been bought up, like sheep in ducers. Quite a number of them at the planes-the the shambles, and the strength of all their intchers-are kept almost constantly on their hands Cambria, Blair and Huntingdon, what can be we never heard a profane or a vulgar remark. Each expected from a party whose leaders will openly and repeatedly accuse each other of openly and repeatedly accuse each other of vorably. Indeeed, we never saw men any where per-

, for re-election

and dubbing them, "People's ticket," Voters such a business. I have a proper cannot fail to sup-tration of Gov. Heister.

and then see that every man in your district ist ; secondly, that Democracy is entirely useless, you the name of Thomas H. Forsyth, of Philadelphia. tees on Estates and Escheats, and on the Judiciary, does likewise Every vote should be out this now that Whiggery is " dead and done"; and He has long been a member of the Horse of Reprefragements and confusion of names have oblittern- probably no man in the Commonwealth more con-judgment, he slways treated respectfully the opinted all old distinctions, and have dressed them in versant with the condition of our public works than dons and actions of others. do not fail to give your ballot for the nomi- bean new suits to represent their interest in Ohio. Mr. F., and he has always been proverbial for storing During his term of service in the House, he was Now, it always bothers us to know when " the honesty and strict integrity in the discharge of his ansociated with Judge Morgan, Cadwallader Lyant, > the whole of last winter, he voted for all the measure ures of extravagance of that extravagant ression. Between him and Mr. Forsyth, the people will

These, fellow Democrats, are the candidates presented to you, and you cannot sail to elect the men of and your friends ! Fight !--- and your efforts Address of the State Central Committee. election districts, and bring out the entire Democratic your own choice, if you but organize in your different State Central Committee, and ask for it a careful pe- It will not do to rely on the apathy existing in the Vote the entire Democratic ticket. Do not rusal by every Democratic voter into whose hands it Whig party. They may have a secret organi- of the community in which he resides as a useful scratch a man, or substitute another. What- may fall. It is very ably written, and gives a short zation that will poll a large vote-therefore, it is neever your personal prejudices may be, remem. history of our candidates for State officers. If will country to meet them, and evercome them. This can ber that is is a cardinal principle of the Dem. be seen that each one of them has filled a number of be done. Let it be done, and Pennsylvania will occuhonorable and responsible positions, and invariably py that high position with her sister States that bog ence to business transactions. devotion to principle entitles her to assume .- Dem. Mr. Banks is a man of family. His eldest son Union.

Another Conferee Meeting.

The Representative Conferees of this district

Messus. John Williams, George Settlemoyer, and Dr. R. A. Johnston, appeared as Conferences from Cambria county, and Messrs. Peter H. The Editor of the Harrisburg Union, who passed Shires, John R. Jourdon, and Hugh J. Hender-

Johnston to the Chair, and appointing John R. 1837, where he graduated with the highest honors tory liquor law.

Therefore, Resolved, That we have all confiaspirants was weighed by the dollars and and knees, hitching and loosening cars ; yet in all this above nominces. That we pledge them our unicents each could command. Now, citizens of irksome duty, when they were much pressed for time, ted support, and that we cordially recommend them to the friends of temperance, throughout this representative district. On motion adjourned.

R. A. JOHNSTON, Chairman. JOHN R. JOURDON, Secretary.

WM. L. HIRST, Chairmann, fidends by scintillations of wit and exhibitions of WM. CURTIE, carned knowledge, he never failed to sustain him-H. L. DIRFEENBACH, J Secretorics. From the time he served in the Reform Conven-

"One Idea Men."

We have several times alluded to the one idea men among whom we find those who are governcitizen; and during the period of his service as ed by selfish and impure motives in their pretended adherence to the party. We may enumerwealth, as well as correctes and pleasant in refer- ate them under two distinct heads, both of which claim a passing notice at our hands.

is a successful lawyer in Hollidnysburg. His sec-ond son died in San Francisco, in October, 1818, as long as their private and selfish aims can be The first are those who adhere to party only where he had located as a lawyer, with very flataccomplished. That these aims are generally su- urer ; at which meeting it is recommended that tering prospects. His third son was in all the bartles near the city of Mexico, under Scott and premely selfish need not be proved. They are the stockholders adopt such by-laws, orders and " hangers-ou," not out of pure and generous mo-Worth, and is now a practicing physician. He has tives of patriotism and love of country, but in The leading traits of his character are caution view of some ultimate advantage-some near or and firmness of purpose. His mind is clear and loremote gain, which they expect to realize. It gical ; and he is always ready to prefer that which s practical and useful to that which is speculative will be found, too, that such persons are the most boisterous and violent partisans, who often prove Hon. J. Porter Brawley, the candidate for Sur a discredit to the party, by their uncontrolled denunciations and intolerable political bicotry.veyor General, was bern in Randolph township.

party and its leaders, and in their opposition to the adverse party and its support and maintain it. But none are more easily subject to change ; none so soon find themselves to have been wrong, and none so soon begin to abuse and villify the NOTICE is bereby given to the Stockholders of the Loretto Plank Road, that an election will very party and persons whom they had almost be held at the office of the company in the Borough deified before. Recent instances have shown for the purpose of electing officers of the said road that as soon as they are disappointed in their ex- for the ensuing year, to wit: One President, five pectations, they turn a complete somerset and de-nounce their own former course. Their aim had been some office that afferd a standard of the stockholders adopt such by laws and regulations, as shall be necessary for been some office that offered a good salary, for by taws and regulations, of the officers of the comwhich they apply, though often entirely unquali- pany-Convention, after having been adhered to by his fied for it. They do not consider that other men Therefore, Resolved, That we have all confi-dence in the intelligence, and integrity, of the lots, in order to compromise the conflicting claims of the two counties. In 1847 he was nominated for understanding of the qualifications of applicants; nor do they ever reflect that other more consistent, worthy and efficient men, who have long CAME to the premises of the subscriber, living and honorably sustained the body. He was a member of the Committee on the Judiciary, chairman of the Committee on Corpora-tions, on Estates and Escheats, and on the Militia.— and honorably sustained the party—sustained it on true and honest principle—are better fitted with a brocket face, and a bell on. The owner is He was an industrious and talented Senator, warm-than they, and more deserving. But no soonor requested to come forward, prove property, pay ted by the Democratic members of the Senate for fishness is fully and grossly displayed. Now

NOTICE.

N the matter of the petition of Cornelius Gregs ry for a decree of specific performance of coamei made between Peinr Geer, lats of White township, des'd, (in his life time, ] and Peter Tupalman and the said Cornelius Gregory :

The undersigned, commissioner appointed by the Orphans' Court of Combria county, to take testnony in the shows proceedings, hereby gives notice to all parties interested that he will attend to the duties of said appointment at the office of Waiium Kitteli, Esq., in the Borough of Ebensburg, on Saturday, the 5th day of November next, at i o'clock, P. M.

CHARLES W. WINGARD. Commissioner

October 7, 1858 -46

NOTICE.

IN the matter of the petition of Thomas H. Pori. for for a decree of specific performance of contruct made between John Moran, late of Washingtan Township, dec'd, (in his life time) and William Conter ......

The undersigned, commissioner appointed by the mony in the above proceedings, hereby gives motice to all parties interested that he will attend to the duties of said appointment at the office of P. M. George, Esq., (Hemlock, Cambria county,) on Tuesday, the Sin day of November next, at one welsels, P. M.

CHARLES W. WINGARD, Commissione

October 7, 1858,-44

PLANK ROAD ELECTION.

that an Election will he held at the Court House, in the Borough of Ebensburg, on Monday, the 7th day of November next, for the purpose of choosing officers of the said road for the ensuing year, to wit : One President, five Managers, and one Treasregulations as shall be necessary for the proper inagement of the affairs of the company. By order of the Board.

WM. KITTELL,

Ebensburg, Oct. 7, 1853,-St.

PURCHASERS BEWARE.

Crawford county, Pennsylvania, on the 5th of No-vember, 1819. denunciations and intolerable political bigotry .-- L advertised by John M'Meel, Jr., administra-tor of Rev. Terrence M'Girr, depensed, to be sold They are generally bold, daring and boisterous. on the 24th day of October inst. does not belong to He entered Allegheny college in the Spring of both in their profession of attachment to the said Estate, but is the property of Ellen M'Carty. M. D. MAGEHAN, Attorney for E. M Carty. October 7, 1853.

PLANK ROAD ELECTION.

By order of the Board. P. J. LITTELL. Loretto, Oct. 7, 1858.

STRAY COW.

charges and take her away. NICHOLAS NAGLE

October 7, 1858 .- $1.

of that institution in 1840. On leaving college, he was elected to the House of Representatives of On consultation it appeared, that the views of Pennsylvania, in 1841, and reelected in 1842. Mr. the House while he occupied a seat in that body machinery; and we are only surprised to see it per- and it appearing further, that John H. Wilkinson, the Committee to apportion the State, and for the Cambria county, were the only candidates whose exceedingly important and laborious. He was also views are satisfactory to this convention. They were, on motion unanimously nominated as cannominated for Senator in the Crawford County Condidates for the legislature favorable to a prohibi-self as a man of mind and manages.

and uncertain

tion until his present term of service as Auditor-

General commenced, he devoted himself to the hus

Auditor General, he has proved himself to be efficient and faithful to the interests of the Common-friends through two hundred and eighty-seven halthe Senate, and elected, by a large vote. He maintained a very honorable standing in that dignified body. He was a member of the Committee on the

In the session of 1849, Mr. Brawley was nomina- do they find themselves disappointed, their selsend in the roturns.

